

What is Happy Feet?

HOW WE STARTED

In 2009, Jerry Baird, a retired coal miner, had an idea of a way to give back to kids in his local community. His idea flourished and has since spread to 16 counties in Western Kentucky. Each county is run by its own committee and fundraises to provide shoes for students within their county limits.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE

Eligible students are identified by the Family Resource Center at each school within Hopkins County's Public School District. A student's physical and mental health is a priority of the program. Not having basic personal items can distract a student from performing well in school. A new pair of shoes can build self-esteem and prevent bullying.

WHAT ABOUT DONATIONS

One of the most important factors is that ALL donations raised in Hopkins County stay in Hopkins County and help to benefit the students within our own school district. All donations are tax deductible. Hopkins County Happy Feet is completely funded from community donations. All administrative and committee duties are done on a volunteer basis and do not earn salaries.

“

THE PURE JOY THAT SHINES ON A CHILD'S FACE ISN'T SOMETHING YOU'RE LIKELY TO FORGET. TO YOU IT IS JUST A PAIR OF SHOES, TO THEM IT IS A STEP TOWARDS EQUALITY.

About Us

Happy Feet is a non-profit organization designed to provide school children with new name brand athletic shoes. The Happy Feet program was launched in Hopkins County in 2012 and directly benefits the students of Hopkins County School District and Dawson Springs Independent Schools.

Hopkins County Happy Feet has provided over 4,200+ pairs of new shoes to Hopkins County Students.
