

change the world now . org -
a mechanism for global change 0610201928102019

hello fellow beans

i'm a roy

and this is an introduction, to 'change the world now . org'.

a new organisation, created as a mechanism, to literally change the world, now.

having sat in the wings as it were, for many years, it seems that now is the right time to build a new world; and seek change, both globally, and personally.

and so,

i'd like to begin with some indications as to why this new organisation is necessary. and why everyone joining 'change the world now. org', will bring, the changes we all seek.

in recent months across the world, the media has reported the activities of men women and children from all walks of life, marching and protesting for change.

even as i say that, i'm trying to think of a time, when there hasn't been problems somewhere on this planet.

people are acting through emotion people are worried, about the effects of global warming for example. which is justified.

considering the reductions in the volumes of polar ice and nothing more.

we've already studied some of the accumulated data in the layers of the ice at both polar regions.

for these layers of ice, to be built up over time, over thousands of years, we needed climate stability to some degree, which we have now lost, to an unknown degree.

and so with the melting of the ice, we witness, the complete disappearance of thousands of years of history.

all this tells us, this change in global temperatures, hasn't happened for a very long time.

so this is a definite and permanent change, here and now.

the contribution of our industrialisations to this situation, are undeniable.

the extent of that contribution seems a moot point really.

the cessation of all things that contribute to that situation seems logical and sensible.

here we could site the preservation of life itself as reason enough; but perhaps we should also consider, the ease to which we can come out of this smiling, it all depends on the action we take, and when we take it.

cause and effect, can be brutal in its teachings.

people around the world are also calling for social reform. they're calling for political change. for the removal of corrupt and or failing governments and leaders.

there are millions of displaced peoples. millions of people dying from disease and starvation.

we hear desperate stories of people fleeing in their hundreds and thousands, or simply alone. to escape from tyranny and abuse, threats of physical punishments, and even death.

it seems common place in this world.

strong feelings are being demonstrated.

there's even fighting on the streets.

in different countries, on different continents.

because it never stops it seems. the struggles.

things are NOT getting better.

i read about desires for change, people reaching out, on many different communication platforms, in many different groups.

what we could see more of, but what we don't see is cohesion; or the beginnings of any real unity anywhere.

or the foundations for real permanent change itself, being formed.

i feel, this is a BIG DEAL in one way, right now.
yet in the grand scheme of things, obviously just another blip, in awareness and experience perhaps.

i see a need for greater unity amongst us all. with a view to FORCING CHANGE, through the power of that unity.
literally power to the people.
is it really possible? - yes. it is

is this is all to do with a turning point in the history of our species i wonder?
well that sounds dramatic, and it might be, but that's not our focus.

i believe that now is the time to begin the biggest shake up, in our modern society; in a truly global sense.
bringing permanent social and personal change.

now is the time for society to evolve.

CHANGE THE WORLD NOW . ORG, is an organisation that has correctly identified an unprecedented opportunity.
the likes of which, might not have been possible before now.

change the world now . org, provides a very simple solution, to the one problem that can stop the realisation of peoples dreams.

that being, permanent beneficial change for everyone everywhere now.
that's all that's needed.

achieving the same, is a reality, if the will and desire can be born and grown within yourself, within all of us.

for the benefit of everyone, current and unborn.

i feel there is a desire within individuals, for a unity that extends beyond all current national borders.
reaching out like arms around our planet.

creating a blanket of empathy and love, as our hearts go out to the many millions of human beings in constant plight, with little or no hope of solution or improvement in the near future.

we need to begin, to manage our thoughts, starting now.

we need to pause and consider what WE, the people of this planet, can actually achieve, if we all put our minds to it, together as one.

at this point, you may be thinking, who is this guy? what's he talking about? and that's ok.

they're just thoughts, that come to mind.
and we can just let them go, and move on.

because it DOESN'T REALLY MATTER, WHO I AM. it matters who YOU ARE. and WHAT YOU choose to THINK, and then what action you choose to take;

even if that action is no-action at all.
which may be the ultimate statement of personal sovereignty ?
anyway, moving on...

