Student Conduct

Students and parents/legal guardians agree to the following when participating in Kaykim Academics LLC (KKA LLC) sponsored events: That all students will be respectful at all times; to abide by the Christian values set forth in KKA LLC guidelines when participating in any events, classes, camps, and/or activities; to dress modestly and abstain from wearing any clothing that is inappropriate, revealing and/or exposing, including no "short shorts," no ripped or sagging clothing, and to wear proper undergarments at all times; that KKA LLC reserves the right to determine which and what type of clothing is appropriate; that any willful disregard, or refusal to adhere to the guidelines will result in expulsion, if and until the transgressor agrees to abide; that no refunds will be provided for expulsion; that no weapons are permitted at any time for any reason.

All participants may be photographed and/or recorded for marketing purposes without payment or compensation. All claims to any audio and video recordings are released. No personally identifiable information will be revealed and/or included.

General Release and Indemnification

Kaykim Academics LLC, its officers, staff, employees, agents, and partners are released from and against any and all claims, liabilities, costs, and/or damages, known or unknown. Emergency medical care will be provided for any student if necessary at the parent's expense. Parents assume responsibility for any personal and/or property damage/loss/injury to Kaykim Academics LLC, its officers, staff, employees, or agents as a result of their child's behavior.
