

Broward County Waterway Cleanup Short Story Contest Guidelines

The Marine Industries Association of South Florida is conducting a short story contest for middle school students in conjunction with the Broward County Waterway Cleanup. Each short story entry should reflect the importance of our local waterways to our community, including but not limited to their historic, economic, or environmental role. The winner of the short story contest will be awarded a $250 scholarship and will be announced at the Waterway Cleanup Trash Bash.

COMPETITION RULES

1. Entries should be 600-800 words.
2. Entries must be original and not previously published.
3. Only one entry per applicant will be accepted.
4. Entries must include information regarding waterways/marine life researched by the applicant.
5. All entries must be typewritten, double-spaced on one side of 8 1/2 x 11" paper. Text only; entries with illustrations will not be accepted.
6. Applicant must complete and attach the enclosed application form to his or her entry. Name and address of the writer should not appear on the manuscript.
