His Law – Broken!

Heavenly Father Doesn't Lie, Doesn't Change!

In California, if you drive a vehicle beyond the posted speed limit and get caught, it's the basic speed law 22350.

"No person shall drive a vehicle upon a highway at a speed greater than is reasonable or prudent having due regard for weather, visibility, the traffic on, and the surface and width of, the highway, and in no event at a speed which endangers the safety of persons or property".

An officer of the law sees it done, perhaps even records it

The Eternal Message

Why the name Yahweh?

It was the name He gave to Moses to use with the Jews to confirm Moses represented His Words For Life.

Say this to the people of Israel: Yahweh, the Heavenly Father of your ancestors — the Heavenly Father of Abraham, the Heavenly Father of Isaac, and the Heavenly Father of Jacob — has sent me to you. This is my eternal name, my name to remember for all generations.

Exodus 3:15

Why the title Heavenly Father?

The term "god" is used by far too many religions to try and represent who He really is, our Heavenly Father!

If I am your father and master, where are the honor and respect I deserve?

Malachi 1:6

with a laser gun, pulls the offender over, asks for license and proof of registration and, tickets the offender who eventually has to appear in court and pay the fine.

It doesn't matter if one is Jew, Muslim, Christian, Buddha, or whatever, and it does not matter if one is American, Italian, British, Australian, Chinese, Japanese or whatever, and it doesn't matter what the color of one's skin is.

The law has been broken, the offender has been caught, and will pay for the oversight. And, the offender may, or may not do it again, depending on how serious he or she takes the offense, and there are millions and millions who don't take offending the law serious enough not to do it again.

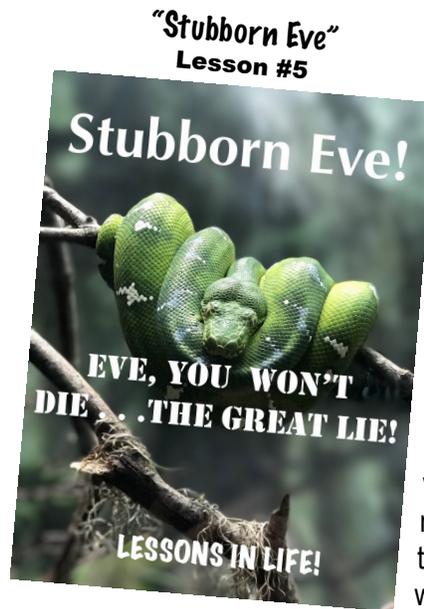

It's an attitude isn't it!

One either takes it serious enough to drive at safe speed limits from then on, or, one tests the waters again sometime in the future and one either gets caught, or one does not. Either way if one does, one is breaking the law.

So goes life. The serpent said to Eve:

His Word

Did Heavenly Father really say you must not eat the fruit from any of the trees in the garden? Of course we may eat fruit from the trees in the garden, the woman replied. It's only the fruit from the tree in the middle of the garden that we are not allowed to eat. Heavenly Father said, You must not eat it or even touch it; if you do, you will die. You won't die, the serpent replied to the woman! Heavenly Father knows that your eyes will be opened as soon as you eat it, and you will be like Heavenly Father, knowing both good and evil. The woman was convinced. She saw that the tree was beautiful and its fruit looked delicious, and she wanted the wisdom it would give her. So she took some of the fruit and ate it.

Heavenly Father Doesn't Lie, Doesn't Change!

Then she gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate it, too. Genesis 3:1-6

And guess what, they died. They broke the law (the commandment of our Heavenly Father) and, they died.

Not only did they die, but every living person since that time has died too, and that was not the intent of original creation. They were supposed to live forever, but, they broke the law, they paid for it and the human race has paid for it every since.

Now that we die in these bodies given us for 70-odd years or so of initial life, it's only during that 70-odd years of life we have a chance not to do what Adam and Eve did, disobey Him.

