Hadley's had a breeze and Comber won a pitcher's battle as the Greater Windsor Fastball League got a new season underway Monday night.

In a doubleheader at Windsor Stadium, Hadley's crushed Kelsey Hayes 14-0 in the opener then Comber edged Ottawa Tavern 4-1 in the nightcap.

Hadley's 14 Kelsey Hayes 0

Bob McMillan fired a two-hitter, struck out nine and walked three in an easy pitching victory.

His mates gave him two runs in each of the first three innings and then breezed. Hadley's only had nine hits but Kelsey Hayes kicked in with nine errors to help their cause.

Roy Deehan and Brian Hannon each had a pair of safeties with Deehan driving in three runs. Gunther Kailer was the losing pitcher.

Comber 4 Ottawa Tavern 1

Ivan Guy tossed a three-hitter to beat Art Anderson who allowed only five safeties. Guy struck out nine and walked five.

This one was tied 1-1 through 7½ innings when Comber struck for three runs to clinch it. Frank Klassen got one run home with a single, Paul Driedger another with a sacrifice fly and Anderson issued a bases-loaded walk for the final tally.

Larry Jansen of the winners was the only batter with more than one hit. He singled twice.

Norman's sacrifice sinks Crescent, 3-2

Tom Norman's sacrifice fly to centrefield in the top half of the 10th inning brought home Tom Holgate with the winning run as Ticket Wicket Travel edged Crescent Lanes Tavern 3-2 in Tuesday night's lone Greater Windsor Fastball League game at Wilson Park.

Holgate walked with one out and moved to third on Rob Peressutti's single.

Larry Champ was supposed to be Ticket Wicket's starting pitcher but he pulled a leg muscle in the pre-game warmup.

Rich Bartnik was a last-minute replacement and limited Crescent Lanes Tavern to five hits while striking out nine and walking three.

The loss went to Jack Stevenson who was tagged for 12 hits, including two apiece by Tom Dimitroff, Peressutti, Norman and Charles Hotham.

Dimitroff connected for a solo home run in the fourth inning. Shane Ouellette hit a bases-empty homer in the eighth.

Each club tallied a single run in the ninth.

Flying start for BFI

Bill Winkworth pitched a three-hitter and second baseman Frank Strathearn batted in four runs with a pair of triples to lead BFI to a 7-0 victory over Seagram's in a Greater Windsor Fastball League game played Tuesday evening at Windsor Stadium.

In a second game at Lanspeary Park, Neilson's scored single runs in the ninth and tenth innings to edge East Side Antiques 3-2.

It was the first action of the new season for all four clubs.

Ray Holliday, first of two Seagram's hurlers, took the loss.

Dennis Little socked a two-run home run for BFI in the second inning. Strathearn delivered his two-run triples in the fifth and seventh stanzas.

Hadley's picked up $300 as champions with CAF taking home $150.

Pat Harrison, a centrefielder, was named by the opposition as Hadley's most valuable player in the championship game with fellow centrefielder, Kerry Birch, receiving the honor for CAF.

So near, yet so far

Rick Janisse lost a no-hitter in the top of the ninth Wednesday night on a single up the middle by Andy Miller as BFI defeated Kelsey Hayes 3-0 in Greater Windsor Fastball League play.

Miller, in a pinch-hitting role, bounced his hit off Janisse's arm and into centre field.

In another game, Seagram's defeated Ottawa Tavern 6-2.

BFI 3 Kelsey Hayes 0

Janisse allowed just two base-runners — both on walks — before Miller's blow, with Dennis Little's alert fielding in the fifth preserving the no-hitter at that point.

Little fielded a deflection off the glove of first baseman Brian Boyd and outraced Kelsey's Jeff Shields to the bag.

Gary Spratt led the winners' attack with three hits and two rbi and Wayne Pestruc added a pair.

Seagram's 6 Ottawa Tavern 2

Jeff Long led the winners offensively with three hits and Serge Casey added a pair.

Dennis Hannon and Steve Hoar had two apiece for the Tavernmen.

Ray Holliday was the winner on a seven-hitter with five strikeouts.

Holgate takes matters into own hands

Ticket Wicket's Tom Holgate smashed a two-out, two-run homer to centre in the seventh inning to give the Travelmen a 7-6 victory over Metro Neilson's Friday in a Greater Windsor Fastball League game.

The win pulled Ticket Wicket into a first-place western division tie with Neilson's, both having 3-3 charts.

Ticket Wicket 7 Neilson's 6

Ticket Wicket jumped on Neilson's Rick Weir for five runs in the first inning thanks mostly to a solo home run by Dave Grondin and a two-run homer by Charlie Hotham.

Neilson's battled back to take the lead 6-5 in the top of the seventh but Holgate's blast a half-inning later settled the issue.

Larry Champ picked up the victory with 3½ innings work in relief of Rick Bartnik. Champ struck out seven of the 15 batters he faced.

Grondin, Tom Dimitroff and Rob Peresutti each got two hits out of 14 by Ticket Wicket. Mark Woolson had three of Neilson's 10 hits.

BFI 5 Ottawa Tavern 1

BFI scored three times in the first two innings and Bill Winkworth coasted on a three-hitter which included four walks and two strike outs.

Art Anderson was touched for 10 hits in a losing effort, two each by Dennis Little and Phil Piquet.

BFI took sole possession of third place in the east with a 4-2 record while Ottawa evened its chart at 3-3.

Hadley's 8 Seagram's 5

Bob Harper had three hits and Ernie Holden rapped out a two-run double to lead Hadley's in this one.

Joe Ponic and Roy Deehan added two hits apiece for the winners and Mike Ferencik had a solo homer.

Jeff Long led Seagram's with three hits, two each going to Don Dalpee, Mike Purdie and Rick Stewart, who also drove in three runs.

Bob McMillan went 5½ innings in relief of Dave Walkom to get the victory while allowing seven hits.

Tavernmen tee off Comber falls to Hadley's

Crescent Tavern sent 19 men to plate in the fifth inning and scored 14 runs before Marcel Riche flied to centre and end the marathon stanza in a 19-8 romp over Kelsey Hayes in the Greater Windsor Fastball League Monday.

Crescent banged out 10 hits that inning off three Kelsey pitchers in the nightcap of a Windsor Stadium doubleheader. Neilson's took over sole possession of first place in the west division with a 4-3 record following a 13-2 victory over BFI.

Crescent 19 Kelsey Hayes 8

Crescent led 2-1 heading into the fifth inning.

The Tavernmen swatted 19 hits in all with John Perry driving in seven runs on a single, double and triple and Dave Desjarlais collecting four rbi off as many hits.

Gunther Kailer got four of Kelsey's 12 hits and counted two rbi.

Each team made six errors.

Starter Les Johnston picked up the win while Andy Miller, Kelsey's starter, took the loss.

Neilson's 13 BFI 2

Neilson's jumped all over BFI's Bill Winkworth for seven runs off five hits in the first inning. They finally chased Winkworth from the mound in a six-run fourth inning.

Bill Kaschak went four-for-four and had three rbi to pace Neilson's with teammates Dan O'Sullivan and Rick Weir each driving in two runs off two hits.

Wayne Pestru accounted for both BFI runs with a double.

Jim Sabine tossed a five-hitter and struck out nine for a tick in the win column.

Rolph Martens was named chairman of the Windsor and Essex County Officials Association with Ed Swierenga filling the role of assigner.

An early 8-3 deficit proved too much for Comber Tuesday night.

As a result, the last of the unbeaten in the Greater Windsor Fastball League fell when lowly Hadley's sprung an 8-7 upset at Comber.

In another game, played at Wilson Park, Seagram's scored a 4-0 shutout over Ticket Wicket to close within a half-game of Comber in the east division.

Hadley's 8 Comber 7

Hadley's came in with a 2-5 record but didn't show it, blasting Larry Janzen from the mound in the third and continuing against Ivan Gay until they led 8-3 after five frames.

Then it was a case of holding on in the face of a Comber rally. But reliever Bob McMillan, coming on for Randy Korpin with two out in the eighth, was equal to the task.

He walked a couple and gave up one hit but also got the final four outs on strikeouts.

