

BELONGING

We talk of economic ruin.
We talk of crime on unprecedented scales.
We talk of bubbles.

It's a sign of the times; and the times are such, that there is an unparalleled interest in all things spiritual.

I see lots of motivational quotations to raise the spirit. Found and shared as beans begin to seek.
All very good.

I sought, and found reason to share. A good reason. Perhaps the ultimate reason.

I see individual lights shine so brightly now (metaphorically speaking of course). Strong and Bold.
Sometimes i feel a sense of detachment when considering beans.
This reflects my own doubt in the sense of achieving the growth in awareness regarding my truth.

I find myself a source of frustration at times, as i push for reaction to gauge interest.
My frustration is based on my own expectations, and a failing somewhere in my awareness, regarding the meeting of those expectations.
It makes me feel momentarily negative, but then i refocus on process.

I always come back to process.

The poverty and starvation as fallout from the Biafran wars of the 1960's, made me realise the futility of this paradigm, as means to allow the existence and survival of fellow beans.
Here I find the irony; the very thing so many seek, destroys them piece by piece while on their journey.
The power to suppress the will of another, and riches from oil beyond compare.

In most instances of creation, lack, is perceived.
Which destroys the momentary desires for improvement in someone's life.

Fear and doubt undermine lasting creation in reality so hopes and dreams fade to dissatisfaction.

The result for the majority is to survive until death, ignorant of truth and purpose. Lacking complete fulfillment perhaps?

While we might think so, i feel every death could be a balanced appreciation of achieving purpose, else why would we leave 🤔.

Like all things in awareness, there are two sides to every coin; or should we say infinite side to our coin in potential? 🤔, 😊.

Maybe we could begin to understand the nature of creation, and how we can employ it more fully, into our awareness?

This is the reason why I share my truth; in the hope that it may inspire and grow in others, the same love i find in myself.

A love so strong, i feel compelled to share an option in life choice, whereby, all beans experience the Peace and Freedom, which is our birthright.

A space, in time, where all beans find increased awareness. Awareness in ALL.

While so many are bound-up so tight in fear, i simply wish to throw a lifeline.

To talk of another WAY!

This Way, can begin as a business.

It can begin as a movement.

It each there is infinite potential.

More importantly, things grow according to global and local and individual needs!

The purpose of the combination in approach (individual, local, global, is to focus on the creation of a sense of unity in purpose in all of us. Whether that relates to simply providing food clothing and shelter, distribution of work load, or decisions in moving forward with a view to supporting ALL CREATION.

The importance of this, cannot be over-stated.

Consider the role of stewardship, a gardener maybe. The peace and harmony in awareness of attending to the needs of individual, and community, both locally, and globally as required.

The sense of connection here, it's importance in harmony and well-being with regard our own awareness in peace is immeasurable 😊.

The business model I'm preparing, is one to unite all people, with purpose.

Simple, efficient and transparent.

The movement (pardon the pun in awareness of the core creative principle), again importantly, has the individual at its centre, With all around, united.

changetheworldnow.org, was created to suggest a simple framework for connection in purpose and goal.

A simple list of guidelines, for individuals of this plane, to align with. No memberships, tiers of governance, no control over the will of another.

All expression is valid, when NOT EMOTIVE PROJECTIONS!

Purpose is growth in awareness with a view towards choice; to enable the individual to grasp a more complete awareness of the creative force that is LOVE.

Why? To find balance in awareness, through experience, which is knowing!

When we consider creation, when we consider experience, when we consider awareness, when we consider knowing, we can then become more completely aware of the impact of movement in our lives/awareness. It is here we begin to see, the NATURE of creation.

When we consider creation, we must by default consider the creator.

From the beginning, the process can be seeded as follows for growth within your own awareness!

To assist in this process, think about it. focus on it in your awareness! 🤔, 😊

Simple steps, complete a picture; one of infinite variation in detail. Such is the NATURE of INFINITE.

Forget Space, forget Time, think only of infinite variations in process. One way, then another, then another, ad infinitum!

So...

BE. BE AWARE. BE AWARE OF SELF. FOCUSSED AWARENESS. CREATION OF ENERGY IN MOVEMENT. CREATION OF INFINITE ENERGY, WHICH LED TO CRITICAL MASS AND THE CREATION OF ALL TO CREATE OUR AWARENESS.

The infinite frequency of creation is an expression of the creator's awareness, as are we, the creators' children as it were.

We enjoy a process of developing in awareness, whereby we grow in awareness as did our creator in infinite awareness, to become fully aware and balanced in that awareness.

At a point in our awareness, we will join our creator, in full awareness, this is the final union.