So, one must question oneself in the same fashion. Would I partake of something the Heavenly Father, the Creator of all life, said not to? Would I, knowing it was breaking a commandment He set in order, "test the waters" and disobey?

They broke his commandment, they died and as a result, all humanity pays the price, death in these physical bodies entered existence.

We have a chance, however. We have a chance at repentance and reconciliation. We have a chance to obey. Once we know, we have a chance to serve Him which He defines as keeping His commandments, His decrees, His directives, His way of life which ends up being righteousness, (not religion), and that is the foundation of His Kingdom now and forever.

Can we be as righteous as He? No because we are human and we err, but none the less, He sees the effort. He watches our hearts. He sees how we think and act and our steps of obedience are recorded and will be looked at in His final judgement on our individual lives.

For skeptics, I have no idea how He handles the human being who is incapable of decision-making. We'll learn about all of that when we see Him, but, I trust His word to Moses and through His prophets to His chosen nation Israel and all "foreigners" who believe and obey, and I know that as I serve Him, which is to do just the opposite of Adam and Eve, and obey His commandments, I will be counted as righteous as He counted Noah, Job, Daniel and others and I will gain the same inheritance of everlasting life with Him in Israel forever.

Now, comes along a religion formulated out of a need to pacify a Roman citizenry some 2000 years ago, attempt to recognize the law sent down through Moses, yet modify it enough so that people won't be offended by it (His law) and think they have to keep it, and create an image of Him that they think will satisfy the masses and call it Christianity.

Christianity developed a new set of rules.

Now, if you are caught speeding on the highway, instead of being charged with Penal Code 22350, an officer of the law (their savior), has already stood in court, listened to the charge of speeding, pled guilty to the crime and "paid the price" for your law-breaking actions. You are told you don't even have to appear, that someone has appeared on your behalf, paid for the penalty, so you can just go on your merry way with no guilt feelings, no cares about trying to keep that law, because now you know that every time you break that speeding law, someone has, and will continue to pay the price for the error (sin), so you need not worry about it.

Oh, and as far as being judged wrongly for it, not to worry, someone has already been judged on your behalf and as a matter of fact, since you may break not only that law, but others too, you never have to worry about any of them because the price has been paid.

I only have one statement about that – B.S.

That may sound blunt, but that's exactly what that theory of teaching is – B.S.

The Father in Heaven set rules. He expects us to live by them all the time, not just occasionally or when we feel like it, but all the time.

He calls that attitude righteousness. And He calls the opposite attitude wickedness. No in between, and no intermediary. Righteousness, wickedness.

His Word

Yahweh observed the extent of human wickedness on the earth, and he saw that everything they thought or imagined was consistently and totally evil. So Yahweh was sorry he had ever made them and put them on the earth. It broke his heart. And Yahweh said, "I will wipe this human race I have created from the face of the earth. Yes, and I will destroy every living thing — all the people, the large animals, the small animals that scurry along the ground, and even the birds of the sky. I am sorry I ever made them." But Noah found favor with Yahweh. This is the account of Noah and his family. Noah was a righteous man, the only blameless person living on earth at the time, and he walked in close fellowship with Heavenly Father. Genesis 6:5-10

Let's carefully view this condition of life, carefully.

The Heavenly Father who created everything in the universe from the smallest cell to the masses of the heavens, said He was sorry He did it because man became wicked. All man thought about or imagined was consistently and totally evil.

There are estimates that lean toward over a billion people on earth at that time – a billion.

Acknowledgment Of Yahweh

(Honoring and recognizing our Creator – Psalm 62)

I wait quietly before Heavenly Father, for my victory comes from him. He alone is my rock and my salvation, my fortress where I will never be shaken.

So many enemies against one man — all of them trying to kill me. To them I'm just a broken-down wall or a tottering fence.

They plan to topple me from my high position. They delight in telling lies about me.

They praise me to my face but curse me in their hearts.

