mingoetz Still coming down from the high that came with riding in Mexico with the coolest crew around. Big shoutout and thank you to @lilpattyp and the rest of the @fireridefestival folks for setting up and running this event and also to @drhiramunoz for keeping us safe and stoked at all times. Got to meet, shred, and hang out with so many rad humans. Tacos eaten, shots taken, and bikes ridden ✅ I'd say that's a good time.

It was rather spontaneous on my end to go to this event and boy was it a good decision. I haven't ridden freeride stuff since the end of 2019 and hardly ridden my bike at all since then. What a week to get me back into the roll of things! Looking forward to more big bike opportunities and events this year and I'm finally stoked to be riding my bike again 🙌 johnysalido Back home after @fireridefestival last week. Had such a #gudtime with the homies. Special thanks to @lilpattyp for putting on this rad event. I know how much work has to be put into organizing an event and I respect that so much! Thanks for helping me put Mexican Freeride in the global scene 🙌 whoisdylan @fireridefestival was such good time! So stoked to be voted Rider of The Week by all the riders. Dual slalom, long jump and high air were all so fun. Go watch the final video from this awesome trip to Puerto Vallarta Mexico now up on my YouTube channel. #fireridefestival #puertovallarta #mtb

This year we want to do things bigger and better and create a festival feel event, "by riders for the public" We still want to encourage progression and inspiration in a safe environment but we also want to welcome people to view the spectacular show the athletes put on and have the chance to demo bikes on the trails and jumps to attract more people to the sport of mountain biking. In the evenings, expect; live music, floodlit jumps, fire displays, fireworks, and athletes from around the world sending it! A recipe for an epic mountain bike party!