i know who i am.
this, is the action i'm taking.

i'm sharing an awareness.
an awareness of this big, very real yet very simple opportunity. for all of us.

which is also referenced in the books which came out earlier this year.
as a signpost, to begin whispers of the alternative way.

with that in mind,

please be aware,
if you buy the books, available on amazon etcetera, or make donations on the 'changtheworldnow.org' web-site (that facility will be completed this week), it will increase the reach and audience of this and similar communications to come.
as well as financing the birth of 'community food funding . com' and more.
so,
thank you in advance of your patronage. it's for a good cause.
moving on...

seeing a need, you can act, now based on an understanding of this new organisation.
 of the how and why it works for the benefit of everyone.

those that take action, become an independent parts of this free organisation. others will grow around them, agreeing with the concept as shared.

liking the VISION. sharing the DREAM,

and birthing that DREAM, into reality, perhaps change the world now . org grows.

THINK about that 'unity', for a minute ... 🤔

it's not my intention to offend anyone in any way, i'm just speaking as i see it.

i hope to inspire a global audience, so to me, this is built of strength, through necessity and simplicity.

the intention is to empower individuals with a common goal in mind.

the first individuals are STRONG and BALANCED, who become the arms of this organisation to help it grow.
 more on that later.

SO, if you've come across this and your thinking, this is sounding like something i can do this, that's excellent. or if you're a group, brilliant.

that's the idea. YOU do it.

let's build the energy, with shared focus and intention.

let's SEE the real POTENTIAL, in the WHOLE

this is how we bring change.

this simple method, adopted by any one, any group, all of us.

BEGINNING GLOBAL HARMONY, AND BALANCE

through DISPLAYED UNITY.

ACHIEVING, THAT SENSE OF BELONGING FOR ALL WHO UNITE, together.

a unity displayed in thought, word and action.

the goal, is to help us all create a new network, based on a framework of values and beliefs, which connect us all as individuals through the sharing of those values and beliefs.

a network in which we can see all the connections, the unity.

and we choose to see, because the components that make up the framework, are the policies that we agree are right and true.
inalienable rights for all human beings. and rights for our planet. to ensure we look after it as we should do; as care-takers.
this is a very special place.

we shouldn't need policies for this really.

the sacred nature of our home, should be second nature to us all!

we have policies for our home. and more, but not too much.
these are the policies that make up the framework, on which the whole of humanity can stand.

OUTSIDE AND BEYOND, ANY CURRENT PERCEPTION OF GOVERNMENT AND/OR CONTROL

because we don't need that.

to do the right thing by ourselves, by others and our home planet earth .

imagine that, a framework, for sharing beliefs and values, beyond national boundaries, without fear.

a framework for sharing and distribution. for assessment and re-assessment of need and purpose.

a framework for guiding the development of all things based on immediate and future need a framework that truly unites all the people of this world, in freedom, and simplicity.

without reference or regard to place of birth, appearance, gender or faith all this, will allow us to do the right things, and be real, about who we are.

it's through the faith in ourselves and each other, and knowing that the connections are real, that we maintain the stability.

because the network exists as a uniquely independent collective that spans the globe.

this is the network of change, the world now . org realising,

that THIS, IS WHERE OUR COMMON FUTURE LIES

that this will, create a new world through DECISIVE NON-VIOLENT ACTION, based on truth and unity in mind.

affording all human beings the right to life, freedom, and personal growth.

maybe we should just pause here for a second.

and afford ourselves TIME, to fully consider what's actually proposing here.