Let all that I am wait quietly before Heavenly Father, for my hope is in him. He alone is my rock and my salvation, my fortress where I will not be shaken. My victory and honor come from Heavenly Father alone. He is my refuge, a rock where no enemy can reach me. O my people, trust in him at all times. Pour out your heart to him, for Heavenly Father is our refuge.

Common people are as worthless as a puff of wind, and the powerful are not what they appear to be. If you weigh them on the scales, together they are lighter than a breath of air.

Don't make your living by extortion or put your hope in stealing. And if your wealth increases, don't make it the center of your life.

Heavenly Father has spoken plainly, and I have heard it many times: Power, O Heavenly Father, belongs to you; unfailing love, O Yahweh, is yours.

Surely you repay all people according to what they have done.

Heavenly Father Doesn't Lie, Doesn't Change!

And, how many do we have on earth today? 7.8 billion as of the minute of this writing. Nearly 8 billion human beings on the earth right now, and under the same conditions, the Father who created us all, found favor in only one man. Noah was a righteous man who was blameless and walked in close fellowship with Yahweh.

Then those who feared Yahweh spoke with each other, and Yahweh listened to what they said. In his presence, a scroll of remembrance was written to record the names of those who feared him and always thought about the honor of his name.

“They will be my people,” says Yahweh of Heaven’s Armies. “On the day when I act in judgment, they will be my own special treasure. I will spare them as a father spares an obedient child. Then you will again see the difference between the righteous and the wicked, between those who serve Heavenly Father and those who do not.”

So, here we go.

I always like to divert to the simplest of His commandments as a point of reference so that all who read may understand:

His Word

You may not eat the pig. It has split hooves but does not chew the cud, so it is ceremonially unclean for you. You may not eat the meat of these animals or even touch their carcasses. Deuteronomy 14:8

This is not my rule. This is not my directive. This is not a so-so, causally-discussed topic, it is a law.

It is a law of the Heavenly Father sent down through Moses, kept in a safe (Ark of the Covenant), carried throughout history (until the temple was destroyed and the ark stolen), spoken by His prophets and subsequently through His chosen nation, the Jew, decade after decade after decade. It was then, and is today, a law of the Father of Heaven, Yahweh.

For those of us who believe, then what do we do about pork?

We don't eat it – period!

He said “you may not eat of these animals” – period!

Did He change that law somewhere along the line? Did He decide - oh well, they aren't going to listen anyway, so it's okay to eat pork. Or worse, did He say, well, I've sent a savior on my behalf, and since he died for all the sins of all mankind, it's now okay to eat this animal? – Bluntly - B.S. He did no such thing. He never changes.

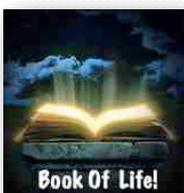

His Word

I am Yahweh, and I do not change. That is why you descendants of Jacob are not already destroyed. Ever since the days of your ancestors, you have scorned my decrees and failed to obey them. Now return to me, and I will return to you, says Yahweh of Heaven's Armies. Malachi 3:6

I do not change, says the Heavenly Father who established His law, set down His decrees, who had His directives written for life and who

Fear Heavenly Father and obey his commands, for this is the duty of every person. Heavenly Father will judge us for everything we do, including every secret thing, whether good or bad. Ecclesiastes 12:13,14

IS YOUR NAME WRITTEN IN THE BOOK OF LIFE?

Millions of angels ministered to him; many millions stood to attend him. Then the court began its session, and the books were opened. Daniel 7:10 Then there will be a time of anguish greater than any since nations first came into existence. But at that time every one of your people whose name is written in the book will be rescued.

Daniel 12:1

We will not add anything to this truth. Your name in the book saves your life!

Heavenly Father Doesn't Lie, Doesn't Change!

searches for those who will serve Him by obeying Him.

