We Stand Alone!

With Yahweh Leading The Way!

“Although I have scattered you in the countries of the world, I will be a sanctuary to you during your time in exile.”

Israel and foreigners with them, were scattered around the globe centuries ago because of disobedience and generations of people have come and gone without a regathering from that scattering.

However, Yahweh made sure we know that there would still be those who “believe” and we have found that belief requires no religion, no church or temple building, and no intermediary, just you and Yahweh.

Standing Alone!

FORWARD

SO in a time past, the Creator of the Universe put up with enough of the arrogant and rebellious disobedience and evilness of the nation of mortal humans He rescued from Egypt so He scattered them all over the earth.

Not an uneventful occurrence when one considers how many times throughout history He has intervened in the ways of the human race and set His foot down, and eventually Israel caught the brunt of it because they are the chosen race of humans on earth that are supposed to be righteous example setters.

However, let's preface this by assuring readers that as often as our Creator has entered in to the affairs of man, there has always been someone who believes He exists, who believes He created everything, who believes He set standards in which to live life demonstrated by the single most righteous man on earth in his time, Noah. In the eyes of our Heavenly Father, at that time, Noah was the most righteous man on earth and what that means is that Noah believed everything the Father of Heaven had to say and he lived his life in an obedient and blameless lifestyle, far removed from the initial sin of his ancestor, the first man Adam and yes, his son Cain.

Fast forward and we find another man on earth Heavenly Father deemed worthy of His consideration of obedience, a man named Abraham in whom our Heavenly Father promised he would develop in to a great nation, would make him famous and most importantly, all the families on the face of the earth would be blessed through the existence of Abraham, all of us.

Richard Allen
Messenger, Publisher

From Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, Abraham's son and grandson, came a nation, a nation called out by the Creator of the Universe to be His own who are the Israelis and whom still exist as you read this booklet. Led by Moses out of a 400 year enslavement in Egypt, the nation was supposed to be the prime example of national life on earth in obedience to instructions first orally given by Heavenly Father Himself, then written down for all of us to know, learn, understand and apply to our lives. He was so strong about His word He not only orated them to the nation as He appeared to them at Mt. Sinai, but He personally etched the initial ten commandments of His life for us in stone.

Fast forward again, and we find this same nation scattered all over the earth as we stated in opening remarks, and scattered means just that. When someone is scattered, they are no longer a group, they are individually found all over the world standing alone. They are no longer the nation He first called out and led, they are no longer a nation that would stand at the foot of a mountain and listen to His words first hand, they are no longer a nation that would stand at the only building on earth the Father ever appeared to man, His tabernacle (eventually His Temple) while His chosen trustworthy Priests annually read the entire book of life to the chosen nation for them to listen, to learn, to obey, to apply and to teach their children.

He means just what He says and He not only scattered His nation, but He destroyed His temple because of the complete reversal of dedicated priests. Idolatry destroyed the nation, destroyed the Temple in which He was worshipped, and left the human race then and still today, without His physical involvement in the affairs of man. And we can only warn at this point in time, the same thing happened before the flood and the human race instead of coming to Him departed from Him and they suffered the consequences.

Not only scattered was His nation of Israeli citizens, but those who followed along with them titled foreigners. Israeli and foreigners were scattered around the world and that leaves them standing alone wherever they exist, which is where we find ourselves today.

He said then however, even being scattered, there would still be found those who believe He exists, believe He created everything, and believe He set standards in which to live life while we are in these mortal bodies. No religion, no buildings of worship, no systems or governments, just you and I and He and because of our belief, we stand alone.

While we are not alone in belief, we may be alone where we stand because few on earth believe like Noah believed, unaltered, righteousness in thought, thus guided in action, human but repentive when in error.

In today's society in many nations around the globe we keep hearing the term "sanctuary" or a safe place and you and I can be comforted in the fact that Yahweh (the name Heavenly Father gave to Moses to use to identify Himself), is our sanctuary wherever we are.

"This is what the Sovereign Yahweh says: Although I have scattered you in the countries of the world, I will be a sanctuary to you during your time in exile". Ezekiel 11:16

So my friends, while you and I stand alone because we believe, unlike others, we learn to live in that belief and can have comfort that the Heavenly Father Himself is at our beckoning call. So we encourage you to stay strong, keep believing and apply His life to yours which are His commandments for our benefit on earth.

