His Words For Life

Heavenly Father - The Title Of The Creator Of The Universe!

Yahweh - The Eternal Name Of The Creator Of The Universe!

Destiny Is Your Choice!

No One Can Cover For You!

There are a few things you need to accept about your personal life and its destiny as you study this "Lesson In Life."

First, you must admit existence.

Pinch yourself and look up to the sky and its stars including the moon, and sun in the day.

You felt, you saw – there's existence.

Next, you must admit death.

Why the name Yahweh?

It was the name He gave to Moses to use with the Jews to confirm Moses represented His Words For Life.

Say this to the people of Israel: Yahweh, the Heavenly Father of your ancestors — the Heavenly Father of Abraham, the Heavenly Father of Isaac, and the Heavenly Father of Jacob — has sent me to you. This is my eternal name, my name to remember for all generations.

Exodus 3:15

Why the title Heavenly Father?

The term "god" is used by far too many religions to try and represent who He really is, our Heavenly Father!

If I am your father and master, where are the honor and respect I deserve?

Malachi 1:6

You're here awhile, then, you're not. Open any grave, they are still there in death.

Lastly, you must believe creation, that it happened and that it is perfectly held together lest galaxies would be colliding every day, and human beings and animals would be uncontrollable mutations.

So, you must agree, we exist, we die and some thing or some one holds it all together in harmony.

I'm here to tell you, it is not religion that creates and maintains, but, it is our Heavenly Father and He did not create religion, He created life and the way to live it toward an eternal life with Him.

When I was "in religion" I was bombarded with a theory that it was impossible for me as an individual to obtain eternal life. Since I couldn't keep the law and order, all of the commandments from the one who created me, I needed to rely on someone else's sacrifice on my behalf.

I bought in to it because it was so easy just to say I believed in this son/savior of the particular religion I was involved in. I said the words and dumped every bottle of liquor I had in my house down the drain. My family thought I was nuts.

Took me awhile, years as a matter of fact, but, they were right, I was nuts and I eventually dumped religion the same way I did my liquor because I learned from the Creator of the universe my destiny regarding eternal life had nothing to do with them but everything to do with me.

It is my hope that my experience and this lesson will trigger a stronger desire in you to live forever, a thought embedded in every one of us, put there by the Creator of the Universe.

His Word

He has planted eternity in the human heart. Ecclesiastes 3:11

That said, and I believe Him, as He has planted eternity in our hearts as a goal, we should all come to the realization that eternity with Him is an individual choice, not a religious theory.

Adam and Eve were just as much a part of that eternal planting as you and I are and they chose to play around with death, the result of disobedience. Religion didn't even exist as a worship system.

That destiny, eternal life, is your choice just as it was theirs. It's individual not congregational and its leadership is not religion, it is obedience to the laws of the universe including the laws of existence for we humans He laid down to live by.

Thus, we stand alone in His presence and our actions or lack thereof become the judging point of our destinies, something religion cannot guarantee anyone.

Obedience to those laws He set down is righteousness, not perfectness, but righteousness as none of us will ever be perfect, only He.

His Word

He is the Rock; his deeds are perfect. Everything he does is just and fair. He is a faithful Heavenly Father who does no wrong; how just and upright he is! Your laws are perfect and completely trustworthy. Deuteronomy 32:4 Psalm 119:138

It's so tiring to hear answers about eternal life from the largest religion on the planet who choose to teach, preach and believe:

1. People are saved by the grace of their god.
2. Someone gets substituted for their sins.
3. They must get "born again" to secure their destinies.

4. A mythical man-god (human being) is their savior.

5. When they die, they go to heaven.

That's not what "His Words For Life" tell us.

It's misleading about 2.3 billion people on earth right now and who knows how many billions of others who have died in the lies.

It's everlastingly important that you accept the truth about eternity so you can make your individual choice about where you want to spend it. It's a matter of your eternal life and yes, destiny is your choice! No one can cover for you, no one can substitute for you.