"through DECISIVE NON-VIOLENT, NON-ACTION (even), strength is realised and power born.

power is the ability to change."

and all the power is in the hands of the people, through uniting in purpose.

if we don't join hands now, we are just fragmented voices of disquiet.

easily manipulated, rallied and dispersed, as required by those masters, that pull the strings of the unwitting puppets, in their thousands. the noisy protestors. the angry mob!

this is not the way forward, for change the world now . org within the network, the group of STRONG and BALANCED individuals are spread across the world.

all believing in the reality of success, the truth in the creation of something new, to bring change and benefit for all.

being united in purpose and supported by community, to enter positions in all local, regional and national positions of office, to bring change, through the will of the majority.

the will of the people.

and that's the will of all the people, joining this organisation to support global change.

displaying unity through belonging.

creating 'ONE, LOUD, VOICE'.

that demands attention, and rings true in people's hearts and minds, belonging to a single global organisation of the people, outside and above any and all forms of control by another body one way or another, here, is the power to bring change to the world.

ultimately this to me it represents the birthing of the foundation, of a global social memory complex.

as weird as that may sound, i'm simply talking about ALL OF US, sharing the same primary goals, values and beliefs.

a second presentation, of core policy, the inalienable rights of the human bean and behavioural guidelines etcetera is being prepared, and will be delivered in the coming days.

they're seen as something to build on.

as organic in potential, for growth and change. based on need and purpose moving on...

a goal, to see that each human bean on this planet, enjoys the freedom in thought, and in action, that is necessary for personal growth, through experience.

a growth in love, and harmony among all human beings.
each, for the other.

and don't fool yourself, thinking these are the namby pampy thoughts of weakness.

for you'll need strength to still your voice, your carnal mind.

to still your 'beast' within to avoid error, to find the truth and reason in your heart, the strength of your will.

all the will you can muster. all the desire you can focus.

and you'll need courage, to face the truths as they unfold, personally before you.

and you must build faith in what you're doing, within yourself, to keep on task to get this done...

this is not a dream born of nonsense - though i am a big dreamer.

i believe my thoughts are the thoughts of many in a world where serious violence and mental torture is common place in our lives, i know, here in my heart, we need to stop being afraid of talking about love and how truly precious we all are.

how precious life is my life. your life. all life.

so please, don't fall into the trap of feeling offended with my choice and use of any words.

they may be nothing more than a reflection of my early social conditioning.

they reflect my faith and belief, that many say is common place, in the minds of humankind.

they have significance for me in conveying, quite probably all they suggest to you.

but this is intended for anyone and everyone, so let's move on.

please also be aware, of the potential for mutual gratification in the massaging of individual ego's within groups. it's good to be aware..

it can be really hard to approach things with balance sometimes.

especially when your neck deep or worse, in nonsense and rubbish.

i was going to say, it doesn't always matter who does what in this world.

then thought, what each of us do, is exactly what matters, personally, and in the grand scheme of things.

it does matter, the action we take. or 'non-action'. to impact an outcome.

based on what we think; on our values and beliefs.
 to effect change, in the physical world and beyond;
 especially, when error is discovered.
 this world is full of error, and it's time for change.

we increase our personal strength and balance, as we increase the strength and balance of the whole, which increases again, the same in the individual.

control the dog that bites the tail, that belongs to the dog that does the biting.
 carnal mind then, is the dog. the beast within.

you choose, to think positively or negatively.
 both in what's thought and what's displayed...through words and actions.
 behaviour.
 it's good to be aware of the fact, that thoughts and actions can always be reined in and controlled as desired.
 it's all a matter of conscious choice.
 you just have to pause to allow yourself time consider things.
 to constantly improve your personal choices, based on unconditional love of self and others.

again, let's move on...

our goal must simply be, to unite the whole of humankind because we're worth it 🙄 a simple idea, that will allow for the uniting of hundreds of millions of people across the globe.

so register your support and belief. show you belong.

on the change the world now . org website - changetheworldnow.org support stuff as it becomes available.

 being a part of it, helps ensure organic growth.
 you can offer to do stuff to help it grow if you wish. that's the idea.

it's the idea of being a part of something being a part of something that covers the planet.

