

HIS LAWS FROM MT. SINAI

Heavenly Father

of Abraham, Isaac, Jacob

Yahweh - Heavenly Father

Heavenly Father

of Abraham, Isaac, Jacob

All of Mount Sinai was covered with smoke because Yahweh had descended on it in the form of fire. The smoke billowed into the sky like smoke from a brick kiln, and the whole mountain shook violently.

Thus began in history, His true word of life as He personally descended on Mt. Sinai and not only verbally spoke with His chosen nation, but etched His first words of instructions for their lives in stone.

The ten commandments are the basis of life He expects us to live in our mortal bodies and the words have nothing to do with religion.

Heavenly Father of Abraham, Isaac, Jacob

CONTENTS

FORWARD 2

1. In The Beginning 4

2. His Instructions 6

3. Honor Him 8

FORWARD

IT is time to stop all of this religious nonsense and get down to reality.

Either one believes in the Heavenly Father of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob or one doesn't believe in the Heavenly Father of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. And IF one believes, then one believes what proceeded out of the very mouth of our Heavenly Father at Mt. Sinai as He personally talked to His rescued nation, Israel, is His direction for the lives of His human creation. One would also believe He was so intent on making sure we understand those directions, He personally etched in stone with His own finger, the first ten of the commandments of life. That says a lot about the importance of those instructions and everything that proceeded after that through His chosen prophets and messengers on earth.

Therein lies the stumbling block.

We now have 4200 or so religions on earth that think they have all the answers about His created human life, worshipping someone they don't even know if they don't believe the words of our Heavenly Father of Abraham, Isaac and

Richard Allen
Messenger, Publisher

Jacob. And it's simple to see if they believe Him or not by watching how they carry out their religious activities regarding every word that proceeded out of His mouth then and beyond through His chosen prophets and messengers.

For that, we who do believe, who do desire with all our hearts to follow His guidance for life are classified as "cultic" because it is so far beyond the "norm" of religious organizations and governments today, there seems nothing left of what He told His rescued nation.

Stop and think. All they did then was deny His Fatherly guidance, built a stupid golden idol to take His place and for that every one of them He rescued over the age of 20 "died in the desert" and never got to see the land He not only promised Abraham, but every believer on earth that will follow His instructions for life.

His name is Yahweh. His actual name has carried itself throughout history and is so feared by "real" Jews, they won't even mention it in fear of what He might do to them. It's reminds me of the time He said that any one who stepped up on the base of Mt. Sinai would die.

Our Father in Heaven doesn't play games folks, just doesn't and that's how reverent we should always be toward Him. However, His name isn't a wedge that separates, instead it is a name that seals a relationship of thanks which is something He is all too often denied in the life of the human race today. A simple thanks by His name.

Heavenly Father also said to Moses, "Say this to the people of Israel: Yahweh, the Heavenly Father of your ancestors — the Heavenly Father of Abraham, the Heavenly Father of Isaac, and the Heavenly Father of Jacob — has sent me to you. This is my eternal name, my name to remember for all generations".

Exodus 3:15

The name to remember for ALL generations folks, and that includes us.

Yahweh has several definitions and the one we've chosen that fits our Heavenly Father is "I Have Caused To Be." After all, He is our creator and there is no other, and there is no other cause of creation than Himself.

So, when He said "don't", does one not understand that's exactly what He means, don't! Not the religious "forgiveness" route of well, maybe, or he won't really get mad about it, or the worse, oh, those are "old" laws not relevant any more.

Come off of it if you have any thought whatsoever that what our Father of Heaven said here on earth isn't the truth and guidance every human being should go out of their way to apply to individual life. He says what He means and then guess what friends, He watches to see who will and who won't. That's right,

He watches. He sees every heart on earth that is still pumping and He knows what we're thinking and how we're acting as witnessed about how bad it got when He found nothing but evil and corruption in thought and action when He flooded the earth and ridded it of it's evil path. You don't want to be on the wrong side of the "end of days" friends. Those who are will pay the price.

Here's the choice friends. Our Heavenly Father, the Creator of the Universe and all matter in and of it, the Promiser of eternal life with Him at the helm is none other than Yahweh, the Heavenly Father of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, the blood line from Noah, the most righteous and honest man that our Heavenly Father has ever defined in His human creation.

