It will be a tiered payment structured based on how much AUA we agree on.

Assets Under Advisement Range: (Monthly Fee to the client - 12 month contract paid monthly)

AUA Lower Level	AUA Upper Level	Monthly AUA Fee
$0	$25,000	$25.00
$25,001	$50,000	$50.00
$50,001	$100,000	$75.00

This initiation fee may be waived or reduced at the discretion of the Advisor if the client participates in the Financial Coaching Services provided under

If you terminate the financial planning services after five (5) business days of entering into an agreement, you will be responsible for immediate payment of any financial planning services performed by Haas Trade Advisors prior to the receipt by Haas Trade Advisors of your notice. For financial planning services performed by Haas Trade Advisors under a fixed fee arrangement, you will pay Haas Trade Advisors a pro-rated fixed fee equivalent to the percentage of work completed by Haas Trade Advisors as determined by Haas Trade Advisors. In the event that there is a remaining balance of any fees paid in advance after the deduction of fees from the final invoice, those remaining proceeds will be refunded by Haas Trade Advisors to you.

We happily offer a 10% discount on our services for United States military Veterans & current military members (including, Active, Guard, & Reserve). This discount is applied to the monthly AUA Fee.

Other Fee Terms for Financial Planning & Consulting Services

You may pay the investment advisory fees for the financial planning and consulting services by utilizing the Stripe Payment Software.

The Stripe Payment Software allows clients to arrange for secure fee payments using any credit or debit card. The use of Stripe provides clients with the convenience of on-line payments and avoids providing Haas Trading Advisors access to your account data.

You should notify Haas Trade Advisors within ten (10) days of receipt of an invoice if you have questions about or dispute any billing entry.

It should be noted that lower fees for comparable services may be available from other sources.

Item 6 – Performance-Based Fees and Side-By-Side Management

Performance-based fees are defined as fees based on a share of capital gains on or capital appreciation of the assets held in a client's account. Item 6 is not applicable to this Disclosure Brochure because I do not charge or accept performance-based fees.

Minimum Investment Amounts Required

There is a minimum initial fee of $1000.00 generally charged for financial planning and consulting services. The initial fee may be waived or reduced as explained above.

Item 8 – Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss

Methods of Analysis

Haas Trade Advisors uses the following methods of analysis in formulating investment advice:

Fundamental – This is a method of evaluating a security by attempting to measure its intrinsic value by examining related economic, financial and other qualitative and quantitative factors. Fundamental analysts attempt to study everything that can affect the security's value, including macroeconomic factors (like the overall economy and industry conditions) and individually specific factors (like the financial condition and management of a company). The end goal of performing fundamental analysis is to produce a value that an investor can compare with the security's current price in hopes of figuring out what sort of position to take with that security (underpriced = buy, overpriced = sell or short). Fundamental analysis is considered to be the opposite of technical analysis. Fundamental analysis is about using real data to evaluate a security's value. Although most analysts use fundamental analysis to value stocks, this method of valuation can be used for just about any type of security.

The risk associated with fundamental analysis is that it is somewhat subjective. While a quantitative approach is possible, fundamental analysis usually entails a qualitative assessment of how market forces interact with one another in their impact on the investment in question. It is possible for those market forces to point in different directions, thus necessitating an interpretation of which forces will be dominant. This interpretation may be wrong and could therefore lead to an unfavorable investment decision.

There are risks involved in using any analysis method.

Investment Strategies

Haas Trade Advisors uses the following investment strategies when providing financial planning services and/or providing investment advice:

Long term purchases. Investments held at least a year.

Strategic asset allocation. Calls for setting target allocations and then periodically rebalancing the portfolio back to those targets as investment returns skew the original asset allocation percentages. The concept is akin to a “buy and hold” strategy, rather than an active trading approach. Of course, the strategic asset allocation targets may change over time as the client’s goals and needs change and as the time horizon for major events such as retirement and college funding grow shorter.

Primarily Recommend One Type of Security

I do not primarily recommend one type of security to clients. Instead, I recommend any product that may be suitable for each client relative to that client’s specific circumstances and needs.

Risk of Loss

Past performance is not indicative of future results. Therefore, you should never assume that future performance of any specific investment or investment strategy will be profitable. Investing in securities (including stocks, mutual funds, and bonds, etc.) involves risk of loss. Further, depending on the different types of investments there may be varying degrees of risk. You should be prepared to bear investment loss including loss of original principal.

