

DEPOSIT POLICY

Once a date is agreed on, all appointments need to be secured by a non-refundable deposit. The amount will be stated by the artist based on the length of each session, and needs to be paid within 48 hours. Appointments aren't secured until this is paid.

You may reschedule your appointment once only before a new deposit is required. The original deposit can be transferred to a rescheduled appointment only if a notice of no less than 7 days is given, and a new appointment is put into place within 7 days of rescheduling.

By paying a deposit, you as a client confirm that you are doing so after reviewing the artist's portfolio and policies, and concluding that they are the right person to provide their service to you. You are also acknowledging that whilst minor changes and variations to your ideas are welcome, in case of significant changes to the project a new deposit may be required.

Please make sure to read my T&C's before paying your deposit.