

FORMED FROM THE DUST OF THE GROUND

No One Goes To Heaven!

Yahweh - Heavenly Father

No One Goes To Heaven!

Open the graves, visit the catacombs of Rome, discover ancient burial sites and depending on how much time has passed, the bones that you'll find are still there.

Our dependence on the word from the Creator of the Universe lies within the pages of Biblical texts sorted and presented in a fashion we have used as reference titled the New Living Translation, Genesis to Malachi. We do not believe in a new testament.

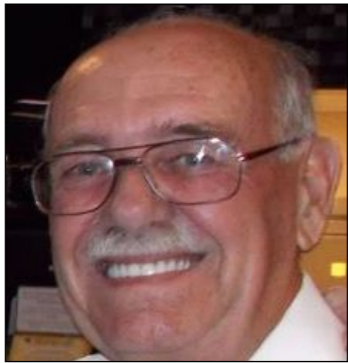

Nothing within those texts leads one to believe a human being or the animals of earth have ever left the gravitational pull of the world we live on be they alive today, or long ago dead and buried. They are dead bones or by now dust awaiting reconstruction.

FORWARD

Nearly 31% of human beings living on planet earth today attest to a religion that has decided in one form or another, upon death they go to heaven. 2.4 billion people are caught up in an “immediate” resurrection similar to the mythical reporting of their central figure (idol), a god-man savior, supposedly born of human parents, grew up to manhood, became their “god incarnate”, was crucified for being so, was buried in a cave and three days later it was empty.

Many of you reading this booklet and receiving this information disputing such mysticism (perhaps for the first time in your life), may in fact be a very part of that thinking this religion teaches, preaches and lives by it in the short 70-odd-years of life we have in these mortal bodies. And, along with about 45,000 individual denominations that believe this way, there are another 4,199 religions on earth that have different ideas about their heavenly “god” or “gods”.

About 18% or 1.4 billion of earth’s population don’t believe any religion at all, and, we don’t either except, we believe fully and without doubt or shame in the Heavenly Father of a man named Moses of whom our Creator appeared at Mt. Sinai, set in motion truth, instruction for life, reward and punishment for obedience and disobedience and outlined the truth about where we end up in death. It isn’t in Heaven (the sky), it’s in the soil of the ground of which He created his first male human being, Adam. “You were made from dust, and to dust you will return.” Genesis 3:19

So, when you hear people say as they mourn the death of a loved one, “he or she is in a better place” or perhaps “he or she is looking down on me” or “I talk with he or she all the time” or “I’ll be with he or she soon”, and there’s even one religion that believes not only do they go to heaven, but for the men that die, there’s a harem of virgins waiting for them, don’t listen.

It’s all malarky, all a made-up lie to sooth your brain which in turn relaxes your body in a mesmerizing fashion. You can do the same thing with Yoga which proves, “it’s all in the mind.”

Not that our Heavenly Father isn’t alive and well, isn’t paying attention, isn’t caring, but, He hasn’t acted yet. The greatest miracle since creation will be when He raises bodies up from the dust of the earth, puts them back together (lock, stock and barrel), breaths the breath of life in to our lungs and the body lives again, this time forever. Believing that, we are scattered, not congregated. We stand alone, but, we believe and we invite you to join a journey that’s eternal in scope and rewarding in reality as you become a friend of our Heavenly Father, our Creator.

FATHERS’ HEAVEN

Residents of Heaven today are obviously the Creator of the Universe and His Heavenly Army (His angels). Defined:

The heavens belong to Yahweh, but he has given the earth to all humanity. Psalm 115:16

There are two human beings unaccounted for. Elijah (whom He took off the surface of the earth in a whirlwind) and Enoch (who just disappeared).

Elijah will be resurrected in the final days just before the beginning of everlasting life.

Elijah’s physical departure is recorded:

“As they were walking along and talking, suddenly a chariot of fire appeared, drawn by horses of fire. It drove between the two men, separating them, and Elijah was carried by a whirlwind into heaven (the sky).” 2 Kings 2:11

Then we find him coming back again: “Look, I am sending you the prophet Elijah before the great and dreadful day of Yahweh arrives”. Malachi 4:5

Elijah was a great preacher/teacher and prophet in his day, but still has duties associated with renewing relationships just before the Father purges the earth and continues everlasting life.

