This document was created using a Contractology template available at <http://www.contractology.com>.

Personal information collection

S&R Industries does not collect or use any personal information or data on the Start&Go mobile application or the Start&Go hardware device. The hardware device is BLE enabled. However, the hardware device does not collect or store any vehicle information, which includes not collecting or storing vehicle location, speed, and direction of travel.

Using and Securing personal information

S&R Industries does not collect or use personal information in any way through the Start&Go mobile application or the Start&Go hardware device.

In addition to the disclosures reasonably necessary for the purposes identified elsewhere herein, S&R Industries may disclose your personal information to the extent that it is required to do so by law, in connection with any legal proceedings or prospective legal proceedings, and to establish, exercise or defend its legal rights.

Updating this Policy

S&R Industries may update this privacy policy by posting a new version on our website, at www.sandrindustries.com.

You should check this page and our website occasionally to ensure you are familiar with any changes.

Other websites and third parties

The Start&Go mobile application may contain links to external websites via third party advertisements. Additionally, online stores providing the S&R Industries Start&Go mobile application may collect personal information while providing and installing the Start&Go app. Refer to the Privacy Policies of those third parties.

S&R Industries is not responsible for the privacy policies or practices of any third party.
