THE PASTOR'S EPISTLE

"WHEN SORROW COMES"

"Consider it pure joy whenever you face trials of many kinds, because you know that the testing of your faith develops perseverance.

Perseverance must finish its work so that you may be mature and complete, not lacking anything."

James 1:2-4 (NIV)

Sorrow, unfortunately, is a part of the human condition and no matter how well off we may or may not be, at some time or another, grief comes to us all. There are many kinds of sorrow which everyone will probably experience. Events such as the death of a loved one, serious illness, unemployment, family problems or divorce are just a few of the sorrowful situations which commonly occur.

Mr. Dick Innes, a Christian author, has written these following suggestions for coping with sorrow. Perhaps they can help you too, or someone you know.

First, we need the support of friends. The National Academy of Science reports that "the first year after losing a parent or spouse, "men under 75 are especially vulnerable to death from accidents, heart disease, or infectious illness. Women's mortality rates do not appear to increase the first year, mainly because they seek more social support.

Second, we need to deal with our feelings. Grief can be a mixture of emotions which include fear, hurt, loneliness and anger. About the worst thing we can do is to put on a "brave face" and deny these feelings.

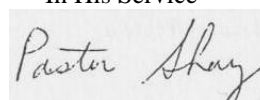

Third, we need to keep involved with life. Life goes on! We must also! Happy is the person who enjoys his work activities at a time of grief. As Dorothy L Sayers believes, "Work is not, primarily a thing one does to live, but the thing one lives to do. It is, or it should be, the full expression of the workers faculties, the thing in which he finds spiritual, mental, and bodily satisfaction.

Fourth, we need to maintain a positive attitude. "Bisogna soffrire per essere grandi." That was apparently the favorite expression of the great Enrico Caruso. It means, "To be great, it is necessary to suffer." Nothing in life can soften the human heart, enrich a person's life, and make him or her more understanding, insightful and compassionate than sorrow and suffering.

Finally, and above all, we need to trust in God. No matter what happens to you, it is important to understand that God knows and cares. He wants you to allow your pain to bring you closer to Him and learn to trust Him regardless of your circumstances. When you do this, you can be certain that God will use your pain to enrich your life and make you "mature and complete, not lacking anything."

All Christians, not only at Jacob's, but throughout the Church Universal must learn to claim as their own the promise of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. "Lo I Will Be With You Always." With our risen Savior by our side, we can in all circumstances have that peace which passes all understanding.

In His Service

Young Adults Group

This group will meet the last Monday of each month beginning at 6:30 PM. The group will meet on Monday, February 22, 2021. We will be doing a DVD series called "Not A Fan," by Kyle Idleman. The synopsis for the series says this:

"Jesus never asked us to sit on the sidelines and cheer for his cause." — Craig Groeschel, senior pastor of LifeChurch.tv Are you a fan or a follower? The dictionary defines a fan as "an enthusiastic admirer." Fans want to be close enough to Jesus to get all the benefits, but not so close that it requires sacrifice. Fans may be fine with repeating a prayer, attending church on the weekend, and slapping a Jesus fish on their bumpers. But is that really the extent of the relationship Jesus wants? Jesus was never interested in having admirers. It's not fans he is looking for. Not a Fan challenges you to consider what it really means to call yourself a Christian. With a direct frankness that you're not likely to hear in Sunday school class, Kyle invites you to take an honest look at your relationship with Jesus. His call to follow may seem radical to us, but Jesus desires it for every believer."

If you are interested in joining us, or want more information, please contact Tad Schlegel at 717-644-1153. For those of you with children, child care will be provided.

If you have any questions, please contact