Did the Father of Heaven lie to us and change his mind? Did He come down here on earth, appear to us in a human form and tell us it's now okay to disobey His commandments? He's rarely appeared to us in human form (always in a cloud or fire), and, He's never lied:

His Word

Heavenly Father is not a man, so he does not lie. He is not human, so he does not change his mind. Has he ever spoken and failed to act? Has he ever promised and not carried it through? Numbers 12:19

The Heavenly Father has never changed His directives and commandments, and He does not lie - He can't - He's perfect.

Someone has lied to us haven't they! Someone has told us that everything changed, didn't they! Someone has built religions, nations and societies based on their lies haven't they!

Our Father, who resides in Heaven has never changed, and He's never lied, but boy have His laws been broken by those thinking otherwise.

Let me just show you how our Heavenly Father responds to these liars:

His Word

The false prophets or visionaries who try to lead you astray must be put to death, for they encourage rebellion against Yahweh your Father, who redeemed you from slavery and brought you out of the land of Egypt. Since they try to lead you astray from the way Yahweh your Heavenly Father commanded you to live, you must put them to death. In this way you will purge the evil from among you. Deuteronomy 13:5

Put them to death!

Every false prophet that tells you it's okay to break any commandment of the Father of Heaven, must be put to death.

That's some pretty tough words and actions is it not?

He's serious, and He directed His chosen nation, Israel (and all "foreigners" who believe) to do just that, and, they did it to purge their land of evil – at least then.

Today, unfortunately, they are headed back the other way again, a centuries-old effort, but the Father loves His chosen so much, He keeps redeeming them.

So, where is your heart now? Still want to stop by on your way to a church that preaches to you just the opposite on a Sunday morning and join others in their wickedness (disobedience to Yahweh), and chomp away at ham and eggs before hearing a false prophet preach untruths at you for an hour or so? Or perhaps the bigger gathering after church when the masses fill the restaurants and order their favorite breakfast meals, eggs – yes – but ham - NO!

You may not eat the meat of these animals.

His laws are being broken all over the place, and you can believe me or not, those who break them will pay the price.

"I will wipe this human race I have created from the face of the earth. Or, are you willing to obey?"

Return to me, and I will return to you," says Yahweh of Heaven's Armies.

I am so intent on serving my Heavenly Father, I never look at the new testament of the modern-day Bible. I believe in my heart that everything written after the book of Malachi is false, lies and idolatry because it points to a man-god rather than our Heavenly Father of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, Yahweh.

If He doesn't change, who changed His law and said we could eat pork? Who did that? Not Him, because He said, "I am Yahweh, and I do not change. He said, Heavenly Father is not a man, so he does not lie."

Who lies then?

Man lies and the entire new testament movement is based on a lie. I'm not even sure this man-god referenced even existed because there is no historical evidence of such a man, only the new testament theory. I do know that there have been others professing similar sayings as the new testament does. I don't want to pick on just Christianity alone.

Heavenly Father Doesn't Lie, Doesn't Change!

Here's the foundation.

I believe that the "god" of the Universe is the "god" of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

Please be mindful, I do not like to refer to Him as "god" because there have more than enough false ones on the earth which is confusing enough.

Obviously, if you don't believe our Heavenly Father is the Heavenly Father of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, then you don't believe in the Heavenly Father I do, and if you don't believe in the Heavenly Father I do, you will be hard pressed to understand why I emphasize the need to obey Him like I do.

Then there's the mysticism of the "triune" god. The Father, the Son, the Holy Ghost, all three in one.

Nowhere in the old testament is a "triune" god referenced. He always references Himself as one:

His Word

"He showed you these things so you would know that Yahweh is Heavenly Father and there is no other. Deuteronomy 4:35

"So remember this and keep it firmly in mind: Yahweh is Heavenly Father both in heaven and on earth, and there is no other.

Deuteronomy 4:39

Look now; I myself am He! There is no other Heavenly Father but me! I am the one who kills and gives life; I am the one who wounds and heals; no one can be rescued from my powerful hand!

Deuteronomy 32:39

Then people all over the earth will know that Yahweh alone is Heavenly Father and there is no other.

