GHETTO REVIVAL

This book is about an exceptional student named Sherza who walks out with his father in St Louis, Missouri when he sees a boy about his age who appears to be homeless. Sherza who is a Christian, wants to help him, but his father warns Sherza that the child could be involved in criminal activity.

Sherza and his new friend, Cos become very close and Sherza learns about his troubled life. Suddenly, Sherza and Cos are kidnapped, and Sherza is separated from his family...

This book is wonderfully written by Author Belinda Guest Weale. It is very easy to read, and aimed at a younger reader. It is very moving, and as you read on, you begin to imagine and picture the story as it unravels each time you read through the chapters. Belinda writes with a genuine feel for each character and you believe you actually know each one by the time you are finished. I would highly recommend this book to anyone, young and old...

About the Author

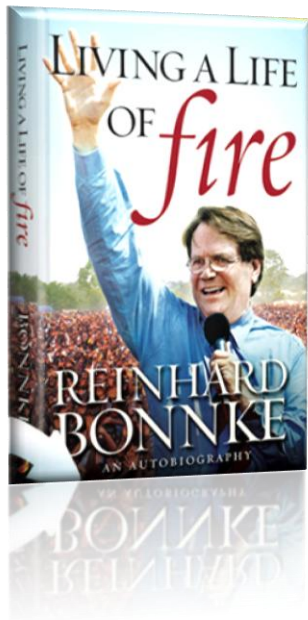

Belinda Guest-Weale was born in Malawi central Africa and was raised as a teenager in the United Kingdom.

Belinda battles with Cerebral Palsy which has made her wheelchair bound, she also has type 1 Diabetes. Belinda is married to Shane Weale and lives in Grimsby, UK. Belinda is an author and also works as a volunteer trustee of her local church which is Light Tower Redeemed Christian Church of God in Grimsby. I

In 1993 she left Africa with her parents, brother and sister, because of poverty, and no education for a disabled person like herself. Her Father and Mother decided to come to the United Kingdom for a better life; her Father was already British. Belinda was raised as a Catholic Christian, because as she says 'my dad and mum were Catholics'. She did not really know much about the Lord Jesus Christ, all she knew he was born on Christmas Day and died at Easter!

It wasn't until Belinda met a Shane who had a miraculous conversion at a Pentecostal meeting, that she began to see Jesus as her personal Lord and Saviour, Shane eventually leading her to Christ with the repentance prayer and her understanding fully the meaning of being 'born again!'

LIVING A LIFE OF FIRE

Living a life of fire is a compelling and intriguing book of how one man whose childhood was shattered by the sounds of artillery shells, explosions and the drone of Russian planes to become one of the greatest evangelists in the world with over 52 million people saved since 2000.

Inspired by his lineage of great men of faith and a dear friend of his father's Luis Graf whose life story ignited his passion to become a great man of God to preach the word of God and help the lost, the blind and the crippled.

This book gives you a deep insight into the man that is Reinhard Bonnke and goes into great depth of his life, inspiration, callings, pitfalls and testimonies of those he has witnessed to, taking the reader beyond the flesh. This is a fantastic read, thorough in detail compelling to read and what comes across is the wonder of the Holy Spirit moving in Power in one man's life, igniting a fire that never goes out and in turn enabling him to change the face of Evangelism leading millions to Christ – forever...

About the Author

Evangelist Reinhard Bonnke is principally known for his Great Gospel Crusades throughout the Continent of Africa. The son of a pastor, Reinhard gave his life to the Lord at age nine, and heard the call to the African mission field before he was even a teenager. After attending Bible College in Wales, and his ordination in Germany he pastored a church and then went on to start missionary work in Africa. It was there, in the small mountain kingdom of Lesotho, that God placed upon his heart the vision of 'the continent of Africa, being washed in the precious Blood of Jesus' — an entire continent, from Cape Town to Cairo and from Dakar to Djibouti that needed to be reached and to hear the proclamation of the signs-following Gospel.