that exists outside of all governments and ruling bodies; until all those corrupt and unworkable forms of enslavement, have been replaced, with the network that serves all of community based simply on need and purpose. our needs are simple ones really.

think it here, in your mind. find understanding feel it here, in your heart. this is where we find balance. see with your heart.

the progress that will be achieved, in this new freedom will eclipse all efforts to date as we expand our expectations of ourselves and our society. with unlimited and unrestrained creativity adequate resources based on need and purpose we can leave the past behind, and embrace a new age. a golden age.

this is a signal for each us that we belong to something new.

welcome to the world of new a world of change and growth welcome to the world of 'common' privilege a world of true freedom for individuals welcome to a world of sharing, not greed a world of BALANCE and care, in all things, welcome to a world of peace and harmony

a world of tolerance, through understanding and compassion

first, let's consider, what might be truly possible...

well
history would suggest our future holds no limitations in our creative expression, except perhaps, any limitations we perceive, in our own imagination 🤔 history also shows us, quite clearly, that moments arise, when large groups of human beings get together, and begin to share thoughts about lack. about not having enough. about things not being fair. about those in power not listening anymore.

the seeds of disenchantment are firmly planted.

lives are not seen as being all they could be.
 families beginning to disintegrate.
 communities, becoming intolerant of itself disrepair, disease, suffering on all levels, in some places where affluence and EXTREME PRIVILEGE, sit SIDE BY SIDE with poverty and subsistence at the lowest levels.

this is not a picture of a BALANCED society it doesn't fill us with confidence, that OUR, SOCIETY, even our very PLANET, is being GOVERNED, with the benefit of ALL OF US, in MIND.

at this moment in time, there APPEARS, to be only TWO OPTIONS available to us.

only TWO, forms of CONTROL, that we can CHOOSE

on one hand, we have the lies and corruption, of what we are TOLD, is DEMOCRACY and on the other hand we have the lies and corruption of a 'single' ruling body or individual, in the form of DICTATORSHIP, which leaves no room, for the freedoms, of the individual generally speaking.

the rule of the 'single' person or group. for example, china, north korea, saudi arabia etc is only comfortable with what is sanctioned as acceptable, by the controllers.

expressions of freewill are potentially harmful and therefore generally not tolerated.

those that have the power and the privilege, are so afraid of losing it, they rule with iron hands.

severe, often inhumane punishments, imprisonments, loss of liberty, loss of life.
 often without true cause.

these are the promises of retaliation, against and all those who would dare challenge their authority and their rules.

this holds little or no promise, for true happiness, for anyone.

personally, looking from the outside in, i don't see a fairness.

i don't see any BALANCE.

i don't see happiness and love in the eyes and hearts of those peoples, living this way through fear.

how many people, would leave these countries, to be free of the oppression; if they were actually given a choice.

HOW CAN, a person, or group of people, act in this way towards the rest of the people in their country?

are their hearts and minds, full of torment terror and torture, greed and fear.

to be the last word in the very right to life...

that, from anyone's lips is error right here we see the true NATURE, of the 'BEAST', IN HUMANKIND.

IN THE GOVERNANCE. IN THE DOMINATION, IN THE SUBJUGATION
IN THE IMPRISONING OF THE MASSES, THROUGH FEAR AND LIES.

and yet we should still embrace these people with love.

those whose actions are in error.

remember, if we act the same, we are the same. as you judge them so you are.

this is why, two wrongs don't make a right;

because there is no balance you have a right to be different.

to be free. to express yourself.

NOT to ACT, in violent or aggressive ways, as we take back control of our world, because we can.

to bring the necessary changes we all want to see.