Believe who He really is and you believe Him and that's what life is all about. Choosing the right Heavenly Father because there is only one, not replicas, triunes, multiples or phony man-made idols the human race has invented. "So remember this and keep it firmly in mind: Yahweh is Heavenly Father both in heaven and on earth, and there is no other". Deuteronomy 4:39

Copyright© 2018 Richard Allen. All Rights Reserved. This information makes no attempt to act as a psychological, physiological, spiritual, medical or financial guide and is held harmless from any actions or reactions to its contents. It is unlawful to copy contents of this publication, written, electronically or otherwise without the express permission of its creator.

hisservice@hiswordsforlife.com - <http://www.hiswordsforlife.com>

1. IN THE BEGINNING

IT never ceases to amaze me how distant the human race has become from it's founder, the Creator of the Universe.

And boy do we get chastised by the "holier-than-thou", "better-than-you" "Christians" who vehemently and sometimes violently, profess and defend their mythical savior whom we won't even mention by name here for fear of offending our Heavenly Father. "Do not even mention the names of their gods, much less swear by them or serve them or worship them". Joshua 23:7

"In the beginning Heavenly Father created the heavens and the earth. The earth was formless and empty, and darkness covered the deep waters. And the Spirit of Heavenly Father was hovering over the surface of the waters". Genesis 1:1

That's right, it's time the human race went back to the beginning and refreshed its' memory of the beginning of it all. That doesn't mean we're giving you a Bible lesson here, what we're doing is setting the stage for recognition and dedication to the One who started it all on our behalf. Yes, our behalf because had He not started it all on our behalf, we wouldn't be here, we wouldn't be spending this time reminding you of not only His existence, but the miraculous power of that existence - us.

If you don't believe this miraculous beginning and refuse to believe it, please, don't read any more, because the impact we are trying to make doesn't exist with unbelievers. That's right, religionists who believe in a “god” created out of their own methods and mythologies and refuse to recognize the true Heavenly Father of the Universe are hoodwinked, and it’s especially true of about 2.2 billion people currently on earth who follow a myth begun in Rome some 1690 years ago. They are so blinded they’ve created from their own confused minds, some 45,000 individual denominations, many of which not only fight amongst themselves, but some even to the point of warring about how “right” they think they are.

Find for me anywhere in the beginning, information from our Heavenly Father where He said He created “religion” or “Christianity” and saw that it was good. Nowhere does that exist in His word, and it is never mentioned by Him as a part of the life of His human creation.

Worship Him, absolutely, but religiously by denomination, don’t think so. Keep in mind that in all of His creation, He only had three places made for Him to be worshipped in and from. A beautiful tabernacle carried around in the desert and two temples. The first Temple in whom His chosen servant Solomon built in the mid 10th century before the common era, was “dedicated to Yahweh the Heavenly Father of Israel” and stood for about 410 years in Jerusalem before being destroyed by Nebuchadnezzar.

So, for all of those unbelievers of Yahweh our Heavenly Father, they should take note that this definition of who our Heavenly Father is rests in the dedicated efforts and completions of those He fitted (by His Spirit) to do the work of building His temple, the Heavenly Father of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. No other, just Yahweh our Heavenly Father because there is no other. “You are my witnesses, O Israel!” says Yahweh. “You are my servant. You have been chosen to know me, believe in me, and understand that I alone am Heavenly Father. There is no other Heavenly Father — there never has been, and there never will be”. Isaiah 43:10

His second and last Temple on earth (for now) was again in Jerusalem and destroyed in the year 70 of the common era by the Romans.

The reason this is important is to establish the one and only true Heavenly Father, who He is and who He established Himself on earth with, and that first worship building, the tabernacle, was built not too long after He rescued the nation, Israel, from it’s slave-drivers, the Egyptians.

When He began creation, His relationship was pretty much one-on-one with men. He first created, then carried on a “fellowship”. He walked in the garden with Adam. No offense ladies, but Eve was created for Adam. She was not the beginning human creature, he was, and as a matter of fact, it was Adam that was given the instruction about not partaking of a particular tree in the Garden of Eden. If you ladies get upset about that, I encourage you to take a read through newsletter #5 - “Stubborn Eve” and you’ll discover your position in His created human race and why it is so difficult for you in child birth and rearing.

So, the lineage of Adam to Noah is defined for us and we see it didn’t take very long at all from the time man was instructed not to do something by the One who created him until the time that he did. And it’s interesting here because Adam became a party to, not the perpetrator of the disobedience.

So, in the beginning man on his own accord decided He didn’t agree with the One who created him and guess what. It’s been that way ever since, and is as prevalent today as it was then.