Phil Krauter was the biggest noise for Hadley's in the early going with three-for-three, scoring twice and driving in two runs. His output included a solo homer in the fifth and it proved to be the winning run.

Comber (6-1), which outhit the winners 15-11, had four blows from Kim Kucharski and three, including a double and triple, from Gary Roe.

Seagram's 4 T. Wicket 0

Ray Holliday beat Larry Champ in a battle of five-hitters as Seagram's moved to a 6-2 record.

Trouble with Champ, who fanned eight and walked none, was that two of the hits off him were homers, a two-run shot by Ken Souigny in the third and a solo smash by Holliday in the ninth.

Tom Dunn had two other hits, both doubles, off Champ. Hank Czerwieniec had a pair of singles off a brilliant Holliday, who fanned 16 and didn't walk anyone.

Tavernmen sneak by

Ottawa Tavern, outhit 5-2, eeked out a run in the seventh inning to defeat Crescent Lanes 1-0 in Greater Windsor Fastball League action Wednesday.

The Tavernmen thus improved their eastern division record to 4-3 while Crescent fell to 3-6 in the west.

Ottawa 1 Crescent 0

Bert Smith led off the seventh with a double to left, moved to third on Dennis Hannon's sacrifice bunt, watched Todd Sajatovich get a base on balls and then came home on Ken Farano's fly to left. All of which made Neil Blair the winning pitcher for his six innings of work. He allowed five hits, fanned four and walked one. Blair got superb relief help from Art Anderson who retired the side in each of the last three innings.

Jack Stevenson shouldered a tough loss even though he gave up only two hits. Crescent had men thrown out at the plate twice in the early going but never got a runner past first after the third inning.

East Side 4 Kelsey Hayes 0

Garrie Nolan's two-run triple keyed a three-run East Side rally in the seventh to break up a scoreless tie.

Nolan was touched for seven hits but struck out nine and walked only one for the victory.

East Side solved losing pitcher Gunther Kailer for 11 hits with Sheldon Taylor getting three of them.

Jeff Shields accounted for two of Kelsey's hits.

Neilson's 8 Ticket Wicket 3

Rick Weir allowed the Travelmen just three hits while fanning four and walking one.

Neilson's touched loser Rick Bartnik for nine hits, two each by Norm McKinnon, Bill Kaschak and Don Ing who drove in three runs.

Guy keeps Comber on top

Ivan Guy got Comber back on the winning track in a big way in the Greater Windsor Fastball League Friday night.

Guy's two-hitter at Amherstburg led Comber (7-1) to a 5-0 win over Seagram's (6-3) and saved its lead in the east division.

In other games Friday, Ottawa Tavern beat Hadley's 8-3, Ticket Wicket clipped west-division leading Metro Neilson's 9-5 and East Side Antiques blanked BFI 6-0.

Comber 5 Seagram's 0

Guy only struck out one but didn't walk anyone and his mates gave him perfect support in the field. He had a perfect game going before Tom Dunn singled with two out in the eighth.

Gary Roe's sacrifice fly brought in what proved the winning run in the first inning but Comber put it away against loser Ray Holliday with three runs in the fifth, two on Bill Driedger's double who also drove in Comber's final run in the seventh.

Ottawa Tavern 8 Hadley's 3

Ken Farano's two-run triple in the second and Mike Holden's three-run homer in the fourth did most of the damage for Ottawa Tavern.

Art Anderson was the winner over Bob McMillan. Mike Ferencik ripped three singles for the losers.

Ticket Wicket 9 Neilson's 5

Keith Thibert's two-run double keyed a four-run fourth for Ticket Wicket, which added three more in the fifth. Rick Bartnik got the win in relief of Larry Champ. Rick Weir took the loss.

East Side 6 BFI 0

Glen Bondy broke a scoreless tie with a two-run single off loser Bill Winkworth in the top of the fifth. Garrie Nolan relieved a shaky Bill Bolton in the bottom half and went on to preserve the shutout and get the win.

Vic Piccolo made it easier by driving in a run in each of two-run seventh and eighth innings.

Neilson's had the fuse lit, but couldn't get the explosion they wanted in Greater Windsor Fastball League play Monday night.

Trailing Seagram's 6-3 heading into the bottom of the ninth, Neilson's got one run back, had the bases loaded and Rick Weir, who had three hits and two rbi, at the plate.

But winning pitcher Rick Snyder got Weir on a fly to deep right to preserve the victory.

Seagram's is now 7-3, Neilson's 5-5. Mike Purdie and Grant Snary had two hits each for Seagram's. Jim Sabine, the losing pitcher, had two for Neilson's.

Ottawa Tavern 7 BFI 1

Neil Blair gave up five hits through seven innings and then got two innings of one-hit relief from Winky Allen as Ottawa Tavern coasted.

The Tavernmen touched Bill Winkworth for eight hits, three by Al Brian. Frank Strathearn had two for B.F.I.

In boys' 13 and under, Guy Luppino of St. Jules is co-champion along with Ken Steele of St. John.

Umpires salvage contest

Getting this Greater Windsor Fastball League game started was tougher than determining a winner and loser Wednesday night.

Neilson's and East Side Antiques were willing to play on the soggy Windsor Stadium grounds but after the first pitch, plate umpire Jack Battersby ruled the field unplayable. He and base umpire Gerry Chadwick then left the scene but low and behold, two more umpires, Jeff Wilkinson and Mike Ferencik arrived.

Wilkinson and Ferencik were on the prowl after an Essex County Senior game they were scheduled to work had been called off because the field was unplayable.

AFTER MUCH discussion and an hour's delay, Wilkinson and Ferencik agreed to officiate the Neilson's-East Side game and the result was a 5-3 win for Neilson's.

Another Wednesday game between Créscent and Ottawa Tavern at Lanspeary Park was postponed.

Gary Kaschak drove in the winning run in the sixth and an insurance run in the ninth for Neilson's with a sacrifice fly and a triple.

Rick Weir was the winning pitcher, allowing seven hits, fanning five and walking four. Garrie Nolan shouldered the loss.

BFI cashes in ticket

Winning pitcher Jack Westlake and Doug Robbins had three hits apiece Thursday night to lead BFI to a 10-2 victory over Ticket Wicket Travel in Greater Windsor Fastball League action.

Randy Roth and Brian Boyd added two hits apiece for the winners.

Hank Czerwieniec led the losers, who made nine errors, with two hits.

Guy lifts Comber

Ivan Guy pitched a sparkling three-hitter Tuesday evening as Comber posted its ninth victory in 10 starts in the Greater Windsor Fastball League, blanking BFI 8-0 at Comber.

Guy, who struck out three and displayed perfect control, was backed by an 11-hit attack which included a perfect three-for-three by

In another game, Comber improved its eastern division-leading record to 8-1 with an 8-2 victory over Kelsey Hayes.

Hadley's 1 Crescent 0

Kelsey Hayes made six errors to help out the winners, who wiped out a 2-1 deficit with seven runs in the final two innings.

Larry Jansen picked up the win with a five-hitter and nine strikeouts.

Hadley's 12 BFI 2

Bob McMillan allowed just six hits in leading Hadley's out of the eastern division basement with the easy triumph.

Ottawa Tavern 7 Ticket Wicket 3

Given three runs in the third and two more in the fourth to overcome a 2-0 deficit, Art Anderson grasped it firmly to fire a seven-hitter for the victory.

Korpan, Deehan lead Hadley's to victory

Leadoff hitter Roy Deehan scored the winning run on a groundout in the first inning and relief pitcher Randy Korpan got out of a bases-loaded jam in the ninth as Hadley's clung to a 1-0 victory over Seagram's in a Greater Windsor Fastball League game Wednesday night.

In other games, Ticket Wicket Travel edged East Side Antiques 6-5 and BFI beat Neilson's 6-4.

Hadley's 1 Seagram's 0

Starting pitcher Bob McMillan gave up only one hit but departed in favor of Korpan after six innings. The reliever then mowed down the Seagram's hitters, pitching three hitless innings, striking out four and walking three.

He was in trouble in the ninth when the bases got loaded with one out on an error, a fielder's choice on which the runners were safe, and a walk. But Korpan then struck out Tom Dunn and Mike Purdie to end the game.