NOW. because we can.

and what of DEMOCRACY?

in the past as now, we have had councils, senates etecetera the rise of 'parties' in opposition, to encourage debate debate by potentially disparate groups of people, in CONSTANT conflict with EACH OTHER a conflict born of the desires within individuals, lusting after powers, born of greed this, is, madness.

a MADNESS , only seen, in the UNCONTROLLED MIND OF HUMANKIND to me, THIS 'I', THE BEAST WITHIN US ALL at play.

and it's only when we can retain control of our own beast, that we can view the world, and all life in it, with any sense of clear sight, clear mind, and BALANCE

DEMOCRACY,
as we know it,

is a world of lies and deceit.
a playground, for uncontrolled children.
exactly the same as the dictatorships really.

that's why it's time for something new. something fresh. real, and free.
that is literally, the people.

as for democracy and dictatorships, both are full of...

lying. stealing. cheating. corruption. disloyalty. imprisoning and murdering at will, without care or conscience. these are facts. a sad truth.
this is the reality of government and dictatorship delivering propaganda and misinformation always.
creating within us, frustration and anger, fear and hatred.

all our trust has gone !

ALL THESE PEOPLE IN GOVERNMENT AND COUNCILS AND SENATES, AND ALL THESE NEW, SNEAKY GLOBALISTS, THAT SEEK TO RULE WITH IRON FISTS, DO IT

BECAUSE THEY ARE AFRAID OF LOSING WHAT THEY BELIEVE THEY HAVE. WHAT THEY BELIEVE IS PRESCIOUS

THE PRIVILAGES AND POWERS THEY BELIEVE ARE THEIRS, THROUGH THEIR ALLIANCES AND LOYALTIES;

loyalties, to themselves, alone. individually.

thinking they will stay safe, if they do as they're told; if they stay within these organisations of death deceit and suffering

innocent MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN ACROSS THE WORLD MURDERED, BY GOVERNMENTS and GLOBALISTS, IN THE NAME OF DEMOCRACY

MURDERED, IN DICTATORSHIPS, SIMPLY BECASUE PEOPLE ARE TOO AFRAID TO SAY, ENOUGH IS ENOUGH.

HOW, CAN YOU TAKE A LIFE, AND NOT, BE , A MURDERER, HOW?
war is a nonsense.
and at some point, there is always personal choice perhaps we should consider this..? how can anyone be the last word in someone's right to life!

from anyone's lips that's an error let's talk about our truths, about this world, its people and its systems.

the current paradigms DO NOT lend themselves to favour us all you cannot grow in peace, niether can you grow in harmony when your foundation for growth is one of FEAR.

of OPRESSION AND SUFFERING.
of PRIVILAGE, FOR A FEW.

this, is simply, NOT FAIR.

it represents zero 'BALANCE,' when we consider equality amongst people

AND WE NEED, BALANCE IN ALL THINGS; to grow individually, and as a whole

we need to understand, it IS,
 THE RIGHT OF EVERY HUMAN BEAN TO EXPECT TO LIVE IN SHELTER TO ENJOY FOOD EVERY DAY TO ENJOY HEALTH, TOTAL FREEDOM AND SAFETY FROM ANY AND ALL HARM

IF WE, TOLERATE LACK, SUFFERING, DISEASE AND DEATH, WE ARE NO MORE THAN BEASTS, AND SO MUCH TIME IS WASTED...

things are very simple, very easy, if WE, wish them to be.

with all this to consider, i just want to mention the globalists again.

i believe there is the threat, of a very real error, born of greed, and more lusting for power, within the minds of a VERY, SMALL, MINORITY.

it comes in the form of ANOTHER, DICTATORSHIP

A REAL WOLF, IN SHEEPS CLOTHING

... and i would ask you to consider this fully, before you react, or dismiss what i say...

... and all i would say, is this;

an ARMY, of 1 million, wearing the blue beret of the united nations will NEVER,
 EVER, be an army of peace, and freedom and truth

it will ONLY, EVER BE, A PRIVATE ARMY -
 to enforce, the whims and expectations of the smallest of minorities, to ensure you stay fully, under their control, and enslaved.

and were that to EVER, come to pass, you would stay sick and confused, unhappy. disenchanted and TRAPPED.

and while you may hear, many 'popular voices' of concern, be aware that you are being whipped up into a frenzy full of fear and "panic".

and you fool yourselves if you believe that angry mobs in the streets will bring the changes we seek; they won't.

