

OMTA PARTICIPATION TROPHIES

Guidelines & Procedures

Participation trophies, as of January 2024, are offered in five levels. They are available in green (10 points), purple (15 points), blue (20 points), silver (25 points) and gold (30 points). Each District has its own Participation Trophy Chair. Trophies are pictured on page two of this document.

Guidelines:

- All OMTA/MTNA-sponsored events qualify for one trophy point.
 - OMTA Events Include: Baroque Festival, Composition Festival, Ensemble Festival, Sonata Festival, Syllabus, Syllabus Level X Recital [1 point at every level].
 - The annual MTNA Competitions and special district sponsored events also qualify.
- There is no maximum number of points that can be earned in one year, and leftover points are to be added to the next trophy level.

Procedures:

- Teachers submit form orders and payments to the State Participation Trophy Chair:
 - Lorraine Alner, NCTM, 17679 SW Wapato Street, Sherwood, OR 97140
- Make your check(s) payable to OMTA
- The State Chair reviews the order and verifies the teacher’s active membership status via the OMTA membership directory.
- The State Chair emails the Teacher that their request is complete and cc’s their District Chair to release the trophies to the requesting teacher
- The teacher contacts the District Chair to arrange for transfer of the trophies
- The teacher is responsible for keeping records of their students’ participation points
- District Chairs are responsible for replenishing inventory and releasing trophies to teachers only upon confirmation from the State Chair