Deehan had reached base on an error in the first inning, went to second on a fielder's choice, to third on a wild pitch and scored on a close play at the plate when Bob Schroeder grounded to third.

Ray Holliday, who allowed seven hits while striking out 11 and walking one, took the loss.

Ticket Wicket 6 East Side 5

Dave Grondin, Tom Norman, Hank Czerwieniec and Charlie Hotham all had two hits for Ticket Wicket, which ended East Side's eight-inning comeback at two runs, one short.

Sheldon Taylor had two hits for East Side.

Rich Bartnik earned the win on an eight-hitter, while Garrie Nolan allowed 10 hits and took the loss.

BFI 6 Neilson's 4

Randy Roth tripled in the winning run in the bottom of the seventh inning and scored the insurance run on Frank Strathern's single to lift BFI.

Tim Murphy went three-for-four and scored two runs, while Strathern and Wayne Pestru each added two hits. Rick Weir had two hits for Neilson's.

Rick Janisse earned the victory in relief of Jack Westlake who pitched the first 6½ innings, while Jim Sabine took the loss in relief of Rick Weir.

Comber on a roll

Comber continued to make it look easy in its first foray into the Greater Windsor Fastball League Friday night.

With Larry Janzen and Ivan Guy splitting a two-hitter, Comber won its 15th game in 16 outings, 8-1 over BFI at Lanspeary Park.

In another game played at Amherstburg, Seagram's (11-5) continued what seems a futile chase of Comber in the east division with a 6-1 breeze against Ticket Wicket.

Comber 8 BFI 1

Paul Driedger and Bruno Konrad each drove in a run in the second and that was all Janzen and Guy needed. Janzen went five innings, allowing both hits and one run, Guy firing no-hit ball over the last four.

A four-run eighth wrapped it up with Vic Hamm driving in two runs and Driedger another. Bill Winkworth, first of three BFI pitchers, was the loser. Konrad had three hits for the winners.

Seagram's 6 T. Wicket 1

Bruce Taggart scattered eight hits, struck out six and walked three in going the route for the Amherstburg club.

Ticket Wicket had several chances to score more, with runners on second and third and less than two out twice, but Taggart was tough.

Two unearned runs in the fourth made it 3-0 then Seagram's put it away in the eighth with their final three with Jeff Long's two-run homer the big blow.

Tom Dunn had three hits for Seagram's, as did Tom Norman and Tom Holgate for Ticket Wicket. Rick Bartnik was the loser, also going the distance.

East Side bows 5-1, at least they played

East Side Antiques forfeited its Greater Windsor Fastball League game Sunday when it couldn't field a team. And things weren't much better Monday, although at least they lost on the field.

East Side had 13 players out Monday but lost 5-1 to Ottawa Tavern. In other league action, Hadley's downed BFI 3-1.

Ottawa 5 East Side 1

Ottawa Tavern scored all of its runs off losing pitcher Bill Bolton in the first inning with Steve Hoar's two-run homer to left being the key blow.

The Tavernmen used three pitchers over nine innings. Starter Neil Blair left the game in the third with a 5-0 lead having given up two hits, fanning two and walking one but the official scorer awarded the victory to his relief, Roy Allen, who gave up one run on two hits, walked one and was charged with two wild pitches.

Ottawa Tavern outhit East Side 10-5 with Hoar and Bert Smith getting two each.

Rick Bondy had three hits for East Side.

Hadley's 3 BFI 1

Ernie Holden's two-run single in the third put Hadley's on the scoreboard. They got another run in the same inning when losing pitcher Bill Winkworth issued a bases-loaded walk to Bob Schroeder. Winkworth issued four hits in all, walked four and fanned five.

Winning pitcher Bob McMillan allowed six hits, two to Brian Boyd, and struck out nine.

Crescent triumphs

Crescent Lanes Tavern shaded Kelsey Hayes 4-3 Wednesday evening in an error-filled Greater Windsor Fastball League game played at Lanspeary Park.

Only one earned run was scored in the game — by Kelsey Hayes in the seventh inning.

The Crescents capitalized on four KH misplays to tally two runs in the second and sixth innings. Les Johnson was the winning pitcher and Rudy Miller took the loss.

Jerry Brannigan and Joe Parent collected two hits apiece for the Crescents. Jeff Shields matched that output for KH.

Metro tops the .500 clip

Neilson's Metro Catering moved one game above .500 Thursday in the Greater Windsor Fastball League with a 2-1 win against East Side Antiques.

Neilson's, front runners in the west division, is now 9-8 while East Side is 6-12 in the same division.

Neilson's scored both runs in the first inning, helped out by two errors and a wild pitch. Rick Weir was the winning pitcher.

Kelsey ripped by BFI

Jack Westlake gave up just one hit through six innings and rapped out four of his own Friday night as BFI ripped Kelsey Hayes 15-0 in Greater Windsor Fastball League action.

In other games, Ticket Wicket Travel edged Crescent Lanes Tavern 3-2 and Comber improved their eastern division-leading record to 16-2 with a 6-2 victory over second-place Seagram's.

BFI 15 Kelsey Hayes 0

Westlake allowed only a first-inning single before being replaced by Rick Janisse who then tossed three innings of no-hit relief.

At the plate, Westlake had a double and three singles in four trips. Wayne Pestrus also had four hits for the winners with Dave Brooks adding a pair.

BFI held a 4-0 lead after two innings and then broke it wide-open with a seven-run fourth inning, rapping out six of their 21 hits.

Ticket Wicket 3 Crescent Lanes 2

The winners took a 3-0 lead after three innings and then held on after a two-run rally in the bottom of the eighth by Crescent Lanes.

Larry Champ picked up the win on a six-hitter with loser Jack Stevenson giving up just seven.

Dave Grondin and Tom Dimitroff led Ticket Wicket with two hits apiece, John Perry and Shane Ouellette matching that for Crescent.

Comber 6 Seagram's 2

Larry Janzen gave up five hits through eight innings to get the win with George Hope mopping up in the ninth.

Comber broke open a 2-1 game with a three-run sixth inning, the key blow being a two-run triple by Marcel Branquet.

Ken Segedin, Kevin Greenwood, Bruno Konrad and Vic Hamm had two hits apiece for the winners with one of Hamm's being a leadoff homer in the fourth.

Jeff Long had two hits, including a solo homer in the second, to lead Seagram's.

Kelsey win an upset

Kelsey Hayes was out-hit by a 10-3 margin but it still prevailed 3-1 Tuesday in a Greater Windsor Fastball League game against Ticket Wicket Travel.

The win was only Kelsey's third against 14 losses while Ticket Wicket fell to 9-10.

In other league action Comber, 17-2, defeated BFI 6-3. Kelsey Hayes 3 Ticket Wicket 1

Kelsey's got two runs in the bottom of the first off a solo home run by Ken Lowry and a Ticket Wicket error.

Mickey Bashras' single to left scored an insurance run in the fifth.

Gunther Kailer became the winning pitcher, issuing 10 hits, fanning five and walking two.

Larry Champ was the loser even though he gave up only three hits, fanned seven and walked none.

Dave Grondin, Tom Dimitroff, Rob Peressutti and Al Rettig had two hits each for the losers.

Comber 6 BFI 3

The long ball helped Comber to another win with a two-run shot by Ken Segedin and a solo homer by Kevin Greenwood.

Larry Janzen was the winning pitcher, allowing seven hits and walking five. He got some hitless relief from George Hope who fanned five of the 10 batters he faced in the final three frames.

Bill Winkworth was the loser, giving up 10 hits, fanning three and walking six.

Randy Roth and Denis Little had two hits apiece for BFI.

There will be two games on each of Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Competing teams are Riverside novices, Central, Sandwich East, South Windsor and Tecumseh.

Weir slams the door

East Side Antiques struck for three runs in the top of the first Wednesday night but were shut down Neilson's Rick Weir from then on in Greater Windsor Fastball League play.

Neilson's rallied from the three-run deficit to record a 9-4 victory and bump their western division-leading record to 10-4.

Neilson's 9 East Side 4

Weir allowed just four hits and one run during the final eight innings to pick up the victory.

Dan O'Sullivan led the winners with three hits, two apiece going to Gary Kaschak and Don Ing who had a two-run homer in the first inning.