'angry mobs' in different countries, just fuel the argument for a ...

GLOBAL - UNILATERAL - PEACE KEEPING 'ARMY'.

using this substantial army, no specific country ever needs to respond to, and squash any uprisings of dissidents, any expressions of disenchantment.

personally, i don't believe a global force, of this nature, if ever seriously proposed, would be a good idea?
if it was just a rumour, then i would pour doubt on that seed straight away.

so,
democracy or a dictatorship? well, when none of "our choices" are in keeping with our birthright of freewill and self-determination, how can they be right?
this is how i feel towards democracies and dictatorships how can we continue with the LIE's of democracy, or in all good conscience, embrace the threat of global enslavement by the globalists, or begin to entertain thoughts, allowing for the continuation of any form of dictatorships?

it's 2020 in a minute. how advanced are we as a species? i mean really?

when we distance ourselves from known error, it's energy dissipates.
and we are not subject to its negative influence.

when we live in calm, quiet space, we are at peace.
all humankind should be afforded this space if so desired.

this is a sacred space of choice, and must be respected.

how can we 'truly live', in a world where we can't live in PEACE, and HARMONY together, as one the time has come to grow up as it were;

and be responsible for all you think and do.

what is it, that makes us different from all others; our humanity perhaps?.

is it our ability to differentiate between truth and error; based on our awareness and relationship with our creator, (or god if you prefer that label)?

is it our ability to express love, with a depth and purpose, that feeds our very growth, both here and beyond?

i feel we need to wake up, to the power of our own love .

think on this...

WHEN ALL OF HUMANKIND, CREATES EVERY MOMENT OF INDIVIDUAL AWARENESS IN PERFECTION, THIS WORLD WILL BE A PLACE OF PERFECTION.

to search for understanding in each and every moment of experience.
to find sense and purpose, in focusing on each moment of awareness with tolerance, compassion and love.

to focus our mind, we must be in control of our mind;
as opposed to an angry mob; which by way of comparison, displays little individual control.

AN ANGRY MOB IS A TOOL. A DEVICE to be used. to spread emotion. frustration and anger, leading to the creation of violent interactions, between human beings.

which is what gets the most news coverage. which is what they are after because it fuels the argument for a seemingly independent army.
the globalist army

of course, there is another way to mobilise a mighty force for change working smart, not hard not even lifting a finger, if you didn't want to.

we can change our level of engagement because we can dis-engage through dis-engaging, we become "non-violent 'non-active' - active protestors".
and everything grinds to a halt.

EVERYTHING, IF "WE" WISH IT TO. that expression of power appears almost limitless.

think about that.

everyone everywhere, right now or whenever suits best locally, can join in;
in a protest of dis-engagement.

everyone, everywhere ... that's powerful.

i see, three paths before us.

on the one hand, we have the likes of TRUMP. and in my own country Morrison.

but democracy as we know it today is a nonsense.

it's all to do with money, and fear of loss regarding the same.

it's all about dog eat dog.

it's about lies and corruption.

it's all about judgement.

greed. greed. and more greed.

it's about those that have, and how they, just continue to get more.

and the grossly disproportionate numbers of those that have so much less, to almost nothing; with little or no improvement in sight.

and while democracy is OVERFLOWING with itself, with all the lies and corruption, i feel, they can ACTUALLY see, the VERY REAL THREAT OF THE GLOBALIST MIND, and what TRULY lurks, behind the facade.

it's obviously just another group of people that want total power and control.

that would be the threat... in the other hand. the ultimate, global dictatorship.

that threat, of the 1 million strong, blue bereted army.

the globalists themselves, hiding and scheming in the dark corridors, like children in the corners of school playgrounds.

full of error, and anger, a lusting for power.

feeding the GREED, of all those that sell their souls, as it were, in a figurative sense. working for masters who's praise and generosity, rewarding their evil deeds, do nothing more than to bolster their own shallow, and frightened nature.

