Dear Prince,

LETTER OF CONDOLENCE – HRH EZE DR. ANDREW I. ONUKOGU

We, the Board and entire members of Allworkers Microfinance Bank Limited, Owerri, heartily commiserate with you on the demise of your beloved father, HRH Eze Dr. Andrew I. Onukogu, who has gone to be with the Lord.

Indeed, death is inevitable but we wished “Eze” had stayed longer, as he was a well of inspiration, a notable example of character and integrity, as well as a gift to humanity. His care, love, discipline, dedication and doggedness cannot go unannounced.

We stand with you in a time like this and urge you to be strengthened in the Lord and take solace in the awareness that we shall one day see “Eze” again. He has gone ahead of us and by God’s mercies, one day we shall meet him to part no more.

Always remember that we have him, you and your entire family in our hearts and in our prayers.

May his gentle soul continue to rest in peace in the bosom of the Lord.

Thank you

Yours faithfully
FOR: ALLWORKERS MFB.