Thus, when someone disagrees with you when you share with them the true Heavenly Father (Yahweh), don’t take it personally when they of their own accord, decide your off base, whacko or part of a cult because It’s been going on since creation and like every condition that has a start, it has an end. We just don’t know when that is.

In the meanwhile, those of us that try, those of us that are the Jonah’s of the 21st Century, those of us that do bring people to righteousness (obedience to Yahweh our Heavenly Father), will in eternity metaphorically shine like the stars of heaven. Can’t think of a more rewarding position in eternity than to be recognized for that effort - and that’s forever.

2. HIS INSTRUCTIONS

OUR Father, who is of Heaven, but enters our realm of existence from time to time, knows His creation, knows its substances that hold it together, single-handedly created it all from His own thought, sharing the idea with His angels (Let us make human beings in our image - Genesis 1:26), understands in His wisdom what is good for us and what is not. As a matter of fact, He never wanted us to know evil.

Think that through. He and His angels know good and evil, but He did not want us to know evil which common sense tells us we were, in Creative thought, designed to be good and live on goodness forever right from the get go. However, puppets we are not, so in His wisdom of desiring His subjects, His created human life, to truly love Him and obey Him by our own mental decision, He embedded in us an attribute of choice. His animal creation doesn’t carry that attribute. They do have senses, but they don’t have decisive capability of choosing Yahweh or not choosing Yahweh, just we humans.

While there are stacks of do and don’t instructions for us to learn, understand and apply throughout our lifetimes, first verbally with Adam and then written beginning with two stone tablets He Himself personally etched the first ten of His commandments, I always like to example some of the simplest and start with the pig.

He told Adam, “don’t or you will die.” Adam didn’t believe Him, Adam and Eve died and with that, brought death in to our realm of existence that wasn’t there in the beginning.

He tells us “don’t eat the pig” along with hundreds of other instructions guiding our lives in these 70-odd-short years of mortal existence. Don’t eat the pig.

Now, those who just don’t question Him about anything He says, never ate the pig, ever. They may have had no idea why He instructed them not to eat the pig, but He did and they didn’t.

But alas, along the trail-way of life, evil, which began in the garden, crept in, raised it’s ugly head, tested the human race and guess what? Yep, just like Adam and the fruit tree, man ate the pig in direct disobedience to the Creator of the Universe, our Heavenly Father of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, got a taste of that pig and away man went.

And now, in a lot of cases, many religionists will either partake of the pig before their ritualistic services begin or right after when they can’t wait to get to a restaurant and chomp down on ham and eggs.

Those weren’t His instructions at all.

His instructions were don’t, not go along in life and listen to some false prophet come along and say, awe, it’s okay, you can eat pig (just like the serpent told Eve she wouldn’t die if she ate the fruit). Or worse and one lie we hate with all our heart, awe, those “old” laws aren’t a part of life any longer.

Sorry. Yahweh said it once, and when Yahweh says it once, He’s saying it forever, and He never changes, nor should the human race He has created. “O Yahweh, the Heavenly Father of our ancestors Abraham, Isaac, and Israel (Jacob), make your people always want to obey you. See to it that their love for you never changes”. “Generations come and generations go, but the earth never changes”. 1 Chronicles 29:18, Ecclesiastes 1:4

Yahweh created us and gave us instructions about how to live within the structure of His Creation in a manner fit for His honor and our eternal existence.

Instructions, commandments, decrees, laws, regulations, why oh why does man resist the very law and order of His creation and live within the instructions He has given us which are for our own benefit and His honor as obedient servants during our 70-odd-years of mortal life.

The pig folks, is our Heavenly Father’s creation of a living garbage disposal. Think that through. A living garbage disposal, created by our Creator to be just that. So who in his right mind would suck up the remnants of the junk ground up in our sinks’ garbage disposals? Yet, that’s exactly what one does when one breaks through the instructions by Yahweh not to do it. One might as well be sucking up the contents of one’s home garbage disposal when one eats pig because He created the pig (and all marine life that doesn't have fins and scales) to be garbage disposals to rid the earth of contaminants while they live and breath. When they die, they become just as we, the dust of creation, but during their existence, they are used with purpose to suck up contaminants.

And you want to eat that?

So who knows all the laboratory costs (billions of dollars) and time man has spent studying the pig who Yahweh created, knowing why He created it, only to find that the pig that Yahweh created as a living garbage disposal retains the toxins it takes in within its blood stream and thus meat structure. That's right. The lamb or the steer of whom the Father eventually brought around as an eatable substance, passes the toxins. The pig doesn't. It retains them and guess what. Passes them right on to whomever partakes of their bodies.