we listen and we begin to see what the likes of TRUMP, and MORRISON see. what they're concerned about. this globalist threat.

so to recap
these, believe it or not, fake democracies, inhuman dictatorships, or a globalist supreme power, the real big brother. this is what we have.

in one hand we have DECOCRACY.
which in truth, is of no benefit, to us all;
for if it was, we would all have, all we need wouldn't we? and we don't.

we don't have...
freedom. equality. security. a home. food. a life,
and sometimes, not much of a future it seems.

and all this in a world that is truly abundant
i don't understand. to me, that's wrong.

that's not what it's all about.
and we need to change things, through action.
actual, action. now.

the megalomania is in the very heart of democracy, as we currently employ it.
there are very real delusions about one's own power, and or importance, displayed in most every position of government or council or position of judgement it seems.

then,
in the other hand, we have the lurking globalist mind - a dictatorship on steroids, on top of all the other forms of dictatorship the globalist intent: one of serious control. a dark nature.

that seeks to enslave, in the fullest way possible.

there is no way back from this, if allowed to develop and become a reality.

globalism is dark megalomania in a very real and dangerous sense.

but it's not all doom and gloom.

because there is this other way.

the MIDDLE way. balanced.

it sits squarely between democracy and dictatorships; the two in error.

the middle way seeks neither control or enslavement of the 'global' population.

it doesn't pray on the minds of the weak.

in fact, it encourages all weak minds to become strong and be free.

it understands the SEED OF MANIPULATION, IN THE MIND OF THE ANGRY MOB.

ANGRY MOBS, are simply destructive.

angry mobs attract angry people, with angry minds.

angry minds are so often blind to truth. i know this.

OUR GREATEST TOOL FOR CHANGE, IS THE POWER IN OUR OWN MIND

to be free in will. in our thoughts, and our actions; which includes non-action.

non-participation, is still a statement of belief.

two people doing nothing, adds energy to the concept.

the potential growth in that energy of nothing is profound.

when we consider the impact of doing nothing, when perhaps we should or could be doing something other than the nothing being done.

what if .1, or 1, or 5 or 10, or 20. 50 even; 50 million people, all took 'a sick day for the world and us, in protest.

we can even do it two or more days in a row. we can do it every week, every other week. we can do what we want to, in order to achieve the things we want to.

what about if it was 100 million people. think about that. and it just gets bigger.

that, is a show of unity.

a show of belief and trust in each other across the globe.

and faith in our shared values and beliefs, uniting all people in the world.

growing. visible.

there is nothing said here, that cannot be done. know this.

it just takes people to do it.

it's easy. with the right desire.

the middle way believes in total equality the middle way promotes privilege as a necessity, common for all.

regardless of race, colour, faith or gender.

the privilege of freedom to be what you will.

to explore your creativity, to express yourself in loving ways;
in celebration of life and all that is.

allowing people to just BE promoting time and space, for growth within, as you choose understanding error.

understanding how easily the error can be embraced;

however extreme that may or may not be, whereby, we encourage forgiveness of self, to allow repentance for error, to promote change and positive growth within the individual; which will reflect in our society, and encourage positive social growth, as we become of one mind, as it were. 🙄 a social collective perhaps?

in heart and mind, through thought and action achieving peace which grows for everyone

NOW, is the time to act.

NOW is the time to consider the REAL, and 'only' ALTERNATIVE.

i feel, it's time for all the killing and maiming to stop.

it serves no purpose.

it's time for all the suffering and hunger to cease.
this, is a home of plenty. we just need to share without fear.

we have better ways of being - things to discover and learn.

the more i thought about it, the more i thought about strength and courage and faith because to do what i feel needs to be done, i feel you need all three.

a dictionary will tell you , that...

strength -

is the quality of being PHYSICALLY STRONG, or perhaps,

the degree of INTENSITY OF A FEELING, OR BELIEF - I LIKE THAT STRENGTH.