Because of the inherent risk of loss associated with investing, my firm is unable to represent, guarantee, or even imply that my services and methods of analysis can or will predict future results, successfully identify market tops or bottoms, or insulate you from losses due to market corrections or declines. There are certain additional risks associated with investing in securities through my financial planning/consulting services, as described below:

- Market Risk – Either the stock market as a whole, or the value of an individual company, goes down resulting in a decrease in the value of client investments. This is also referred to as systemic risk.
- Equity (stock) market risk – Common stocks are susceptible to general stock market fluctuations and to volatile increases and decreases in value as market confidence in and perceptions of their issuers change. If you held common stock, or common stock equivalents, of any given issuer, you would generally be exposed to greater risk than if you held preferred stocks and debt obligations of the issuer.
- Company Risk. When investing in stock positions, there is always a certain level of company or industry specific risk that is inherent in each investment. This is also referred to as unsystematic risk and can be reduced through appropriate diversification. There is the risk that the company will perform poorly or have its value reduced based on factors specific to the company or its industry. For example, if a company’s employees go on strike or the company receives unfavorable media attention for its actions, the value of the company may be reduced.

- Fixed Income Risk. When investing in bonds, there is the risk that the issuer will default on the bond and be unable to make payments. Further, individuals who depend on set amounts of periodically paid income face the risk that inflation will erode their spending power. Fixed-income investors receive set, regular payments that face the same inflation risk.
- Options Risk. Options on securities may be subject to greater fluctuations in value than an investment in the underlying securities. Purchasing and writing put and call options are highly specialized activities and entail greater than ordinary investment risks.
- ETF and Mutual Fund Risk – When investing in an ETF or mutual fund, you will bear additional expenses based on your pro rata share of the ETF's or mutual fund's operating expenses, including the potential duplication of management fees. The risk of owning an ETF or mutual fund generally reflects the risks of owning the underlying securities the ETF or mutual fund holds. You will also incur brokerage costs when purchasing ETFs.
- Management Risk – Your investment with my firm varies with the success and failure of my investment strategies, research, analysis and determination of portfolio securities. If my investment strategies do not produce the expected returns, the value of the investment will decrease.

Item 9 – Disciplinary Information

Item 9 is not applicable to this Disclosure Brochure because there are no legal or disciplinary events that are material to a client's or prospective client's evaluation of my business or integrity.

Item 10 – Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations

Haas Trade Advisors is not and does not have a related person that is a broker/dealer, municipal securities dealer, government securities dealer or broker, an investment company or other pooled investment vehicle (including a mutual fund, closed-end investment company, unit investment trust, private investment company or "hedge fund," and offshore fund), another investment adviser or financial planner, a futures commission merchant, commodity pool operator, or commodity trading advisor, a banking or thrift institution, an accountant or accounting firm, a lawyer or law firm, an insurance company or agency, a pension consultant, a real estate broker or dealer, and a sponsor or syndicator of limited partnerships.

Item 11 – Code of Ethics, Participation in Client Transactions and Personal Trading

Code of Ethics Summary

An investment adviser is considered a fiduciary and has a fiduciary duty to all clients. Haas Trade Advisors has established a Code of Ethics to comply with the requirements of the securities laws and regulations that reflects its fiduciary obligations and those of its supervised persons. The Code of Ethics also requires compliance with federal securities laws. Haas Trade Advisors' Code of Ethics covers all individuals that are classified as "supervised persons." All employees, officers, directors and investment adviser representatives are classified as supervised persons. Haas Trade Advisors requires its supervised persons to consistently act in your best interest in all advisory activities. Haas Trade Advisors imposes certain requirements on its affiliates and supervised persons to ensure that they meet the firm's fiduciary responsibilities to you. The standard of conduct required is higher than ordinarily required and encountered in commercial business.

This section is intended to provide a summary description of the Code of Ethics of Haas Trade Advisors. If you wish to review the Code of Ethics in its entirety, you should send me a written request and upon receipt of your request, I will promptly provide a copy of the Code of Ethics to you.

Affiliate and Employee Personal Securities Transactions Disclosure

Haas Trade Advisors or supervised persons of the firm buy and sell for their personal accounts, investment products identical to those recommended to clients. This creates a conflict of interest. It is the express policy of Haas Trade Advisors that all persons associated in any manner with my firm must place clients' interests ahead of their own when implementing personal investments. As is required by our internal procedures manual, Haas Trade Advisors and its supervised persons will not buy or sell securities for their personal account(s) where their decision is derived, in whole or in part, by information obtained as a result of employment or association with my firm unless the information is also available to the investing public upon reasonable inquiry.

I am now and will continue to be in compliance with applicable state and federal rules and regulations. To mitigate conflicts of interest that can occur when access persons manage their personal accounts at the same time Haas Trade Advisors provides advisory services, I have developed written supervisory procedures that include personal investment and trading policies for my representatives, employees and their immediate family members (collectively, supervised persons):

- Supervised persons cannot prefer their own interests to that of the client.
- Supervised persons cannot purchase or sell any security for their personal accounts prior to implementing transactions for client accounts.