Boris Ropp had three hits for East Side. Hadley's 5 Ottawa Tavern 4

Bob Schroeder doubled home Bob Harper with the winning run in the top of the fifth inning.

Randy Korpan, in relief of starter Bob McMillan, picked up the win by allowing just two hits in six innings of work.

Turtle tourney set

The eighth annual Diamond Turtle Club girls' softball tournament will be held July 31 to Aug. 2.

Twelve teams — nine local along with Merlin, Stoney Point and Chatham — will compete in the tournament at the Turtle Club.

The tourney is for girls between the ages of 13 and 20.

Darkness ends game

Crescent Lanes rallied for four runs in the top of the ninth Thursday night before darkness called a halt to their 6-6 tie with BFI in Greater Windsor Fastball League action.

Trailing 6-2 heading into the ninth inning, Crescent battled back to tie the score on two hits, two walks, an error and a hit batsman.

Randy Roth and Dave Brooks led BFI with three hits apiece, two each going to Jim Bacon and Phil Piquet.

John Perry had two for Crescent.

Bill Winkworth went nine innings for BFI and allowed just six hits. Crescent's Les Johnston allowed eight in six innings and Jack Stevenson allowed three more in three innings.

Duel goes to Korpan

Hadley's Randy Korpan and Seagram's Ray Holliday booked up in a pitchers' duel Friday in a Greater Windsor Fastball League game, which Korpan and his mates finally won 4-3.

In other league action Friday, Comber beat Ticket Wicket 5-2 and East Side Antiques defeated Kelsey Hayes 6-2.

Hadley's 4 Seagram's 3

Korpan was touched for six hits while striking out nine and walking two over nine innings. Holliday fanned 15, walked three and allowed six hits. Roy Dechan's RBI single in the eighth put Hadley's up 4-0, but Seagram's rallied with three runs in the bottom of the inning to make it close.

Ernie Holden hit a two-run homer in the first inning for Hadley's and Bob Schroeder hit a solo shot the same inning.

Comber 5 Ticket Wicket 2

Comber moved to 18-2 on the season with Ticket Wicket falling to 9-11.

Comber cranked out 12 hits off losing pitcher Rick Bartnik, three of them by Vic Hamm. Bartnik kept it close with seven strikeouts.

Winning pitcher Larry Janzen came on for three innings of relief of Ivan Guy. Janzen allowed two hits and fanned three of the 10 batters he faced.

East Side 6 Kelsey Hayes 2

East Side put this one away with three runs in top of the ninth off losing pitcher Andy Miller.

Miller gave up 10 hits in all, walked two and fanned one. Dan Moynahan pitched a strong game for East Side, allowing five hits, fanning four and walking a pair.

Glen Bondy drove in two runs for East Side with teammates Kevin Daniels collecting two hits and Vic Piccolo cracking a solo home run.

Rob Chanko was the only South Windsor player to get two hits.

Riverside 6 Caboto 6

Riverside manager Don Hollerhead protested the game in the sixth inning, claiming Caboto's centrefielder Mike Hickey is an ineligible player.

Both teams enjoyed four-run innings in this nine-inning affair, which when it's completed will count for four points in the standings.

Riverside, which was up 5-1 in the early going, got three hits from Steve Scherer.

Comber falls, 5-3

Two runs in the top of the ninth lifted Ottawa Tavern to a 5-3 upset of Comber in the Greater Windsor Fastball League Tuesday.

In another league game, Crescent beat BFI 6-4.

Comber remains in first place in the east with an 18-3 record while Ottawa sits in fourth at 11-8.

Ottawa 5 Comber 3

Don Richer singled in the go-ahead with Dennis Hannon driving in an insurance run.

Winning pitcher Mike Allen was touched for 11 hits, fanned three and walked a pair.

Reliever George Hope shouldered the loss for his 5½ innings of work in which he gave up five of the Tavernmen's 10 hits, fanned four and walked two.

Richer and Dan Stone had two hits apiece for Ottawa with Steve Hoar cracking a solo home run. Kevin Greenwood and Hope had two hits each for the losers.

Crescent 6 BFI 4

Jack Stevenson tossed a tidy six hitter while his Crescent teammates broke a 4-4 tie with two runs in the late innings. Crescent erased an early 3-0 deficit with a hitless four-run rally in the second inning. BFI starter Jack Westlake walked five straight batters to bring in two, a passed ball brought another across as did a fielder's choice.

BFI's Tim Murphy tied it in the fourth with an rbi single.

Rick Janisse, in relief of Westlake, took the loss. In all Crescent managed only five hits off the pair.

Randy Roth had three of BFI's six hits.

Comber upset again

It was a night for upsets in the Greater Windsor Fastball League Wednesday.

Not only did powerful Comber lose its second in two nights but lowly Kelsey Hayes won a game.

Comber fell to Neilson's 9-3 in the first game of a Windsor Stadium doubleheader in a battle of division leaders. Comber is now 18-4 in the east and Neilson's 11-8 in the west.

In the second game, Kelsey-Hayes blanked Crescent Lanes 3-0 for only its fourth victories in 19 games.

And to top off the evening at Lanspeary Park, BFI registered a mild upset, too, with a 5-4 victory over Seagram's.

Neilson's 9 Comber 3

This was a strange one as Comber held a 12-9 hitting edge but couldn't solve Mark Woolson in the clutch, stranding 13 runners.

Leading 4-3, Neilson's got to loser George Hope for two runs in the seventh then Ron Jewell clinched it with a two-run homer to cap a three-run eighth.

Dan O'Sullivan led the winners with a single, double and triple and drove in two runs.

Kelsey-Hayes 3 Crescent 0

Gunther Kailer pitched a sparkling three-hitter. He walked six but offset those with 11 strikeouts.

Kailer also drove in the winning run with a triple in the fourth as he outdueled loser Les Johnston and Jack Stevenson.

BFI 5 Seagram's 4

Seagram's (12-8) failed to gain on Comber because they couldn't hold a fat lead. Wayne Pestru's two-out run-scoring single in the eighth inning completed a BFI comeback from a 4-0 deficit.

BFI got three runs in the fifth inning, two on Gary Spratt's double, for a 4-4 tie that set the stage for Pestru's heroics. Bill Winkworth was the winner, allowing 10 hits.

Ducharme gives push

Shortstop Leo Ducharme was a one-man wrecking crew Thursday evening as East Side Antiques surprised Hadley's 6-1 at Wilson Park in the only game played in the Greater Windsor Fastball League.

Besides shining in the field, Ducharme collected two singles, a triple and a base-empty home run in five trips to the plate, accounting for one-half of his team's eight hits.

Garrie Nolan was pitched a seven-hitter for the win.

Centrefielder Fred Mommersteeg socked out a two-run home run and a run-scoring single for East Side.

Dane lifts Riverside

Paced by the hitting of Kelly Dane, Riverside won its Riverside Softball Association Novice Girls' Invitational Football Tournament this past weekend.

In her best game, Dane cracked a grand slam and drove in runs.

Riverside finished the five-team round-robin with a perfect 0 record with four different winning pitchers — Liz Penila, Pam Ouellette, Karen Dodson and Tina Savich.

South Windsor finished second at 3-1 and Windsor Cent was third at 2-2.

Second straight

South Windsor's girls fastball team successfully defended its title at the Diamond Turtle Tournament Monday in a two-game final against Windsor East.

South Windsor reached the double-knockout final with a 3-0 record while East fought back through the losers' bracket after an earlier 12-2 loss to South Windsor.

East won the first game Monday, 1-0 to force a sudden-death showdown. Winning pitcher Ellen Fahli gave up six hits and teammate Monica Klingbylke drove in the decisive run in the third inning.

Sherri Johnston was the losing pitcher, but she and Fahli came right back to pitch complete games in the sudden-death game which South Windsor won 3-0 by scoring all three runs in the sixth inning on an RBI single by Sue McCormick, an East error and a well-executed squeeze play bunt by Linda Lesperance.

McCormick had two hits for South Windsor.

Tavern jumps past Seagram's

Ottawa Tavern scored an unearned run in the top half of the ninth inning Friday night to edge Seagram's 7-6 in a Greater Windsor Fastball League game played at Town Park in Amherstburg.

