

Georgia Homestead & Senior Exemption Links

Courtesy handout provided by Move Realty Co.

Links and exemptions can change. Always verify the most current rules, deadlines, and forms with the Georgia Department of Revenue and your local county tax office.

Official GA DOR overview: <https://dor.georgia.gov/property-tax-homestead-exemptions>

County	Major Cities (from source)	Official Page	Link
Barrow	Winder, Statham, Bethlehem, Auburn	Barrow County Assessor – Exemptions	Open
Bartow	Cartersville	Bartow County Tax Commissioner – Homestead Exemption	Open
Cherokee	Canton, Woodstock	Cherokee County Tax Assessor – Homestead Exemptions	Open
Cobb	Marietta, Smyrna, Kennesaw, Acworth	Cobb County Tax Commissioner – Property Tax Exemptions	Open

DeKalb	Decatur, Dunwoody, Stone Mountain, parts of Atlanta	DeKalb County Tax Commissioner – Property Tax Exemptions	Open
Douglas	Douglasville	Douglas County – Homestead Exemptions	Open
Forsyth	Cumming, parts of Alpharetta & Gainesville	Forsyth County Board of Assessors – Homestead Exemption	Open
Fulton	Atlanta, Alpharetta, Johns Creek, Milton, Roswell	Fulton County Board of Assessors – Homestead Exemptions	Open
Gwinnett	Lawrenceville, Duluth, Snellville, Suwanee	Gwinnett County Tax Commissioner – About Homestead Exemptions	Open
Hall	Gainesville	Hall County – Homestead Exemptions	Open
Jackson	Braselton, Commerce	Jackson County Tax Commissioner – General Information (Homestead)	Open
Paulding	Dallas, parts of Acworth	Paulding County – Homestead Exemptions	Open
Spalding	Griffin	Spalding County Tax Commissioner – General Information (Homestead)	Open

Tip: If you're applying for a new or updated exemption (including senior exemptions), many counties require filing by April 1 or within the appeal window after the assessment notice.