We constantly hear folks referring to “up there” and “looking down” in discussions about people who have expired, especially close relatives or spouses. As upsetting as this might be, no one is “up there” “looking down.” They are not in Heaven, they are in death.

Death is the temporary waiting condition for all people. Dead and buried bodies will be raised up and reconstructed with one of two results:

1. Everlasting Life
2. Shame And Everlasting Disgrace. Daniel 12:2

No one is “in Heaven”. They are all “in death .” Through Daniel our Creator defined the state of death of our personalities (souls):

“As for you, go your way until the end. You will rest, and then at the end of the days, you will rise again to receive the inheritance set aside for you.” Daniel 12:13

In that day, everyone in the land of Judah will sing this song:

Our city is strong! We are surrounded by the walls of Heavenly Father’s salvation. Open the gates to all who are righteous; allow the faithful to enter. Not all who are religious, all who are righteous.

You will keep in perfect peace all who trust in you, all whose thoughts are fixed on you! Trust in Yahweh always, for Yahweh our Heavenly Father is the eternal Rock. He humbles the proud and brings down the arrogant city. He brings it down to the dust. The poor and oppressed trample it underfoot, and the needy walk all over it.

But for those who are righteous, the way is not steep and rough. You are a Heavenly Father who does what is right, and you smooth out the path ahead of them. Yahweh, we show our trust in you by obeying your laws; our heart’s desire is to glorify your name.

All night long I search for you; in the morning I earnestly seek for Heavenly Father. For only when you come to judge the earth will people learn what is right. Your kindness to the wicked does not make them do good. Although others do right, the wicked keep doing wrong and take no notice of Yahweh’s majesty. O Yahweh, they pay no attention to your upraised fist. Show them your eagerness to defend your people. Then they will be ashamed. Let your fire consume your enemies.

Yahweh, you will grant us peace; all we have accomplished is really from you. O Yahweh our Heavenly Father, others have ruled us, but you alone are the one we worship. Those we served before are dead and gone. Their departed spirits (personalities) will never return! You attacked them and destroyed them, and they are long forgotten.

O Yahweh, you have made our nation great; yes, you have made us great. You have extended our borders, and we give you the glory! Yahweh, in distress we searched for you. We prayed beneath the burden of your discipline. Just as a pregnant woman writhes and cries out in pain as she gives birth, so were we in your presence, Yahweh. We, too, writhe in agony, but nothing comes of our suffering. We have not given salvation to the earth, nor brought life into the world.

But those who die in Yahweh will live; their bodies will rise again! Those who sleep in the earth will rise up and sing for joy!

For your life-giving light will fall like dew on your people in the place of the dead!

Go home, my people, and lock your doors! Hide yourselves for a little while until Yahweh's anger has passed. Look! Yahweh is coming from heaven to punish the people of the earth for their sins. The earth will no longer hide those who have been killed. They will be brought out for all to see. Isaiah 26

The wicked will go down to the grave. This is the fate of all the nations who ignore the Heavenly Father (of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob). Psalm 9:17

For the nations that refuse to serve you will be destroyed.

Isaiah 60:12

They will live safely in Israel and build homes and plant vineyards. And when I punish the neighboring nations that treated them with contempt, they will know that I am Yahweh their Heavenly Father.” Ezekiel 28:6

To summarize then, bodies stop breathing and “turn to dust”. Souls (personalities) rest in “death”, not in Heaven.

When the Father's plan is complete, those bodies raise again (and are obviously rebuilt - See newsletter #77 “He Will Put Us Back Together Again”) and the Father's judgement is initiated to place an individual into a state of eternal life in Israel (for the Jew and the foreigner who trusts the Father entirely).

Then there is eternal life in a “believing” nation, eternal life in an “opposing” nation. and life in a pit in the earth where the worm that is supposed to devour flesh never devours it but continually eats away at it, and the body lives in an everlasting flame of heat that never goes out.

The righteous (Jew and foreigner) will be brought to Israel, take up residency forever, build homes, grow crops, partake of the fruits of the “trees of life” and most of all, be face to face in worship and honor of the Father of Creation, Yahweh in His Temple on Mt. Zion.

MYSTICISM

Some religions teach of a mystical city coming “down” from heaven where people will live. The Father’s prophets teach just the opposite. Jerusalem won’t be built in heaven, it will be built right here on earth by man, not by the Heavenly Father. The Heavenly Father isn’t going to appear in some mystical city from heaven, He’s going to appear in His rebuilt Temple. Jerusalem gets rebuilt by man, His temple gets rebuilt by man. Nothing comes “down from heaven.”

