Shochu

What is Shochu?

Shochu is a popular Japanese spirit made from various ingredients such as sweet potato, barley, rice, buckwheat, and sugar cane. It can be enjoyed on the rocks, with water (still or sparkling), or hot water.

Imo (Sweet Potato) Shochu

	SINGLE	DOUBLE
Kuro Kirishima (25%)	£4.25	£8
Aka Kirishima (25%)	£4.95	£9
Daiyame (25%) A special type of potato is used which resembles a Lychee aroma.	£5.25	£10

Mugi (Barley) Shochu

	SINGLE	DOUBLE
Kannoko (25%) Beautiful amber colour, aged for a long time	£4.25	£8

Plum Wine (Umeshu) (10%)

50ml £4.25    100ml £8.0

Plum wine is usually confused by its name, as it's not a wine at all, but made by steeping fresh Japanese plum (Ume) in alcohol. It has a sweet and tangy flavour perfect for those who love a sweet beverage!