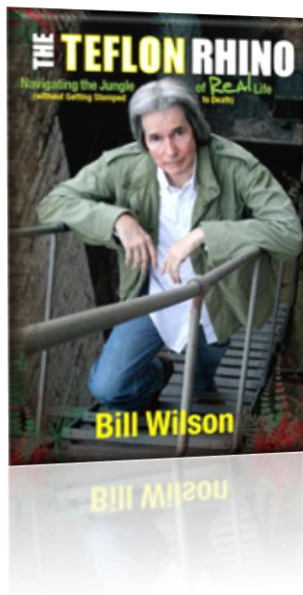

It has now been some thirty-five years since Reinhard Bonnke founded the international ministry of Christ for all Nations (CfaN), which currently has offices in the United States, Canada, Germany, United Kingdom, Nigeria, South Africa, Singapore, Australia, and Hong Kong. Since the start of the new millennium, through a host of major events in Africa and other parts of the world, the ministry has recorded 55 million documented decisions for Jesus Christ. Evangelist Bonnke is married to Anni, father to Kai-Uwe, Gabrielle, and Susie, and grandfather to eight grandchildren.

Review – Lianne Henderson

THE TEFLON RHINO

Once again we are taken into an inspirational book with a compelling message to strengthen the meek and transform them into what the book calls 'A Teflon Rhino' – and it really delivers! A Teflon Rhino is the definition of a person who is so thick skinned that nothing can stick to him or her. The book gives a sense of great empathy to the self conscious, the depressed and the lost going deep into the mindset of those who are afraid and gently encouraging them to stand up to basic principles and to do what is right in God's eyes.

The message does not frown upon the timid or the faint of heart, as the world does, but relates to them in a sympathetic yet empathetic way. 'You are not hurting anyone by doing this you are doing what you feel is right in God's eyes'. That is the most important thing to do, to do what is right in God's eyes; and this book really delivers that message. I believe this book is such a framework delivered by a great and experienced architect – Pastor Bill Wilson, to those who struggle with confidence and telling others of their faith or those who suffer a lack of faith due to circumstances. After reading this you will be inspired and you will have the confidence to overcome...

About the Author

Pastor Bill established Metro Ministries in 1980 in what was one of Brooklyn's roughest neighborhoods, the Bushwick community, most commonly known for its history of gang violence, crime, drugs, and poverty. Here, violence is a way of life and a constant threat. Pastor Bill has been beaten, stabbed and shot in the face. Yet, he perseveres and refuses to leave the area or give up on the children growing up in such an environment. Because of that, his efforts have made a difference, not only in the lives of children but in the community as well.

Due to the success of Metro's programs, President George Bush, Sr. appointed Pastor Bill to serve on the National Commission on America's Urban Families in 1991. Metro's influence was also identified as a factor in the noticeable reduction of crime in the Bushwick community and the organization was featured on ABC's Nightline.

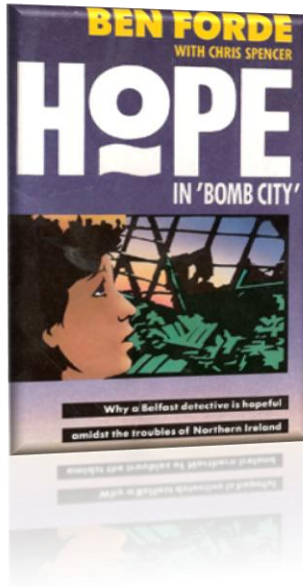

Today, Pastor Bill travels widely, speaking in churches nationally and internationally each week. He is frequently featured on Christian television networks throughout the U.S., Canada and Europe. And his programs, curriculum and techniques are being duplicated in cities all over the world. However one thing remains the same. Every Saturday, Pastor Bill is there in the heart of the urban jungle in Brooklyn, driving the school bus to pick up boys and girls for Sunday School.

HOPE IN 'BOMB' CITY

Ben Forde is a sincere Christian who is unashamed in his love for the Lord Jesus Christ. Ben is a detective with the CID in Belfast. He has been on border patrols, he has seen bitterness explode, he knows grief, he knows fear and many of his colleagues have been blown to death. However, he has also seen love and reconciliation flowing from God through men. And this is where he sees hope in 'Bomb City'.

His book is uniquely and written in a personal way as these events actually took place in the times of the troubles by a radiant Christian who has a true gift in moving people from the saved, to even the unsaved. Each chapter opens with special poems, and when you read them you can sense the loving, peaceful presence from Father God. Each page that is written in this wonderful book is dramatic and dynamically real as he captures his experiences in writing whilst serving as a detective.

Also, as you read through each chapter, there are lamps of radiance as he shares his gift of poetry to the reader which would cause them to feel a sense of peace and security, a feeling of hope like no other.