We stand alone and before the Creator of all matter in the choice that we make. He sees it, He hears it, He watches it and the right decision is recorded in His Book of Life to be used for his judgment at a time in history of His choosing.

Absorb these answers, meditate on their meanings, dump religion and get on the path that guides you to everlasting life with Him in Israel.

These are the marching orders in this lesson and from the One who Created it all to begin with.

People are not saved by grace, they are saved by their righteousness as His word tells us using three of His most favored patriarchs as examples.

His Word

Even if Noah, Daniel, and Job were there, their righteousness would save no one but themselves, says the Sovereign Yahweh. Ezekiel 14:14

Choose righteousness not religion.

End of part 1 of this lesson. Not saved by grace but saved by righteousness.

No one can stand in for our sins. We are all individually accountable.

His Word

I will hold my people accountable for their sins. Hosea 8:13

We choose our destiny! Choose to turn from sin and stop believing someone else can cover for you. End of part 2 of this lesson. Accountability is on our own shoulders.

No one gets born again to secure life's destiny. It's our choice to stop being evil right where we are in life no matter how long we've already lived this side of eternal life. Our Creator uses Nineveh as the example to stop, not get reborn.

His Word

When Heavenly Father saw what they had done and how they had put a stop to their evil ways, he changed his mind and did not carry out the destruction he had threatened. Jonah 3:10

We choose our destiny! Choose to stop being evil.

End of part 3 of this lesson. Stop evil, get saved.

In all "His Words For Life" beginning from atop Mt. Sinai 3300 years ago, He did not talk about any other savior, only Himself.

His Word

I, yes I, am Yahweh, and there is no other Savior. For there is no other Heavenly Father but me, a righteous Heavenly Father and Savior. There is none but me. You must acknowledge no Heavenly Father but me, for there is no other savior. Isaiah 43:11 45:21 Hosea 13:4

No mythical man-god exists as a savior of the human race.

We choose our destiny! Do not choose any savior except the Creator of the universe, Yahweh, our Heavenly Father.

End of part 4 of this lesson. Yahweh, our Heavenly Father, is our savior.

No one goes to His heaven at death, no one.

Acknowledgment Of Yahweh

(Honoring and recognizing our Creator – Psalm 10)

O Yahweh, why do you stand so far away? Why do you hide when I am in trouble? The wicked arrogantly hunt down the poor. Let them be caught in the evil they plan for others. For they brag about their evil desires; they praise the greedy and curse Yahweh.

The wicked are too proud to seek Heavenly Father. They seem to think that Heavenly Father is dead. Yet they succeed in everything they do.

They do not see your punishment awaiting them. They sneer at all their enemies.

They think, "Nothing bad will ever happen to us! We will be free of trouble forever!"

Their mouths are full of cursing, lies, and threats. Trouble and evil are on the tips of their tongues. They lurk in ambush in the villages, waiting to murder innocent people. They are always searching for helpless victims. Like lions crouched in hiding, they wait to pounce on the helpless. Like hunters they capture the helpless and drag them away in nets. Their helpless victims are crushed; they fall beneath the strength of the wicked. The wicked think, "Heavenly Father isn't watching us! He has closed his eyes and won't even see what we do!"

Arise, O Yahweh! Punish the wicked, O Heavenly Father! Do not ignore the helpless! Why do the wicked get away with despising Heavenly Father? They think, "Heavenly Father will never call us to account." But you see the trouble and grief they cause. You take note of it and punish them. The helpless put their trust in you. You defend the orphans.

Break the arms of these wicked, evil people! Go after them until the last one is destroyed. Yahweh is king forever and ever!

The godless nations will vanish from the land. Yahweh, you know the hopes of the helpless. Surely you will hear their cries and comfort them. You will bring justice to the orphans and the oppressed, so mere people can no longer terrify them.

We choose our destiny!
Our destiny is not heaven, it's right here on the earth He created for us.

End of part 5 of this lesson. Death is here on earth, not heaven.