How is all this linked to a movement, and a business model? Because if we consider purpose with an open heart, we may be drawn towards striving to create an existence/awareness, whereby we are free and focussed to achieve in harmony and peace for the benefit of all in available choices.

Freewill is paramount.

I believe Individual expectation is best applied only to yourself.

Collective expectation found in harmony and peace, will change the world to a place of positive energy with increasing awareness in the same.

This Domino effect, the "rubbing off", on another, of all heartfelt aspirations grown within in love!

Self-Control, is not to ensure you comply with another's notion of right and wrong according to some nonsense "law" no, the purpose of SELF-Control, is to give YOU the opportunity to stay present, and reason, and consider all in awareness so ... YOU avoid the instinctive response of the BEAST that is our vehicle here in this plane.

The beast comes to the fore due to the veil of confusion. This new experiment, employing the veil as a means to continue the infinite generation of potential, is a variation on a theme.

At the growth of this new density, this new era, the Aquarian Age, we find presented to us, alternatives, to align with the new.

The new being opportunity to grow in awareness in the nature of love, as THE creative force in the universe, which is a multiverse.

Current awareness suggests, there are two areas of understanding we need to grasp.

These are important areas in awareness!

The first we've just considered. Expectation. Expectation of another can lead to disappointment and frustration based on error.

(To ERR is human, to forgive is DIVINE! 🙏)

Focus on self and control of the same).

This itself can lead to incorrect assumptions regarding another, when in truth, all the awareness of the moment reflects the catalyst of change tugging at you for attention, to enable growth.

This is done within!

All your frustrations reflect your own areas of interest regarding your own growth on the spiritual path as it were.

Part of process here, and the second awareness to consider, is the nature of energy, its creation in awareness, and its growth.

IN THE BEGINNING WAS THE WORD!

The WORD is the foundation of infinite creation in infinite awareness.

Our very purpose is to become one with the creator through Being, part of that infinite BE'ING!

This clearly identifies an important truth.

While the destination never changes, the path/journey, is one of individual choice, made seemingly more difficult here as we experience the veil of confusion.

As one density fades and another is created by the love/logos that is our sun (a collection of energy in awareness creating), seekers everywhere flood in to the density to take advantage of the in-streaming's from our sun, with a view towards individual growth. This reflects the rise in interest in all things spiritual, leaning towards the seeking of truth in awareness.

I like many others, am drawn to a need for dramatic change.

Consider the fact, IT IS IN AWARENESS NOW, ergo change could be a positive step for all in growth an awareness, as the notion of individuals in unity for purpose, is embraced by increasing numbers of beans.

WHY, WOULD IT BE SO, IF IT WASN'T PART OF PROCESS?

This isn't about me. This isn't about any individual. It's about all individuals. It's about ALL 🙄

With this in mind we can see a need for embracing the spiritual notion of acceptance, to increase awareness in our own passions and desires, as we explore all catalyst that comes before us.

If we change our thoughts towards death, whereby we now see it as a conclusion of the learning we came here to do, it becomes a cause of celebration of life in purpose. This changes energy dynamically in the present.

We can apply the same acceptance to all aspects of our life, so we EMBRACE EASE (not DIS_EASE), in our awareness.

Tis in turn enables us to become aware of truth within self with a view to understanding and growth through change.

This is the WAY of things.

Considering the reality of the existence of malevolent forces that move to control the will of all, and create according to will of a few, one can apply the following truth.

When we focus our awareness on something, we are feeding the notion energy. True.

So, the manipulation of the masses, to focus energy in increasing amounts to speed process, through the alignment of thought in many, for the purpose of change based on the will of a few, is a reality.

So, to counter this, we can simply accept all in awareness now as part of process and begin to change our thoughts of creativity towards unification and change in a dramatic way. Change the PARADIGM.

In this way, we give more energy to a different notion in awareness. Which replace the old!

We are creating something new, for the benefit of all now and beyond!

The notion of "currency" as a means to elicit trade in in all resources here found, for the purpose of accumulating "currency" as "Wealth", to enable the acquisition of things, and embrace the notion of superiority based on the premise, "i have more than you, so i am better".

Which could be replaced with, "I have more than i need, and or your need is greater than mine, please take some of mine".

This act of love sits deep within all.

Like our creator, Our Heavenly Father (an acceptable label 🙏), love is expressed as generosity in spirit, unconditional gifting!

All is choice beans 😊.

I choose to BELONG to the whole as an individual in growing in awareness.

Stay safe beans.

In the love and the light of the ONE infinite creator, Peace be with all.