1 Kings 8:30

"But you are my witnesses, O Israel!" says Yahweh. "You are my servant. You have been chosen to know me, believe in me, and understand that I alone am Heavenly Father. There is no other Heavenly Father — there never has been, and there never will be. Isaiah 43:10

And, just look who your true savior is:

His Word

I, yes I, am Yahweh, and there is no other Savior. Isaiah 43:11

Do you see anywhere here that says He will send a son to save us? Do you see anywhere here that says He will be born on earth through a virgin?

His Word

This is what Yahweh, says — Israel's King and Redeemer, Yahweh, of Heaven's Armies: "I am the First and the Last; there is no other Heavenly Father. Isaiah 44:6

And, when Israel is finally established forever under the rule of Yahweh, and His temple is rebuilt on Mt. Zion, look at what the rest of the world will bow to:

His Word

This is what Yahweh says: "You will rule the Egyptians, the Ethiopians, and the Sabeans. They will come to you with all their merchandise, and it will all be yours. They will follow you as prisoners in chains. They will fall to their knees in front of you and say, 'Heavenly Father is with you, and he is the only Heavenly Father. There is no other." Isaiah 45:14

And some will rise to everlasting shame and disgrace. Here's a typical example of the way countries will view Israel forever. In shame and disgrace to the degree of giving up their merchandise freely, following we believers as if prisoners and falling to their knees to us and finally agreeing that Yahweh is the only Heavenly Father.

Far be it from me to want to be in that condition (everlasting shame and disgrace, for I know His laws, His commandments, His decrees and His instructions for life were sent down through Moses and are as valid today as they were the day they were given.

I know who He is, the Heavenly Father of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob and I worship Him and everything He created including His laws (which, unfortunately, are broken all the time).

Heavenly Father Doesn't Lie, Doesn't Change!

I know there is no other, including the Christian man-god, the Muslim prophet, the Buddha or any others that religionists teach about today.

I know He gave us His laws, commandments, decrees and instructions for our benefit and for His glory, and He has never changed about His desire for us to follow them and worship Him for them. We know He did not deceive us by giving us that information (through Moses) only to change direction centuries later and say they were only meant for a time.

Not so! They are meant for all time, including everlasting life.

His laws are commandments of purity. And when broken, the severity of punishment may stand out to many as inhumane or unfair. However, our Heavenly Father is a righteous, strict, jealous and a pure Heavenly Father and He will be looking for those who desire with all their hearts to obey Him to the extent of fulfilling that purity in their own hearts as well.

His Kingdom is a kingdom of righteousness and it will be only those who are just and righteous that will make up His special treasure for all eternity.

I can't change minds, only you can change your own. All I can do is expose, and that's what I do.

I expose the evil that exists through disobedience to His commandments (first and foremost in my own life), then I seek those who know Him, and have fallen away.

He wants you back!

I also look for those who are truly seeking Him and His righteousness (obedience to His laws, commandments, decrees and instructions for life), so that they too may inherit the very same thing prophet Daniel's example shows – everlasting life.

You must accept and embed in your heart, He has never changed.

He gave Adam instructions about that garden. Adam didn't listen and paid the price, death.

He gave instructions to an entire nation that He calls His own. They did not listen (and still don't today), and the only thing that saved some of their lives was the intervention by Moses.

They did, however, lose their blessing about a place on earth He has reserved for eternal existence, and every human being 20 years and older that He rescued from Egypt, died in the desert.

He has warned and warned, and He has punished and punished for disobedience, the same act as Adam, yet people today still prefer religion over righteousness which will not save them for eternal existence.

He hates religion.

And now the world provides 4300 of them to choose from (along with thousand of NRMs – New Religious Movements).

His Word

"I hate all your show and pretense — the hypocrisy of your religious festivals and solemn assemblies. Amos 5:21

Please do not continue along the path of Adam and break His laws.

He is the same today as He was yesterday and seeks the obedient.