The win lifted Ottawa Tavern (12-8) into sole possession of second place in the league's eastern division, one-half game ahead of Seagram's (12-9) and idle Hadley's (11-8).

In other action, Neilson's-Metro Catering stopped Crescent Lanes Tavern 6-3 at Lanspeary Park.

A scheduled doubleheader at Windsor Stadium was washed out by a cloudburst which swept the South Windsor area.

Ottawa Tavern 7 Seagram's 6

Winkie Allen, who struck out five and walked one, pitched the distance for the OTs but was cuffed for 10 hits, including solo home runs by Jeff Long in the first inning and Rick Stewart in the third.

Dan Stone, Abie Scott and Steve Hoar rapped out two hits apiece off losing pitcher Bryce Taggart. Long, Taggart and Don Dalpee had two hits apiece for the Distillers who led 5-1 after six innings.

Neilson's 6 Crescent Tavern 3

Leftfielder Don Ing socked a two-run home run in the fifth inning to feature the victory.

The losing Crescents outhit Neilson's 9-7 but Jim Sabine emerged as the winning pitcher over Jack Stevenson.

Norm McKinnon banged out two doubles and a single for the winners. Ing went two-for-four. Marcel Piche, Reg Quessel and Jerry Brannagan collected two hits apiece in the losing effort.

Victory no easy task

Both division leaders triumphed Tuesday night in Greater Windsor Fastball League action.

They each had a tough time, though. Neilson's-Metro Catering had to overcome a 5-0 first-inning deficit to edge Crescent Lanes Tavern 9-7 at Wilson Park.

And, at Comber, the home side took an early 2-0 lead and held on for a 2-1 victory over East Side Antiques.

Neilson's 9 Crescent 7

Don Ing's solo home run broke a 6-6 tie in the bottom of a three-run eighth inning and upped Neilson's record to 13-8.

Rick Weir and Ing each had two hits and drove in two runs for the winners (13-8), who moved 3½ games ahead of Ticket Wicket in the west.

Comber 2 East Side 1

Comber is now 19-4 for a 5½-game lead over Ottawa Tavern in the east and East Side Antiques are a mere 8-14.

Larry Janzen threw a two-hitter to gain the win while loser Garrie Nolan probably deserved a better fate as he allowed only five hits.

Vic Hamm tripled in the first inning for Comber and was sent home when a Nolan pitch to Paul Driedger was ruled illegal. Janzen's single and Hamm's double got home what proved the winning run in the third.

Doing it the hard way

AMHERSTBURG — The local junior girls' fastball team took the long way home in winning the fourth annual Al Turner Memorial Tournament over the holiday weekend.

Amherstburg not only survived the loser's bracket but they won three of four games decided by only one run.

Amherstburg, 2-1, defeated unbeaten McGregor, 3-0, by a 16-11 margin Sunday and went on to win 6-5 in a sudden-death showdown.

LISA RICHARDS picked up the win in the final game in relief of Andrea Sokolic. Celeste Bondy drove in the winning run in a three-run fourth-inning rally.

Sherry Triolet was the winner with help from Sokolic in the 16-11 victory. Denise Ruston was the star at the plate with a grand slam homer, a triple and a single.

Seven teams took part in the two-day event.

Brannigan blasting

Brian Brannigan blasted a pair of three-run homers to lead Ottawa Tavern to an 8-3 triumph over BFI Wednesday night in Greater Windsor Fastball League action.

His first staked the Tavernmen to a 4-0 lead in the opening inning and his second make it 7-0 in the third.

After that, the Tavernmen coasted behind the eight-hit pitching of Neal Blair and Winky Allen.

Brannigan, Bert Smith and Ken Farano led the winners at the plate with two hits apiece. Jerry Hay had a solo homer for BFI.

Hadley's 2 Crescent 1

Randy Korpan and Jack Stevenson hooked up in a pitcher's duel with Korpan the victor on a four-bitter.

Stevenson allowed six, with three coming in the sixth inning when Hadley's snapped a 1-1 tie.

Ernie Holden's single, a wild pitch and Bob Schroeder's double produced the deciding run.

Mike Ferencik led Hadley's with two hits. Dave Desjarlais matched that for Crescent.

Ticket Wicket 16 Kelsey Hayes 1

Charlie Hotham and Tom Dimitroff each rapped four hits for the winners in a 19-hit attack against three Kelsey Hayes pitchers.

Tom Holgate, Jon Norman and winning pitcher Rick Bartnik added two hits apiece for Ticket Wicket. Dave Scherer had a solo homer for the winners who took full advantage of seven Kelsey errors.

Mickey Bashura, Ken Lowry and Darcy Leader had two hits each for Kelsey.

East Side beats off challenge for third

It took the most unlikely of rallies, but East Side Antiques Thursday night survived a challenge to their third-place standing in the Greater Windsor Fastball League's west division.

East Side, with Boris Ropp's single the one offensive thrust, scored four times in the eighth for a 5-3 victory over Crescent Lanes Tavern and jumped to a two-game lead over the losers.

In another game played at Amherstburg, Seagram's had little trouble disposing of Kelsey-Hayes 11-5.

East Side 5 Crescent 3

East Side rests at 9-14 behind Ticker Wicket Travel's 10-11. Crescent is 7-16.

East Side's uprising wiped out catcher Dave Desjarlais' three-run homer that had lifted Crescent to a 3-1 margin against Garrie Nolan in the fifth.

Seagram's 11 Kelsey 5

Seagram's (13-9 in the east) overcame a quick Kelsey-Hayes lead with a six-run burst in the bottom of the second and were never threatened thereafter.

Ray Holliday capped the big inning with a two-run homer and later on, Jeff Long hit a two-run blast in the sixth for two of his three rbi in the game.

Long and Frank Federico each rapped out three hits in a 13-hit offensive as Holliday (seven innings) and Rick Snyder combined for the win. Gunther Kailer took the loss.

Casey comes through

Remember Casey? The Mighty Casey...who struck out. Well, he strode to the plate again Monday night with the game on the line and this time he cracked a two-run homer to win it.

That's because this Casey is Serge Casey of Seagram's in the Greater Windsor Fastball League and unlike the mythical slugger of the same name, he didn't let his teammates down.

As a result, Seagram's defeated BFI 6-5.

With BFI in front 5-4, Casey came in to pinch hit for Brad Blackburn with one out and one on in the eighth. Rightfielder Dave Brooks tried to make a shoestring catch of Casey's liner but failed.

Jeff Long had a solo home run in the seventh.

Hadley's 3 Neilson's 2

Hadley's Roy Deehan was the game's first batter and he greeted pitcher Jim Sabine with a home run to left. Hadley's got two more in the fourth on an error, a Mike Ferencik double, a sacrifice fly and a Phil Krauter triple.

Bob McMillaan, with relief from Randy Korpan, earned the victory. McMillan gave up four of Neilson's five hits and fanned 10.

Crescent 10 Ticket Wicket 7

Crescent starter Jack Stevenson got the win with some help from Les Johnson. Larry Champ, who struck out 10, was the loser.

Marcel Piche and Gary Ruzyski paced Crescent's 10-hit offense. Piche drove in two runs off three hits while Ruzyski got two hits.

Comber best of all

The best of the east and the west went head-to-head in the Greater Windsor Fastball League Wednesday and Comber powered it way to a 5-2 victory over Metro Catering-Neilson's on the strength of four home runs.

Comber improved its eastern division record to 22-4 while Neilson's went to 14-10 in the west.

In other league action Hadley's downed Ticket Wicket 8-2 and Kelsey Hayes had to forfeit against East Side when one player left and the team was reduced to an eight-player roster.

Comber 5 Neilson's 2

Mark St. Pierre paced Comber's long ball attack with two clouts over Windsor Stadium's left-field fence. Bill Driedger hit a solo shot to left and J.P. Raymond cleared the right field barrier.

Winning pitcher Larry Janzen doubled home Comber's other run in a three-run second inning. Neilson's starter Jim Sabine, touched for 10 hits, took the loss. Don Ing delivered both Neilson runs in the sixth with a double.

