2019 Cavalcade of Customs Cincinnati, OH

This show takes place every January. However, the weekend dates change based on Cincinnati Convention Center scheduling. This was the 50th year for KOI Auto Parts to put on the show, which started as just a car show and KOI anchoring the center of the main floor selling all kinds a parts. About 20 years ago they started to have major vendors put on demonstrations with “how to” instructions. 3M being a major vendor with KOI would do compounding and polishing panels as well as install graphics and paint protection film.

It has since evolved to utilizing all three levels of the convention center with the first floor still being the main focus with cars, trucks, motorcycles, rat rods and KOI as the center anchor. The second level is for training for both the mechanical & body techs along with management programs with a focus on P&L. The third floor is additional vehicles which are off road focused with lots of Ford Broncos & International Scouts that were fully restored.

Throughout the weekend they have celebrity appearances. This year they had: NASCAR Legend - Dale Earnhardt Jr Kindg Design's Show - David Kindg Duke “Bo Duke” - John Schneider WWE Superstar - Kevin Owens Ms Cavalcade 2019. There were also sprint car legends and chop shop demos.

It's a great show for families of all ages plus KOI customers and shops. The best part is it all takes place indoors at a time when Cincinnati weather can be very cold with snow or icy rain. ~~~Bill Swanton

Sometimes things just don't go as planned. One of those times was January 27th. The newsletter was completely finished except for the addition of the photos & write-up from the 50th Annual D-K Show. However, due to the forecast of "100% Chance of Rain", the Sarasota Firefighters Benevolent Fund wisely decided to postpone the event.

The Good News is that it made room to publish other material! Time now to relax.

Board Meeting: 07-Jan-2019

Meeting called to order by President Bob zuHone at 1:20PM at PizzaSRQ, 5674 Palmer Blvd, Sarasota, FL 34232. Board members present were Joan Bowles, Dick Brown, Linda Langenegger, Joe Malaney, Barb Shapiro, Gerry Shapiro, Ed Smith, Mark Spears, & Bob zuHone. Guests present were Frank Bowles, Gene Cohen, Jimmy Mayne, Bob Tone, & Jim Wilson. President zuHone mentioned that the club needed volunteers for the Car Corral at the January 27th Devereaux-Kaiser Car Show. Gene Cohen, Car Corral chairman, said he would contact volunteers for the show. Bob said he would contact show coordinators to get the location of the Car Corral and other pertinent show information.

President zuHone suggested the club host a picnic at the Sarasota Farm Bureau, 7289 Palmer Blvd on Saturday, April 13th. After discussion, Linda Langenegger made a motion, seconded by Joe Malaney that a picnic be held on April 13th at the Farm Bureau. The motion passed.

Other possible future events were discussed including going to the AACA Venice Car Show on March 31st, a tour to Boca Grande to see the Lighthouse & Railroad museum, Solomon's Castle in Ona, Bok Tower, a Collector Car Appreciation Day tour in August, Las Vegas Casino Night, a tour to Casey Key, and an SBCC & Sunshine Region Holiday Dinner/Dance in December.

Jimmy Mayne discussed the 2019 Budget for the Stutter 'n' Sputter. In 2018, Jimmy spent about $2,400 of the $2,500 budget. Although the membership has increased Jimmy again requested a $2,500 budget for 2019. After discussion, Dick Brown made a motion, seconded by Mark Spears that a budget of $2,500 for the Stutter n' Sputter be approved for 2019 with the stipulation that the budget could be revisited if necessary. Motion was adopted.

Barb Shapiro suggested that someone should be appointed to coordinate advertising renewals for the Stutter n' Sputter. The current process is somewhat unwieldy.

Linda Langenegger suggested that the club could get some added income if they could solicit a few paid car shows.

The meeting adjourned at 2:10PM

February President's Message

Hello everyone. I am writing this before the Devereaux-Kaiser show and I hope it was a good day. We spoke about the club picnic on a date that conflicted for many members. The new date will be Sunday March 17th at the Sarasota County Farm Bureau pavilion on Palmer Blvd, East of Big Cat Habitat. This will be a "bring a dish to pass" event. The Board of Directors will discuss what the club can provide. Hopefully this is a better date. We will play some car, not card, games and enjoy conversation.

Member Sal Santoro offered to host a club tour to see his car collection on Saturday February 9th. His cars are in the Whitfield Area and we would arrive there approximately 10AM and leave for lunch at a restaurant that Sal has in mind. More info elsewhere in this publication.

It was good to see so many members at the January meeting. I understand that it was difficult for many people to hear the speakers. Perhaps this issue can be addressed to improve for future functions.

Regards to all,

~~~Bob zuHone

Can you identify the future Club Member in this photo? She was obviously too young to have a car at this time in her life, but she may have been considering a Car Jacking? She can now often be found riding "Shotgun" in a number of different Classics. Answer will be published in next month's Stutter 'n Sputter.