1. BELIEVE HIM

IT is with great comfort that we can know without a shadow of doubt in our minds, the Creator of the Universe has us in His target, not because we are some "holier-than-thou" "Sunday-go-to-meeting" human being, but because no matter where we are in the world, no matter what nationality we are, no matter what the color of our skin is, we believe and we test that belief by simply putting a check on our minds to see if we fear Him enough to believe everything He has said Himself and through His prophets for us to live our lives by, and if we think about the honor of His name all the time, every waking minute of our lives, keeping in mind we only have 70-odd-years or so of it.

No, that doesn't mean we kneel down and pray on a rug five times a day facing some shrine in the middle east or annually marching around it by the millions. No it doesn't mean we physically follow some sort of ritualistic system of worship to some "god" of over 4,200 religions on earth. No it doesn't mean we follow some mythical god-man dreamed up by someone who makes claim that we can't seek our Heavenly Father without it. No it doesn't mean we go running door to door passing out pamphlets so we can join in with some other 143,999 people designated as the "saved". No it doesn't mean we wear "magic undergarments" for protection or offer wax figures of diseased body parts, or sit around naked carrying a water gourd for nourishment and a broom of peacock feathers to brush away creatures.

No, it doesn't mean using an "e-meter" to measure the static field around us to see if we're carrying any spiritual baggage from a past experience. No it doesn't mean swinging a live chicken over our heads and then donating it as food for the poor, or handling a live venomous snake. No, it doesn't mean defleshing a deceased body and feeding it to animals for the transmigration of spirits. No, it doesn't mean dropping an infant 50 feet from the roof of a Mosque to be caught in a taut bed sheet to ensure the family's good health and prosperity.

On and on this list goes of man-made ritualisms that have crept in to the life of mankind which do nothing more than divert attention away from the real Heavenly Father who just seeks our humble and obedient action toward His word of life.

Simply believe by following His advice, His commandments, His decrees, His laws, His regulations without need for any ritualistic, systematic and congregative effort.

Yes, there are physical things He does expect from us such as keeping the Sabbath which is resting one day a week. Honoring Him during the Passover season for His miraculous rescue of His nation Israel, Recognizing His festivals, most of which tie to the seasons of food and sustenance, things that honor Him and not ourselves, and He says I will always be your Heavenly Father and the Heavenly Father of your descendants after you. And I will give the entire land of Canaan, where you now live as a foreigner, to you and your descendants. It will be their possession forever, and I will be their Heavenly Father. Genesis 17:7,8

So, we believe Him and He knows we believe Him enough so as to make an everlasting agreement with us that He will always be our Heavenly Father and He will give us the land He has set aside for His believers, the land of Canaan, and it's a far cry more than the land Israel currently occupies.

Believe Him, that's all that he asks and that's all we need do no matter where in the world we currently exist and someday we will congregate together and it will be in the land He has set aside as a forever paradise for us, and we'll worship Him, and see Him face to face in His new Temple on Mt. Zion in Jerusalem.

2. CHALLENGING

NOT an easy task when we have been nurtured in directions entirely opposite of the right ways of life for so long, and especially when religions have crept in to distort our thinking about a “god” completely differently than the Heavenly Father of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. Sure, that’s our take on our Heavenly Father, but as you believe His word in the testaments titled Genesis to Malachi, the true and only word of our Heavenly Father, you will soon find that the Roman’s attempt to fool us with a “new testament” are meaningless and are to be ignored entirely.

However, we want to encourage you to realize that when you step away from that worldly thinking, take a deep breath, relax and accept Him from His word, there is a miraculous influence from the Creator of the Universe He shares with His people.

When he promises I will always be your Heavenly Father and the Heavenly Father of your descendants after you, he means just that, so it behooves us to look to Him for answers about life and not the world, and most importantly to submit to His influence and not the influence of others who either don’t believe in Him at all or have mis-guided conceptions about Him.

Again, we encourage you to know that it is the Heavenly Father of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob that we present to you as the Creator of the Universe and no other.

The challenge is an individual challenge friends. Yes, we’ve spent a quarter century smothered in His word and the word of His prophets and we know in our hearts that has been coupled with His influence or what He refers to as His Spirit. We don’t write just to write, we write because He wants us to encourage you to stand where you are, love Him where you are, believe Him where you are, obey Him where you are and it’s the greatest challenge on earth in the short 70-odd-years of life we have before we return to dust.