Hadley's 8 Ticket Wicket 2

Bob Harper sparked Hadley's with a pair of hits, a three-run homer and a rbi-triple. Joe Ponic and Brian Hannon added two each to the winner's 10-hit attack.

Randy Korpan won it on a five-hitter. He struck out 10 and walked none. Rick Bartnik took the loss. Teammate Dave Grondin cracked two hits, including a home run.

ALTHOUGH HADLEY'S RESTED light years ahead of their opponents, it was a time for upset in the Windsor Ladies' Fastball League Tuesday night at Stodgell Park. Possibly typical of the action is this lunge back into first base by Riverside Clippers' Debbie Michaud as Hadley's Rosalie Parent watches the ball bounce off the backside of her opponent. Clippers, 5-12 in the circuit's A Division, stunned Hadley's, 12-3, 1-0.

Tavernmen triumph Seagram's wins in 15

Ottawa Tavern scored four runs in the top of the 10th inning and defeated BFI 5-2 in the only Greater Windsor Fastball League game Thursday night.

Ottawa scored the winning runs on RBI singles by Ivan Clark, Tim Quinn, who also scored on a passed ball, and Al Brian to give Neil Blair the victory on an eight-hitter. Bill Winkworth, who allowed 12 hits, took the loss.

BFI rallied for one run in the bottom of the 10th, but Ottawa Tavern shortstop Abie Scott made a fine over-the-shoulder catch of Gary Spratt's popup to end it.

Ken Farano had three hits and Brian two for the winners. Dennis Little had a pair for BFI.

Frank Federico led off the bottom of the 15th inning with a triple and, two intentional walks later, Tom Dunn singled home pinch-runner Bruce Taggart to lift Seagram's to a 7-6 Greater Windsor Fastball League victory Friday over Ottawa Tavern.

The game broke a second-place tie in the East Division as Seagram's improved its record to 16-9 and Ottawa fell to 15-10.

In the only other league game, Crescent Lanes Tavern beat Metro-Neilson's 6-1.

Seagram's 7 Ottawa Tavern 6

The 15th-inning triple was Federico's first hit since the first inning when he scored the first of Seagram's four runs in the frame. It came off losing pitcher Neil Blair who had relieved starter Winky Allen after 11 innings and allowed only one hit in the previous three innings.

Rick Snider, who relieved Ray Holliday in the 15th, retired all three batters he faced to earn the win.

Brian Brannigan and Steve Hoar each had three of Ottawa's 14 hits, while Jeff Long had a two-run homer and Federico and Don Dalpee each had two hits for Seagram's.

Crescent 6 Neilson's 1

John Perry singled home a run and scored another on a wild pitch as Crescent gave Les Johnston a 2-0 lead in the first inning. He took it from there, scattering nine hits effectively.

He only had trouble with Bill Kaschak who was three-for-three, including a solo homer. Perry went on to register three hits to lead the winners at the plate against loser Jim Sabine.

The loss didn't hurt Neilson's (14-11) much in their pennant bid in the west. They still lead second-place Ticket Wicket by 3½ games.

One guy carries the load

Rick Weir pitched and batted Neilson's-Metro Catering to a 4-2 victory over Kelsey Hayes in Greater Windsor Fastball League play Monday night.

Weir tossed a six-hitter, lashed two doubles and drove in three runs as first-place Neilson's climbed to 15-11 in the west division.

In the other game of the doubleheader at Windsor Stadium, Rick Snyder and Bruce Taggart teamed on a five-hitter with nine strikeouts to clip Hadley's 5-2.

Second-place Seagram's, 17-9, moved 1½ games ahead of Ottawa Tavern, 15-10, in the east, with Hadley's, at 13-10, failing to close on the Tavernmen. Comber leads the division at 22-4.

Neilson's 4 Kelsey 2

Weir drove in one run with a double in the first and two more with a double in the sixth to snap a tie.

Don Ing, who was three-for-four, homered in the ninth for the other tally off Andy Miller, who went the route on a nine-hitter.

Ken Lowry had a pair of hits for Kelsey, which had the sacks loaded in the ninth before Weir got Gary Pizzala on a lift to centre for the final out.

Seagram's 5 Hadley's 2

Jeff Long had a solo homer for Seagram's in the fourth for a 2-1 lead and Hadley's never got even again.

Mike Purdie rapped three hits and Brad Blackburn two for the winners, who had eight off Bob McMillan and Randy Korpan.

Snyder, who went seven innings, picked up the victory with two inning of no-hit relief by Taggart.

East Side triumphs

Fred Mommersteeg scored the winning run on Dan Moynahan's sacrifice fly in the third inning and Garrie Nolan checked Ottawa Tavern on only three hits the rest of the way as East Side Antiques earned a 4-3 victory in the only Greater Windsor Fastball League game Tuesday.

Mommersteeg walked to open the bottom of the third, went to second base on Vic Piccolo's sacrifice bunt, stole third and scored on Moyna-han's one-out fly to rightfield. Glen Bondy had provided East Side with its other runs on a bases-loaded triple in the first inning.

Bondy, Mommersteeg and Kevin Daniels each had two of East Side's nine hits off losing pitcher Art Anderson and reliever Neil Blair. Al Brian, who had a solo home run in the first, and Steve Hoar each had two of Ottawa's seven hits and one RBI.

Softball tourney

There are still openings for three teams in a girls' softball tournament set for Amherstburg over the Labor Day weekend. The deadline for entries in this tournament for girls between the ages of 12 and 15 is today. Anyone interested can call Art at 736-8209 or John at 736-5874 for further information.

Ticket Wicket wins

Tom Holgate and Rob Peresutti each had three hits, including back-to-back home runs in the third inning, to lead Ticket Wicket Travel to 9-5 victory over East Side Antiques in a Greater Windsor Fastball League game Thursday night.

The game was the last of the regular season for both teams and lifted Ticket Wicket into second place in the West Division at 12-14, while East Side dropped into third at 11-15.

The winners managed nine hits off losing pitcher Dan Moynahan and reliever Sheldon Taylor. Holgate, needing a triple in his last at-bat to hit for the cycle, flew out deep to right field.

Taylor homered for East Side off Rick Bartnick, who allowed eight hits and struck out six over the distance to earn the victory. Glen Bondy and Leo Ducharme had two hits apiece.

Player suspended

Pete Haughton, an infielder with Peachy's of the Windsor Family Fastball League, has been suspended from play for two years.

The suspension was issued at a league hearing Monday night on an incident in a game Aug. 10 when an umpire was struck.

According to information supplied at the hearing, which Haughton did not attend, the player was called out on a play at second.

After some verbal abuse, the player was ejected from the game and removed from the field. Before play was resumed, Haughton returned to the field to continue the argument.

When plate umpire Don Polkosnik moved in to have the player removed from the park, he was reportedly struck by the player.

Travellers win

Rob Peressutti's two-run homer in the ninth was the difference in Ticket Wicket Travel's comeback 5-3 victory over Hadley's in Greater Windsor Fastball League play at Windsor Stadium Wednesday night.

The victory lifted Ticket Wicket into a tie for second in the west division with East Side Antiques at 11-14. Hadley's, at 13-11, fell a full game behind Ottawa Tavern, third in the east.

In the night's other game, B.F.I. jumped to a 4-0 lead after two innings and coasted to a 5-2 victory over Crescent Lanes Tavern at Lanspeary Park. B.F.I. is now 10-15 in the east, Crescent 9-17 in the west.

TW Travel 5 Hadley's 3

Hadley's had jumped to a 2-0 lead on Bob Harper's first-inning homer and added another in the third on an error following Roy Deehan's second triple, but Gary Champ shut them down on one hit after that in going the route on a six-hitter.

Travel got a pair back on Dave Grondin's sixth-inning homer, tied it on Tom Holgate's rbi double in the ninth after Hadley starter Bob McMillan, who had struck out 10, departed, then won it on Peressutti's blast off Randy Korpan.

Grondin had three hits, Peressutti, Charlie Hotham and Al Rettig two each as Ticket Wicket slammed 11.

B.F.I. 5 Crescent 2

Randy Roth's two-run homer gave B.F.I. an early margin and a couple of walks and an error gave them the lift to two more in the second.

From that point, Bill Winkworth took it on an eight-strikeout five-hitter to outduel Jack Stevenson, who was touched for seven hits.