This is the Heavenly Father of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. These are His words of wisdom, His profound examples of His creation and every law or commandment He has laid down for us to live out our lives in obedience to, has just as much purpose to it as does the definition of His piggish garbage disposal.

If He says don't, don't, it's as simple as that.

3. HONOR HIM

HONOR the Heavenly Father of Abraham, Issac and Jacob.

Is that asking so much?

After all, here's the Creator of the Universe giving us some of the first of His oral and written instructions for life by telling us to 'honor our father and mother', and it isn't something He's just poopooing to make conversation, He absolutely means it.

When He rescued His nation Israel from the hands of their then enslavers, Egypt, He reminded them that from that point forward, in honor of Him and what He did for them, He expects them to celebrate the passover, the saving grace of His intervention into their lives, forever. "In honor of Yahweh your Heavenly Father, celebrate the Passover each year in the early spring, in the month of Abib, for that was the month in which Yahweh your Heavenly Father brought you out of Egypt by night".

Deuteronomy 16:1

Why wouldn't we? And yes, it is all inclusive. While He told it to Israel, we as "foreigners" are given the same consideration as they and yes, we too can and do celebrate that miraculous event He has written down for us in remembrance of that saving step in life.

This isn't some idol item hanging on a wall someplace (especially one that hangs from a cross), to be honored and worshipped instead of the true Father of Heaven. After all, our Father of Heaven is alive and well, always has been, always will be, so we honor the living Heavenly Father of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob in memory of not only what He did that particular time in history, but what He's done forever, right back to Creation itself.

We praise Him. We honor Him. We give Him all the glory for who He is, what He has done and what He will do as He guides us along the pathway of Righteousness toward eternal life with Him.

He defined Himself to Moses describing Himself in a manner we believe each and every one of us should come to know and understand. Moses had smashed the first two tablets with the ten commandments on them in his anger toward the Israel nation who had turned from Yahweh and made a god of gold. Moses then chiseled out two more stones like the first ones and again climbed Mt. Sinai as commanded to wait upon Heavenly Father to re-etch the first ten commandments of life into stone.

As Moses waited, our Father meeting him on Mt. Sinai came down in a cloud and stood there with him; and He called out his own name, Yahweh as He passed in front of Moses saying:

Yahweh! The Lord (thus we convert every description of the word Lord in Genesis to Malachi to Yahweh, his actual name).

Again, these are His words and definition of Himself:

The Heavenly Father of compassion and mercy!

I am slow to anger and filled with unfailing love and faithfulness.

I lavish unfailing love to a thousand generations.

I forgive iniquity, rebellion and sin.

But I do not excuse the guilty.

I lay the sins of their parents upon their children and grandchildren; the entire family is affected – even children in the third and four generations. Exodus 34:4-7

This then our readers is the Heavenly Father of whom wishes to be honored as our Father in Heaven and known as the Heavenly Father of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

There is nothing in His description, nor is there anything in His entire word from Genesis to Malachi that He is a religion. Nowhere does that describe our Father whom we believe and whom met with Moses on Mt. Sinai.

He's a Father of compassion and mercy. He's slow to anger and He's filled with unfailing love and faithfulness. He will lavish His unfailing love to a thousand generations. He forgives iniquity (wickedness), He forgives rebellion (defiance, insubordination), He forgives sin (wrongdoing, misbehaving), but He does not excuse the guilty and lays the sins of guilty parents on their children and grandchildren, up to three and four generations.

How does one get classified as guilty and who are those He forgives?

The guilty are those who are stubborn and rebellious.

“Rebellion is as sinful as witchcraft, and stubbornness as bad as worshiping idols”. 1 Samuel 15:23

If one rebels against Yahweh remaining stubborn and not submitting to His commandments of life, one is guilty and He will not forgive rebellion.

“Perhaps the people of Judah will repent when they hear again all the terrible things I have planned for them. Then I will be able to forgive their sins and wrongdoings”. Jeremiah 36:3

If one repents (is sorry and ashamed) and turns from disobedient behavior he stands ready not only to forgive but absolutely forget it ever happened.

One cannot hide behind the guile of religion and continue to disobey the commandments, statutes, decrees, regulations and laws of our Creator Yahweh and think they are getting away with it. They are not.

As did the 120,000 citizens of Nineveh, they repented, they were saved. We encourage you if you need to, repent of disobedience and gain the uplifting condition of being forgiven by your Creator, the Heavenly Father of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, do it and remember, there is no other way to forgiveness.