THE STRENGTH THAT RELATES TO 'WILL'. IN THE MIND

THE MIND OF US, OF THE 'INDIVIDUAL'.

THAT, IS THE POTENTIAL, IN THE ENERGY OF THE COLLECTIVE PERHAPS

courage -

the ability to do something that frightens you.

"strength", in the face of pain and grief.

the courage of ones convictions.

take one's courage, in BOTH hands - BALANCED

BALANCE IN ALL THINGS

faith -

COMPLETE, TRUST OR CONFIDENCE, IN SOMEONE, OR SOMETHING to ME, that SOMEONE, is the person that YOU SEE , in the mirror, every day

(the dictionary goes on), you can have FAITH, "based on spiritual conviction rather than proof" to me, this is the beautiful boundless mystery, that is born in the origins of our creator regardless of how you feel or see that CREATOR, or your personal relationship with the same.

make no mistake here;

it is ONLY, through the strengthening and focusing of the will within the mind of the individual human being,

that we can find the necessary STRENGTH, COURAGE, AND FAITH to achieve the things we feel, we must achieve.

 to bring BALANCE AND FAIRNESS, ACROSS THE BOARD.
 to ALL people, in ALL lands.

let's call these strong and balanced people to come forward, and become the catalysts for change in their locality.

they have strength, courage and faith, in themselves.
 and in the ideals, hopes, dreams and aspirations of "change the world now.org"

these people, know the time has come for change, and elect to act 'now', for the good of all humankind.

as independents, they stand individually, with the support of a large and always growing community behind them, all seeking the same.

REAL, PERMANENT CHANGE

independents across the world.
 seeing the ease with which 'this takeover', can, take, over.

joining as one mind, one will, one desire towards rapid change for the good of all humankind, like nothing ever before it.

you might look in the mirror now, and you may say to yourself

"this guy is mad. how can i form a government?"

and i would say

"remember all the i's out there, that make up the us.

that us, that grows second by second, in desire, in energy, in potential as we express our desire for change, and

LIVE THE DREAM - HEAVEN ON EARTH perhaps - we create by choice after all let's say enough is enough, to the failings of both democracy and all dictatorships.

let's continue thinking about the NEW.

it takes time to say things.

it takes time, to listen.

it takes time to consider and re-consider, all things heard.

to imagineer a new world, of peace and harmony.

a world of freedom and security, that takes time, but it's not impossible.

can these super radical change really be proposed with a view to success?

absolutely it can.

because we can do anything we want to. if it involves love and the freedom of all humankind.

the single objective of this organisation, is to provide a platform for our unity.

which will bring harmony.

and a global peace.

perhaps, for the first time in our modern history change the world now . org is brand new change the world now . org talks of sweeping change change the world now . org seeks to bring order, and balance, from the confusion that engulfs our planet, and our minds it is a realty.

it's growth and influence, is up to you. it's so easy. just believe...

as i read this statement, i can feel the passion for change within.

i can feel e-motion rise inside.

i can understand the dangers of allowing these energies to grow, untempered in my own mind;
 without, understanding.

and so, i strive daily to control my mind child, my little beast within.

to keep it caged almost, under guard.

this way,
 i mind my thoughts. i always consider my actions

i seek truth in all the things i encounter.

i desire to understand and learn from error.

i seek peace, and harmony, in all things.

i pray that your god, however fashioned in your mind, will always provide for you,
 the truth and beauty of that inner light of love, and growth.

to free us from the chains of our own addictions and error.

love all round, cos it's free ps.

i hope this inspires you to think about these important issues, whereby you understand the point of view, and truly see the benefit to the whole.

i hope you can see how easy this truly is;
 and not become intimidated by what appears a large task, which is actually shared by an incredibly big us.

and that this understanding, causes you to take action, and to seek to belong.

to become a part of that unity, that i feel we all seek to know is there.
 to feel as one again, and grow.

it's time to make the whole world great again