Roth had two hits for B.F.I., Elzy Banks a pair for Crescent.

Hurlers to forefront

Outstanding pitching was the order of the evening as the Greater Windsor Fastball League's best-of-three quarter-finals got underway Monday night on three fronts.

In west division games, Larry Champ's four-hitter was the highlight in a 1-0 Ticket Wicket victory over Crescent Lanes Tavern.

The other west game saw

Metro Catering-Neilson's trip East Side Antiques 4-2.

Then in the lone east division contest at Amherstburg, Seagram's won another fine mound duel 3-2 in 13 innings over Hadley's.

Ticket Wicket 1 Crescent 0
Dave Grondin tripled and Hank Czerwiec singled him home as the first two Ticket Wicket batters in the game.

After that Champ and loser Jack Stevenson were dominant. Champ fanned seven and walked one while Stevenson allowed only three more hits, striking out six and walking one.

Twice early on Crescent got a runner to third but Champ got out of those situations then allowed only one base-runner through the final six frames. Grondin, who also singled, was the only player with more than one hit.

Metro-Neilson 4 East Side 2
East Side's Garrie Nolan and Jim Sabine were locked in a 1-1 duel until the bottom of the sixth when Rick Weir's two-out double scored Sabine, who had led off with a single, and Don Ing followed with another single to score Weir.

That was enough for Sabine to go on and win a six-hitter, fanning six and walking four. Nolan fanned 10 and walked but one but was touched for eight hits, two each by Norm MacKinnon and Ron Jewell.

Seagram's 3 Hadley's 2
There was only one error in this thriller and it resulted in the winning run scoring with one out in the bottom of the 13th.

Rick Stewart's infield single started it then, after a popup, Jeff Long grounded a single to left. When leftfielder Gary Temesy failed to field it cleanly, Stewart was waved home all the way from first base.

The victory went to Ray Halliday who had relieved Bruce Taggart in the third inning and allowed just five hits thereafter, one of them Roy Deehan's two-run homer in the fifth. Halliday fanned seven and walked one in his 10 1/3 innings.

The loss was a toughie for Randy Korpan who pitched a six-hitter, fanned 11 and didn't walk a man. Prior to the 13th inning, Korpan had retired 21 straight batters.

Grant Snary homered for Seagram's other two runs in the bottom of the fifth after Deehan's blast. Stewart with three hits and Ernie Holden with two, both for the losers, led all hitters.

Kucharski on tear

Kim Kucharski connected for two hits, including a three-run homer, to pace Comber to a 7-0 shutout of Ottawa Tavern in the opening game of their Greater Windsor Fastball League divisional semi-final.

Comber and Ottawa Tavern are fighting a best-of-three series to determine who's top dog in the East.

Ivan Guy tossed a tidy five-hitter with four strike outs and three walks sprinkled in for the win. Starter Winkie Allen took the loss for his four innings of work in which he allowed all seven earned runs and seven of Comber's 11 hits.

Ken Segedin drove in two more runs for Comber in the fifth inning with a bases-loaded single to centre. He collected three hits in all.

Brian Brannagan and Steve Hoar had two hits each for Ottawa Tavern.

New champ for sure

There will be a new champion in the Greater Windsor Fastball League this season, two-time winner Hadley's getting knocked off in the first round of playoffs.

Hadley's gave it a battle, though, before dropping a 5-3 decision to Seagram's of Amherstburg at Windsor Stadium Wednesday night.

The victory gave Seagram's the best-of-three east division semi-final in straight games and a shot at the winner between Comber and Ottawa Tavern in the division final.

Comber leads that set 1-0, with the second game Friday at 8 at the stadium.

In west division semi-finals, Dave Scherer's grand slam homer paced Ticket Wicket Travel to an 11-0 romp over Crescent Lanes Tavern at Lanspeary Park and East Side Antiques held off Metro Catering-Neilson's 3-2 at the stadium.

The results moved Ticket Wicket into the division final with a 2-0 series sweep and sent Metro and East Side to a series deciding game at the stadium, Friday at 6.

Seagram's 5 Hadley's 3

Hadley's led early in their bid to get even with Seagram's, surrendered the edge in the eighth, then sent it to extra innings with a run in the bottom of the ninth on Mike Ferencik's rbi triple.

But, Seagram's put it away in the 10th against reliever Randy Korpan on Don Dalpee's double, a wild pitch, two intentional walks, Randy Langlois' sacrifice fly and Mike Purdie's double.

Jeff Long had two hits and two rbi and Purdie two doubles among Seagram's nine-hit offense against starter Bob McMullan and Korpan, who combined for 14 strikeouts.

Ferencik drilled two of Hadley's four hits off starter Rick Snyder and winner Bruce Taggart, who relieved in the sixth.

Ticket Wicket 11 Crescent 0

Scherer's grand slam came off reliever Jack Stevenson after singles by Hank Czerwieniec and Tom Holgate, a fly out and a walk to Charlie Hotham in the seventh inning and gave Ticket Wicket a 10-0 lead.

Rob Peressutti hit a three-run homer in the fifth inning that knocked out Crescent starter Les Johnson and Holgate added a solo homer in the eighth off Stevenson that finished the scoring.

Czerwieniec had four singles in four at-bats to support the eight-hit shutout pitching of Rick Bartnik, who struck out nine and walked two.

East Side 3 Metro 2

In equalizing the series, East Side took a 3-0 lead in the middle innings and held off a Metro rally that brought them within one on back-to-back doubles by Dan O'Sullivan and Norm MacKinnon in the sixth and Ron Jewell's homer in the top of the ninth.

A walk and doubles by Vic Piccolo and Dan Moynahan gave East Side a 2-0 lead in the fourth and the theft of home by Leo Ducharme, who had singled, on a delayed steal with Shelly Taylor supplied the winner and made a loser of Rick Weir.

Ducharme, Piccolo and Moynahan paced East Side's eight-hit offense with two each. O'Sullivan had three hits and MacKinnon of Metro's nine against Garrie Nolan, who went the route for the win.

Semi-finalists determined

East Side Antiques and Comber have joined Ticket Wicket Travel and Seagram's in the Greater Windsor Baseball League semi-finals.

East Side downed Neilson's-Metro Catering 5-1 in the opener of a Windsor Stadium doubleheader Friday night and Comber edged Ottawa Tavern 4-2 in the second game.

The decisions gave East Side its best-of-three series 2-1 while Comber swept its set 2-0.

East Side now meets Ticket Wicket in the west division final and Comber hooks up with Seagram's for the eastern title.

East Side 5 Neilson's 1
Veteran Garrie Nolan pitched a seven-hitter, struck out six and walked no one in sparking the East Side victory.

Trailing 1-0, East Side scored three in the second on rbi singles by Dan Moynahan and Kevin Daniels and Moynahan's steal of home. Nolan took it from there, allowing only four scattered hits the rest of the way.

Vic Piccolo with three hits and Moynahan with two led an 11-hit attack against loser Jim Sabine. Blaine Strain was a perfect three-for-three for the losers.

Comber 4 Ottawa Tavern 2
Neil Blair's excellent relief pitching went for naught in this one. He relieved Roy Allen in the fourth and allowed only one hit the rest of the way.

Trouble is Ottawa trailed 4-2 at that point and that's the way it ended on some solid Comber pitching by winner Larry Janzen for six frames and reliefer Ivan Guy the last three. They combined on a five-hitter, two by Dan Richer.

Rob Vandecaveye, Gary Roe and Bill Driediger each had two hits for the winners, Vandecaveye driving in the winning run in the second and scoring the clincher in the fourth on Paul Driediger's triple which sent Allen to the Win fastball title

Riverside cleans up

BYRON — Riverside swept through five games undefeated over the weekend to win the Ontario novice girls' fastball grand championship.

Riverside trimmed Pickering 13-6 in the title game.

Earlier in the nine-team, two-game-knockout tournament, Riverside defeated Thornhill 5-2, Kitchener 3-1, Applewood 14-2 and Pickering 17-10.

Karen Dodson, the winning pitcher for Riverside in four of the five games, posted an earned-run average of 0.79 in the tourney and was the recipient of the best-pitcher award.