What we don’t have to do friends, like so many others do, is beat our chest about it, brag about it, bring attention to ourselves about it. We are challenged just to believe and obey and that’s it.

Yes, immediate family members are important and it’s especially important to teach His ways to your children, especially those still of the age of understanding. Matter of fact, it’s an instruction from Yahweh Himself. The challenge is first and foremost yourself and then from your enlightenment from Heavenly Father, those around you.

“They will learn to fear me as long as they live, and they will teach their children to fear me also.” Deuteronomy 4:10

3. MY PEOPLE

There are many references in the written word of Heavenly Father about His people. He refers to the entitlement over and over and He calls them “My People.”

Scattered as we are, there’s nothing on the face of the earth we should seek to be recognized as except the people of Yahweh. If someone asks me my religion, it’s a simple answer. I have no religion. If someone asks me in what faith I believe, it’s a simple answer, my faith is in the one who Created everything. If someone tries to tie my Father in Heaven to some religion, it’s a simple answer, He is not religion nor did He ever create religion.

Scattered as we are, and standing alone as we do, one thing we can love with all our heart and soul is to know that we are His people and with that, conversations can end, and arguments don’t even begin. There is no dispute and there is no reason to dispute because we know in our hearts, as we’re sold out lock, stock and barrel to the Creator of all matter, the only debate anyone can reply if they don’t believe me is to deny Him, and that’s surely their choice, not mine.

You may stand alone friend, but you aren’t alone.

Sure, you’ll hear from us through weekly newsletters about life with Heavenly Father and you’ll find answers to your questions in those newsletters or we’ll generate a newsletter that will answer your question unless He hasn’t answered at all, but in all cases, you’re desire to know more about Him and your desire to be of Him, and your desire to obey Him unlike Adam and Eve didn’t sets you in motion to be of His people and that’s really all we want out of this life isn’t it!

To know that He knows us. To know that He hears us. To know that He cares about us. To know that when we die and turn to dust, He will raise us from the dust of the earth and put us back together again in the same fashion He created his first human being is more than any religion on earth can offer you for eternal life.

Dig these words deep in to your minds friends, believe them, love them, rely on them and live them to the day you die and turn to dust, because they are the words of hope for we, His people who are scattered throughout the world:

Though I have scattered them like seeds among the nations, they will still remember me in distant lands. They and their children will survive and return again to Israel. Zechariah 10:9

No matter where in the world we now reside, as we remember Him in the distant lands we now live in, He will remember us and bring us to Him in Israel when it’s all said and done.

We are the people without a shepherd, and rightfully so because the shepherds on earth today are what He defines as “household gods” who give out worthless advice, and that’s every pastor, priest, pope, elder, rabbi, hindu or any other religious leader you can think of that promotes some sort of religious order instead of the Father's laws and commandments as a way of life.

Household gods give worthless advice, fortune-tellers predict only lies, and interpreters of dreams pronounce falsehoods that give no comfort. So my people are wandering like lost sheep; they are attacked because they have no shepherd.

Zechariah 10:2

We wander like lost sheep folks. That's His definition of we scattered, we're like, but, we know in our hearts we have Him and eventually, He will round us up just like an actual shepherd does and bring us home to Him.

Listen to this message from Yahweh you nations of the world; proclaim it in distant coastlands: Yahweh, who scattered his people, will gather them and watch over them as a shepherd does his flock. Jeremiah 31:10

So how do we know we are His people? Newsletter #25, but here's the short of it, and realize He is referring to us.

Those who feared him and always thought about the honor of his name. "They will be my people," says Yahweh of Heaven's Armies. "On the day when I act in judgment, they will be my own special treasure. I will spare them as a father spares an obedient child". Malachi 3:16,17

There is nothing more we can add here folks.

You'll find the life of Yahweh in the newsletters He's inspired us to write and you'll find little if anything that is recognizable as religion because we flat believe He did not create religion, man did.

That is why we know we stand alone.

Few there are that will believe us, but we support His word given to us in the "old testament" writings first passed down by He Himself and then through Moses and others, especially His prophets.

He is a Father of common sense. He's not some mystic wisp of air who would try and fool us or confuse us just to show a superiority that most religious leaders do on earth today. They preach unto themselves, and we teach unto Yahweh our Heavenly Father.

We look forward to the scattered relationship we have as we all head toward the day when, because we die in Him, we will be raised to everlasting life with Him.
