Ignite - Dashan Burke (class of 28) #8 great size (lengthy 6'4") (potential 6'8+ frame), raw good understanding of how to use angles on finishes, good handle for bigger player, raw defender, but walls up, uses left hand finishes, potential is there. Team relies on him to go off the dribble, and he's capable, will be shot blocker as he gets older/stronger. Didn't see many (jump)-shot attempts, form to develop shot, and figure out when to get his shot/spots as he gets older. Form is there.

Their best player, and one of the better players of the wknd for his age.

5- Mickey Baker(white kid)- long athletic, corner 3 guy, can put it on the floor and score, already uses left, knows the offense, potential 6'7-8-9 frame length, and athletic for his frame. Good handle, comfortable off the dribble..and comfortable being more focal part of offense after Tyson was hurt. He'll be a solid player w/ size in a year or 2.