Teammate Pam Ouellette was not only the leading hitter in the event but also was chosen as the tournament's most valuable player.

Terri Tighe cracked two home runs and Kelly Dame one in the title game. Dodson pitched a three-hitter.

Dame hit a perfect four-for-four, Ouellette and Heather Quick rapped out three hits apiece.

Dodson pitched a pair of four-hitters and a one-hitter for her other pitching victories.

Pam Ponc, Tina Savich, Jennie Giroux and Liz Pentland also shone at the plate for Riverside through the tournament.

East Side gains 'Greater' final

East Side Antiques snapped a 2-2 tie with six runs over the final three innings to capture the Greater Windsor Fastball League western division crown Wednesday night.

The 8-2 victory, over Ticket Wicket Travel in the final game of the best-of-three series, moves the winners into the league final against eastern-division champion Comber.

The two teams exchanged a pair of single runs through the first five innings but then East Side struck for three in the seventh and added three more in the ninth to wrap up the title.

SHELLY TAYLOR and Dan Moynahan led the attack with three hits apiece, Leo Ducharme adding a pair.

Rob Peressutti and Tom Norman led Ticket Wicket with two hits each — one of Peressutti's being a solo homer in the fourth.

Garrie Nolan went the distance for the win, allowing seven hits and striking out six.

Comber sweeps, gains final

Ken Segedin cracked a grand-slam homer Wednesday night as Comber earned a berth in the Greater Windsor Fastball League championship final with a 6-2 triumph over Seagram's.

The victory gave Comber a sweep of the best-of-three eastern division final.

In the western division, Ticket Wicket Travel evened that best-of-three set Wednesday night at 1-1 with a 5-0 decision over East Side Antiques.

Deciding game in that series will be played Wednesday at Windsor Stadium at 6 p.m.

Comber 6 Seagram's 2

Comber wiped out a 2-1 deficit with four runs in the top of the fifth on Segedin's blast to deep centre field.

After the homer, Rick Snider relieved losing pitcher Bruce Taggart and retired 11 men in a row until Kevin Greenwood's second hit of the night in the 9th inning.

Larry Janzen picked up the win on an eight inning nine-hitter with relief help from Ivan Guy.

Greenwood and Seagram's Joe Beneteau were the only batters with two hits.

Ticket Wicket 5 East Side 0

Rich Bartnik tossed a four-hitter and struck out seven for the victory while loser Garrie Nolan allowed just five hits and fanned six.

Walks and errors produced two of Ticket Wicket's first three runs and then Tom Holgate wrapped matters up in the ninth with a two-run homer.

Hank Czerwieniec had a pair of hits for Ticket Wicket with Rick Bondy and Dan Moynahan matching that for East Side.

AT THIS POINT, IT WAS PEACHY for the offence as Danny's Elaine Daniel puts a late tag on as Peachy's Diane Clark scores in a Windsor Women's Fastball League semi-final game Sunday. Danny's went on to win the game 7-6, but Peachy's rebounded to win the second half of their doubleheader 4-1 and take the best-of-three series 2-1. Peachy's now awaits the outcome of the series between Thibodeau Finch and Johnson's to set up the league final. The other semmi-finalists play Wednesday at Gignac Park at 6 p.m. with Thibodeau Finch leading the series 1-0.

YOU BE THE JUDGE! It can't get much closer at first base in the battle between offence and defence than this play in Monday night's Windsor Ladies' Fastball League final at Stodgill Park. We don't know the answer, either, as Women Athletes in Action first baseman Lisa Sajatowich receives throw and Hadley's runner hit base. However, in the game, Hadley's took a 3-1 victory to wrap up the best-of-five league championship series, three games to one.

Guy outduels Nolan to give Comber edge

Comber exploded for all their runs in the seventh inning Monday night to grab the lead in the Greater Windsor Fastball League finals.

Breaking open a brilliant pitching duel, Comber took advantage of shoddy East Side Antiques fielding for four unearned runs en route to a 4-0 victory.

Second game of the best-of-five series, all of which will be played at Windsor Stadium, is scheduled for Wednesday at 7 p.m.

IVANGUY, WHO had a no-hitter going until his mates got those runs, weakened to allow a pair of singles in the eighth but finished up with that two-hitter. He struck out five and walked none.

Victimized by two infield errors starting the bottom of the seventh was Garrie Nolan. After a sacrifice, Bruno Konran singled for one run before Nolan walked two to bring in another tally.

A fielder's choice got the second out at the plate, but Gary Roe delivered a two-run single to put the icing on it. Nolan finished with a seven-hitter, fanning eight and walking just these two.

Comber leadoff batter Vic Hamm, who singled twice, was the only player with more than one hit.

Nearly beaten, Comber rallies past East Side

As it's often said, the last out can be the toughest to get.

Just ask Garrie Nolan.

With his East Side Antiques holding a 1-0 lead over Comber, Nolan had two out and a 3-2 count on Gary Roe in the ninth when disaster struck.

Roe hoisted one over the left field fence to tie it and Comber, the league pennant winner, went on to take a 2-1 victory in 11 innings.

It bumped their margin to 2-0 in the best-of-five Greater Windsor Fastball League final, with the third game Tuesday at 7 p.m. at Windsor Stadium.

Comber picked up the winner in the 11th on Ken Segedin's single to centre after Paul Driedger had singled and moved up on Rob Vandecaveyen's sacrifice.

Singles by Leo Ducharme and Fred Mommersteeg and Dan Moynahan's sacrifice fly in the third got East Side in front, and it appeared good enough to stand up until Roe's swat.

At that, East Side squandered a couple of other good scoring opportunities.

With runners at second and third in the sixth and two out, Comber third baseman Kevin Greenwood picked off Nolan's low liner to stifle one bid.

An inning later, East Side had runners at the corners with one out, but failed to score.

On Boris Ropp's bouncer to first, Rick Bondy missed the plate and was run down by Comber catcher Kim Kucharski. Then Ducharme, who had moved to third on the play retiring Bondy, was wiped out in a rundown after Ropp broke for second and drew a throw.

Into the ninth, Comber's Larry Janzen and Nolan had duelled, the former with a four-hitter and the latter five.

Janzen didn't allow another and struck out nine, but he walked six, hit one and threw four wild pitches. Nolan surrendered nine, struck out 10 and walked two.

Comber had made one earlier bid, in the eighth, when Greenwood singled and advanced on a passed ball and sacrifice. But Ropp collared Vic Hamm's liner at short and Driedger flied to centre.

Every batter in the Comber lineup shared in the hit output, each with one. Ducharme had two of East Side's four.

Comber Greater's greatest Comber exploded for four runs in the sixth inning, including two on Vic Hamm's homer, to defeat East Side Antiques 5-1 Tuesday night and win the Greater Windsor Fastball League championship.

Comber swept the best-of-five series in three straight games.

After Ken Segedin had singled home the first run of the game in the fifth inning, Rob Vandecaveye started Comber's rally against East Side pitcher Gary Nolan with a single to open the bottom of the sixth. Kim Kucharski sacrificed Vandecaveye to second and Kevin Greenwood drove him home with a single. Greenwood was then sacrificed to second by Bruno Konrad, from where he scored the eventual winning run on pitcher Larry Janzen's single. Hamm then belted his two-run homer over the leftfield fence to give Comber a 5-0 lead.

Leo Ducharme scored East Side's lone run on a two-base error in the top of the ninth, but the team could muster no more.

Winning pitcher Janzen allowed only four hits in the game, striking out four and walking two. Loser Nolan allowed 12 Comber hits, struck out five and walked two.

Segedin led Comber with three hits in five at-bats, while Hamm, Vandecaveye, Greenwood and Janzen each had two hits. Fred Mommersteeg went three-for-four for East Side.

Bankers cash in

Doug Smith's pitching and Michael Pierre's hitting Thursday night at Windsor Stadium carried Nova Scotia to the Banker's Fastball League championship.

Nova Scotia clipped Royal 6-3 to take the best-of-five series 3-1.

Smith tossed a six-hitter and Pierre rapped three hits, including a bases-loaded triple in the fourth. He drove in five of the six runs.

Royal's Pierre Letendre also allowed six hits, but several errors resulted in for unearned runs.