A quick comparison is the building of the ark. Yahweh laid out the plan, it took Noah (and his family) a strong part of their lives to build it to fulfill the proclamation that the Father would flood the earth and kill everyone on it.

If there was mysticism involved, why didn’t the Father mystically drop the ark out of the sky for Noah instead of having him take a good part of his life to build it?

If there were a mystical city coming out of the sky, why would the Father have His nation (the Jew) rebuild both the city of Jerusalem and the Temple for Him to reside in?

The Father has always used earthly elements and materials in His miracles, and He has always used man to construct. Even the ark of the covenant, as Holy as that element was to house the book of the law, wasn’t built by Yahweh. It was designed by Him, but built by man.

We certainly understand, there are over 2 billion people on earth right now that have their hopes set on some huge city coming down out of the sky that their new testament has described and their pastors and priests have taught for centuries.

If you believe Yahweh, and you believe Yahweh’s prophets, you’ll soon discover it’s all fabricated to deceive people into thinking they don’t have to do anything to honor the Father of Creation. Just believe in some mystical “son-god” (who can’t even be proven historically to have existed), and some mystical city, and forget all of the commandments, decrees and instructions for life set forth by the Heavenly Father.

We understand. We were there too until His wisdom enlightened our lives.

“Though Yahweh is very great and lives in heaven, He will make Jerusalem His home of justice and righteousness. In that day He will be your sure foundation, providing a rich store of salvation, wisdom, and knowledge. The fear of Yahweh will be your treasure. Isaiah 33:5,6

OBEDIENCE

The fear of the Heavenly Father is a treasure to us, not a depressant. We WANT to do everything He asks of us, and specifically, obey His commandments, decrees and instructions for life. For that, He will provide a rich store of salvation, wisdom and knowledge. Nothing religion can offer, and especially match.

We will worship Him in His Temple on Mt. Zion in Jerusalem. We will live in Israel. Some of us will be His ambassadors going out from Israel into the nations remaining on earth who He doesn't destroy, and not only will we represent Him, we will be charged with the responsibility to make sure the nations are abiding by His rules. For, He says if they aren't He will hold back the rain and they won't have crops to eat.

Some of us will also be healing ambassadors using the leaves from the trees that grow continual fruit for our livelihood to "heal nations" with.

We will be living ON earth. Alas, there will be those who He does NOT rescue from death, and they will go on down in to the grave, and the pit which is IN earth and He's already demonstrated how that works centuries ago:

And Moses said, "This is how you will know that Yahweh has sent me to do all these things that I have done — for I have not done them on my own. If these men die a natural death, or if nothing unusual happens, then Yahweh has not sent me. But if Yahweh does something entirely new and the ground opens its mouth and swallows them and all their belongings, and they go down alive into the grave, then you will know that these men have shown contempt for Yahweh."

He (Moses) had hardly finished speaking the words when the ground suddenly split open beneath them. The earth opened its mouth and swallowed the men, along with their households and all their followers who were standing with them, and everything they owned.

So they went down alive into the grave, along with all their belongings. The earth closed over them, and they all vanished from among the people of Israel. All the people around them fled when they heard their screams. "The earth will swallow us, too!" they cried. Then fire blazed forth from Yahweh and burned up the 250 men who were offering incense. Numbers 16:31-35

That served as a warning to Israel at that time and most certainly should serve as a warning now.

If we expire before He brings us home to Israel, we trust Him to rescue us from the state of death, because we do understand, death can be swallowed up by the grave, and in to the pit - FOREVER.

That's reserved for those who DON'T fear the Heavenly Father, and DON'T maintain His commandments, decrees and instructions for life, but instead mock those instructions and listen to a lie about some son-god savior, and other mystical, religious teachings about someone, anyone, other than Yahweh, our Father, Creator.

Mulling over these truths, we know it's hard for people to grasp, understand or believe because false teachings are so opposite and have been since the Roman government built a "religion" for themselves a couple of millenniums ago.

All we can do is give you the references, and especially the instructions about these truths and how to find them. Your spirit will guide you about what to do about them.

IN DEATH

SO, where are our loved ones that have gone on before us?