Through His prophet Ezekiel, He tells us a lot about our choices, including sin and wickedness. Take it all in, reread it if you must, but these are "His Words For Life" which will save yours.

His Word

As surely as I live, says the Sovereign Yahweh, I take no pleasure in the death of wicked people. I only want them to turn from their wicked ways so they can live.
Turn! Turn from your wickedness.

havior of righteous people will not save them if they turn to sin, nor will the wicked behavior of wicked people destroy them if they repent and turn from their sins. When I tell righteous people that they will live, but then they sin, expecting their past righteousness to save them, then none of their righteous acts will be remembered. I will destroy them for their sins. And suppose I tell some wicked people that they will surely die, but then they turn from their sins and do what is just and right. For instance, they might give back a debtor's security, return what they have stolen, and obey my life-giving laws, no longer doing what is evil. If they do this, then they will surely live and not die.

None of their past sins will be brought up again, for they have done what is just and right, and they will surely live. Ezekiel 33:11- 16

In this entire message from the Creator of the Universe through His chosen prophet Ezekiel, not one word, not one syllable, not one breath about religion, any of the 4300 of them, or going to heaven.

Instead the concentration is on righteousness, wickedness, sin, attitude towards it all and how we handle it.

In just this message from His Book Of Instruction, we find that someone can be righteous, decide to do wrong and lose whatever righteousness he or she has accomplished, and in reality, lose everlasting life.

Let's just use one simple example I like to use all the time, pork.

He tells us not to eat pig.
Religion, the largest, has cir-cumvented that instruction based on someone they refer to as an apostle having some sort of dream about eating anything he wanted.

They also classify our Father's laws as "old" laws of Moses that lead to death.

Assuming we decide we want to follow the Father's instruction instead of religions', we choose our destiny by giving up pig entirely just because He told us to do so.

That is an act of righteousness, and, He sees it.

Life moves along, you're tested and temped about eating this pig by peers who pork out on ham and eggs after their Sunday-go-to-meeting session when a false prophet who from the pulpit preaches

The Eternal Message

IS YOUR NAME WRITTEN IN THE BOOK OF LIFE?

Millions of angels ministered to him; many millions stood to attend him. Then the court began its session, and the books were opened. Daniel 7:10 Then there will be a time of anguish greater than any since nations first came into existence. But at that time every one of your people whose name is written in the book will be rescued.

Daniel 12:1

We will not add anything to this truth. Your name in the book saves your life!

No One Can Cover For You!

it's okay what you eat, but, you have to be born again in order to be in the graciousness of their god. "Unless you are born again, you cannot see the Kingdom of their god" the statement goes.

Here's the scene again. Our Heavenly Father says don't eat pig which is righteousness. Religion says it's okay but you've got to be born again.

You decide to play Eve and after you know you are not supposed to touch that animal, you don't because He said not to. Then all of a sudden you reverse your decision because some preacher says it's okay and everyone else is doing it, so you pork out on ham and eggs with your peers, and bingo, what have you done?

You have willingly sinned when you knew better and the past righteousness of obeying and not doing is all of a sudden wiped completely out and then none of your righteous acts will be remembered. Whatever righteousness you did have is gone, and that becomes a judgement call for the Creator of the Universe about where you'll spend eternity.

Contrarily, one of your friends who has been eating pork, not going to any church, decides that what the Creator of the Universe has laid down as righteousness deserves attention, so he stops eating pork, repents for doing it, never does it again (and he still isn't going to church), and bingo, he earns life just because of righteousness, and it didn't have a hill of beans to do with religion or what church he didn't go to.

Destiny is your choice!

And, no one can cover for your unrighteous actions no matter what religion on earth you think saves you through some magical nonsense.

And, your soul by the way, is not some ghost inside your body. It's your personality and you develop your personality during your 70 years or so of initial existence.

When you take your last breath, your soul (personality) is locked in and later He will come along in judgement, open His book of life and finds out you disobeyed Him by eating pork when you knew better.

