

2023LAW*Civil Procedure Code and Specific Relief Act*Paper : 801

Total Marks : 80

Time : 3 Hours

*The figures in the right-hand margin indicate full marks.Candidates are required to give answers in their own words as far as practicable.*Answer Question No. 1 and any five from the rest.Answer any ten questions:

2×10=20

- i) What is perpetual injunction?
- ii) Define appeal from original decree.
- iii) Define reference.
- iv) Write down two distinctions between review and reference.
- v) What are the kinds of injunction under Specific Relief Act, 1963?
- vi) "Appeal is a statutory right"—describe.
- vii) Who is a lunatic?
- viii) What is notice under Section 80 of Civil Procedure Code?

[Turn Over]

- (x) Define obligation.
- (x) What is settlement?
- (xi) Which provisions of CPC deals with appeal to the Supreme Court?
- (ii) Define trust.

Define injunction. When perpetual injunction may be granted by the court? 4+8=12

What is revision? Write down the conditions of filing revision. 4+8=12

Discuss the provision and procedure under CPC for settlement of dispute outside the court. 12

Who may obtain specific performance? Discuss the provision relating to discretion of the court as to declaration of status or right under the Specific Relief Act, 1963. 5+7=12

Distinguish between temporary and permanent injunction. What is mandatory injunction? 8+4=12

Write down the provisions of CPC regarding suits against Government. Is giving notice to the Government mandatory? What are the exceptions? 8+2+2=12

Discuss elaborately the provisions relating to suits
by indigent persons. 12

What is order? Whether all orders are appealable?
Discuss the provision relating to appeal from order.
Give two examples of appealable orders.

$$2+2+6+2=12$$