- Supervised persons cannot buy or sell securities for their personal accounts when those decisions are based on information obtained as a result of their employment unless that information is also available to the investing public upon reasonable inquiry.
- Supervised persons are prohibited from purchasing or selling securities of companies in which any client is deemed an “insider.”
- Supervised persons are discouraged from conducting frequent personal trading.
- Supervised persons are generally prohibited from serving as board members of publicly traded companies unless an exception has been granted to the Chief Compliance Officer of Haas Trade Advisors.

Any Supervised person not observing our policies is subject to sanctions up to and including termination.

Item 12 – Brokerage Practices

The firm specializes in providing Financial Planning and Consulting services and does not have trading authority over any client accounts or assets.

Item 13 – Review of Accounts

Account Reviews and Reviewers

Client plans are reviewed at least annually. While the calendar is the main triggering factor, reviews can also be conducted at your request. Reviews will include investment strategy and objectives review and making a change if strategy and objectives have changed. Reviews are conducted by Nathan D. Haas, with reviews performed in accordance with your investment goals and objectives.

Our financial planning and consulting services do not include monitoring the investments of your account(s), and therefore, there is no ongoing review of your account(s) under such services.

Statements and Reports

Financial planning clients do not receive any report other than the written plan originally contracted for and provided by Haas Trade Advisors.

You are encouraged to always compare any reports or statements provided by me against the account statements delivered from your qualified custodian.

Item 14 – Client Referrals and Other Compensation

Haas Trade Advisors does not directly or indirectly compensate any person for client referrals.

The only compensation received from advisory services is the fees charged for providing investment advisory services as described in Item 5 of this Disclosure Brochure. Haas Trade Advisors receives no other forms of compensation in connection with providing investment advice.

Please see Item 5, Fees and Compensation, Item 10, Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations and Item 12, Brokerage Practices, for additional discussion concerning other compensation.

Item 15 – Custody

Custody, as it applies to investment advisors, has been defined by regulators as having access or control over client funds and/or securities. In other words, custody is not limited to physically holding client funds and securities. If an investment adviser has the ability to access or control client funds or securities, the investment adviser is deemed to have custody and must ensure proper procedures are implemented. According to this definition, Haas Trade Advisors does not have custody of client funds or securities.

Item 16 – Investment Discretion

The firm specializes in providing Financial Planning and Consulting services and does not have trading authority over any client accounts or assets.

Item 17 – Voting Client Securities

Proxy Voting

Haas Trade Advisors does not vote proxies on behalf of Clients. I have determined that taking on the responsibilities for voting client securities does not add enough value to the services provided to you to justify the additional compliance and regulatory costs associated with voting client securities. Therefore, it is your responsibility to vote all proxies for securities held in Account.

You will receive proxies directly from the qualified custodian or transfer agent; I will not provide you with the proxies. You are encouraged to read through the information provided with the proxy-voting documents and make a determination based on the information provided. Although I do not vote client proxies, if you have a question about a particular proxy feel free to contact me. However, you will have the ultimate responsibility for making all proxy-voting decisions.

Item 18 – Financial Information

This Item 18 is not applicable to this brochure. Haas Trade Advisors does not require or solicit prepayment of more than $500 in fees per client, six months or more in advance. Therefore, I am not required to include a balance sheet for the most recent fiscal year. I am not subject to a financial condition that is reasonably likely to impair my ability to meet contractual commitments to clients. Finally, Haas Trade Advisors has not been the subject of a bankruptcy petition at any time.

In situations where a financial institution does disclose customer information to non-affiliated third parties, other than permitted or required by law, customers must be given the opportunity to opt out or prevent such disclosure. Haas Trade Advisors does not share or disclose customer information to non-affiliated third parties except as permitted or required by law.

In the event that Haas Trade Advisors has a change to its customer privacy policy that would allow it to disclose non-public information not covered under applicable law, Haas Trade Advisors will allow its clients the opportunity to opt out of such disclosure.

Business Continuity Plan

Haas Trade Advisors has a business continuity and contingency plan in place designed to respond to significant business disruptions. These disruptions can be both internal and external. Internal disruptions will impact my ability to communicate and do business, such as a fire in the office building. External disruptions will prevent the operation of the securities markets or the operations of a number of firms, such as earthquakes, wildfires, hurricanes, terrorist attack or other wide-scale, regional disruptions.

My continuity and contingency plan has been developed to safeguard employees' lives and firm property, to allow a method of making financial and operational assessments, to quickly recover and resume business operations, to protect books and records, and to allow clients to continue transacting business.

The plan includes the following:

- Alternate locations to conduct business;
- Hard and electronic back-ups of records;
- Alternative means of communications with employees, clients, critical business constituents and regulators; and
- Details on the firm's employee succession plan

My business continuity and contingency plan is reviewed and updated on a regular basis to ensure that the policies in place are sufficient and operational.