They are in death. Their bodies have been turning to dust, but they themselves (personalities) are asleep and are waiting that great day of reckoning when the Father of Creation judges and decrees our position in everlasting life which is life with Him in Israel, life without Him in other nations on earth, and life never seeing Him or the light of day from the "underworld" (beneath the earth), and that my friends is what we have come to know as hell.

The Father says we die and rest and it is well defined in remarks to Daniel. We rest until the day we are raised to receive our inheritance (those of us who believe, serve and obey to the point of righteousness is His definition) and that inheritance is "everlasting life".

We who believe will be "snatched from the power of the grave." In other words, all humans die and are held in the grave, but He will bring us out when it's time.

We trust Him for that promise, believe in Him for that promise, look forward to Him in that promise and can't wait for it to happen.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT Psalm 37

Don't worry about the wicked or envy those who do wrong. For like grass, they soon fade away. Like spring flowers, they soon wither. Trust in Yahweh and do good. Then you will live safely in the land and prosper. Take delight in Yahweh, and He will give you your heart's desires.

Commit everything you do to Yahweh. Trust him, and He will help you. He will make your innocence radiate like the dawn, and the justice of your cause will shine like the noonday sun.

Be still in the presence of Yahweh, and wait patiently for Him to act. Don't worry about evil people who prosper or fret about their wicked schemes.

Stop being angry! Turn from your rage! Do not lose your temper — it only leads to harm. For the wicked will be destroyed, but those who trust in Yahweh will possess the land.

Soon the wicked will disappear. Though you look for them, they will be gone. The lowly will possess the land and will live in peace and prosperity.

The wicked plot against the righteous; they snarl at them in defiance. But Yahweh just laughs, for he sees their day of judgment coming.

The wicked draw their swords and string their bows to kill the poor and the oppressed, to slaughter those who do right. But their swords will stab their own hearts, and their bows will be broken.

It is better to be righteous and have little than to be evil and rich. For the strength of the wicked will be shattered, but Yahweh takes care of the righteous.

Day by day Yahweh takes care of the innocent, and they will receive an inheritance that lasts forever. They will not be disgraced in hard times; even in famine they will have more than enough.

But the wicked will die. Yahweh's enemies are like flowers in a field — they will disappear like smoke.

The wicked borrow and never repay, but the righteous are generous givers. Those Yahweh blesses will possess the land, but those He curses will die.

Yahweh directs the steps of the righteous. He delights in every detail of their lives. Though they stumble, they will never fall, for Yahweh holds them by the hand.

Once I was young, and now I am old. Yet I have never seen the righteous abandoned or their children begging for bread. The righteous always give generous loans to others, and their children are a blessing.

Turn from evil and do good, and you will live in the land forever. For Yahweh loves justice, and He will never abandon the righteous.

He will keep them safe forever, but the children of the wicked will die. The righteous will possess the land and will live there forever.

The righteous offer good counsel; they teach right from wrong. They have made Heavenly Father's law their own, so they will never slip from his path.

The wicked wait in ambush for the righteous, looking for an excuse to kill them. But Yahweh will not let the wicked succeed or let the righteous be condemned when they are put on trial.

Put your hope in Yahweh. Travel steadily along his path. He will honor you by giving you the land. You will see the wicked destroyed.

I have seen wicked and ruthless people flourishing like a tree in its native soil. But when I looked again, they were gone! Though I searched for them, I could not find them!

Look at those who are honest and good, for a wonderful future awaits those who love peace. But the rebellious will be destroyed; they have no future.

Yahweh rescues the righteous; He is their fortress in times of trouble. Yahweh helps them, rescuing them from the wicked. He saves them, and they find shelter in him.

Therein resides instructions for our lives friends.

A huge part of life is outlined just in this one Psalm let alone all the rest of the instructions from our Heavenly Father in the rest of His word from Genesis to Malachi.

So, death is not an immediate pathway to Yahweh. It's a resting place that He has allowed to exist from the day Adam decided to rebel against Him and cause death to enter existence.

Your family, your friends and eventually yourself, (that is your individual personality, your soul, or everything about you) will rest and wait.

Your body will begin to turn to dust during that waiting time and then eventually, just like He did at the flood, He will intervene in His created human existence, raise us up, put us all back together, breath the breath of life into our lungs and judge us individually for things that are outlined in this Psalm and it is those actions that will set the stage for our eternal existence.