Then, what happens to your destiny?

His Word

Prophets give false prophecies, and the priests rule with an iron hand. Worse yet, my people like it that way! But what will you do when the end comes? Jeremiah 5:31

Eating that pork, intentionally disobeying Heavenly Father just like Adam and Eve did, could get you kicked out of the promised land. Actually, in His judgment, it would be even questionable that one would make it there to begin with.

Remedy?

His Word

"If you obey me and do whatever I command you, then you will be my people, and I will be your Heavenly Father." Jeremiah 5:11

You can't ride the fence with our Heavenly Father. Won't work. You're either for or against Him. No Catholics, there is no purgatory.

His Word

O Heavenly Father, you take no pleasure in wickedness; you cannot tolerate the sins of the wicked. Psalms 5:4

Righteousness or wickedness?

Your choice! Not your mate, not your family, not your peers, not your religion, just your actions just like the decision Adam and Eve made at the garden.

No One Can Cover For You!

They decided to disobey.

They died!

I cannot stress enough the importance of your understanding about what eternal life is all about and how you get there.

It is not a trip to His heaven, it is the dust of the earth the same materials He used to form the first man (Eve was from a man's rib).

Destiny is your choice and no other, however, in obedience you can anticipate the Creator Himself to guide you along the path of salvation.

His Word

You guide me with your counsel, leading me to a glorious destiny. Psalm 73:24

The beauty of it all is that along with obedience to His laws of life, all He seeks is a simple thank you.

That awakens His promises that no religion can substitute.

His Word

Giving thanks is a sacrifice that truly honors me. If you keep to my path, I will reveal to you the salvation of Heavenly Father.”

Psalm 50:23

These are “His Words For Life” and awaiting the obedient is what He calls “a glorious destiny”.

You alone get to choose it.

No religion, no government, no society, just you and the one who Created it all.

His Word

Today I have given you the choice between life and death, between blessings and curses. Now I call on heaven and earth to witness the choice you make. Oh, that you would choose life, so that you and your descendants might live! Deuteronomy 30:19

You! Read it until you're blue in the face. Your destiny is about you.

While there are other references about choices in His word, this one statement from the Creator of the Universe that He has given us a choice about life or death supports everything in this lesson.

You choose your destiny!

THE UNDERWORLD

While I don't know exactly what it will be like in the underworld, nor do I choose to, the description from the word of the Father's prophets is that it is not good at all.

I get some impression of how its bodies will be represented from those left on the surface as a reminder:

And as they go out, they will see the dead bodies of those who have rebelled against me. For the worms that devour them will never die, and the fire that burns them will never go out. All who pass by will view them with utter horror.” Isaiah 66:24

These particular bodies are on the surface of the earth and can be viewed by the righteous as they leave the gates of the city, and I am assuming it is a reminder of where anyone could have been, and for sure, a picture of what is going on “underneath” us forever.

The Father has already swallowed up evil people several times, but all one has to do is remember the flood and know that at least a billion people are “under the water” and will never surface again.

The underworld is where “evil-doers” and “liars” end up. That's under the earth, and people are sent from death “down” in to the “pit”, so I'm presuming that while there are those that are raised to everlasting life, and those that are raised to everlasting shame and disgrace, these are people who don't get raised, but are taken from where they are and sent further down in to the earth to the underworld, or the pit, forever.

They have a resting place among the slaughtered, surrounded by the graves of all their hordes. Yes, they terrorized the nations while they lived, but now they lie in shame with others in the pit, all of them outcasts, slaughtered by the sword. Ezekiel

32:25

“Edom is there with its kings and princes. Mighty as they were, they also lie among those slaughtered by the sword, with the outcasts who have gone down to the pit. Ezekiel 32:29

“All the princes of the north and the Sidonians are there with others who have died. Once a terror, they have been put to shame. They lie there as outcasts with others who were slaughtered by the sword. They share the shame of all who have descended to the pit. Ezekiel 32:30

Not A Place I Want To Be!
