

Central Cities Association for Gifted & Talented Children

Presents:

Envisioning Excellence

The Inaugural Scholarship & Awards Program

Sunday, March 6, 2022
1:00 p.m. to 2:30 p.m.

A Virtual Symposium on Diversifying Gifted/Talented Education

This symposium is for parents and educators of gifted & talented children to explore topics and discuss issues of vital importance to the development of quality identification, educational, and creative opportunities for gifted & talented underserved children in the Central Cities.

Keynote Speaker

“Supporting the Underserved Gifted & Talented”

Dr. Elaine Parker Gills

Professor African American Studies, Antioch University
Consultant: Organizational Development, Equity, Inclusion, and Diversity
Former Director/Founder of W.E.B. Du Bois Academic Institute

Special Guests & Honorees

Visionary Award: Mike McLinn

Lifetime Achievement Award: Stacey Joy

Distinguished Educators Award: Baldwin Hills Pilot & Gifted Elementary School

Distinguished Service Award: Bridgette Myers

Hall of Fame Trailblazers

CCAGTC Summer Enrichment Scholar Awardees

Registration Info: Registration is required by March 3, and your $50.00 registration fee is tax deductible to the extent allowed by law. Symposium access details will be provided upon registration. Please note: no refunds will be offered unless the event is cancelled.

To register, contact: Central Cities Association for Gifted & Talented Children
Phone: 323.750.6559 Email: ccagtc100@gmail.com Web: www.ccagtc.org

CCAGTC is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization.

This Event is Co-Sponsored by:

The Learning Tree Enrichment Center and Roots & Wings Publications