† From the Pastor's Study †

You Can't Have...

Leading up and into the Lenten season we are going to investigate the New Testament for some things as Christians we can't have, things we can't have unless we have something else. For instance, have you ever thought that you really can't have love without hate, strength without weakness, or a promotion without a demotion? Sounds crazy doesn't it, but it is true.

The secret is in plain sight all over the Bible, yet it remains hidden to many. There are many reasons why. One of those reasons is because we read the Gospels too much. What!? I can hear people thinking as I write this, "How is it possible to read the Gospels too much?"

Now that I have backed myself into a corner let me see if I can get out of this jam. Think about it...what do we see so often in the Gospels? Jesus showing up in someone's town and healing them. He heals the blind, the lame, the mute, and the deaf. Lepers who have been kicked out of their communities are welcomed back in when Jesus heals their disease. The special part of all that was not just that lepers were healed, but after Jesus healed them, those healed could once again sit down with others in community and have a meal, play a game, laugh over a joke, or pray together, something entirely forbidden to them while they suffered from leprosy.

Jesus' Gospel miracles are so dominant it leaves readers with the impression that our main interactions with Him are to be requests for the spectacular to happen, when what Jesus is really seeking to accomplish in our lives is a complete transformation of our hearts and minds. NB: Jesus need not die on the cross to perform miracles, but He necessarily had to die to open the opportunity for life transformation. This possibility is what gets played out in the rest of the New Testament: the letters of Paul, John, Peter, James, and the rest. In a word they are saying, "Jesus' resurrection has now made it feasible for you to be like Him, now get busy pursuing it."

Of course, transformation from who we once were into the likeness of Jesus is not something we can accomplish on our own. The Holy Spirit is God's agent for life change, and we cannot change apart from the Word (John 17) or the community of faith (Ephesians 4); an act of seeking obedient faith is necessary for the whole thing, but I digress, so now back to my main point: the Bible reader who is too heavily Gospel oriented keeps asking for God to fix something here rather than to be fixed here (i.e. made new). We ask for healings for our cancer, broken limbs, failing eyes, and diabetes, but do we ask for God to deal with our anger, our lack of forgiveness, our depression and anxiety, or are fears? Have you ever prayed, "LORD, heal me of my fears and send me out to share the Good News of Your salvation?" It is exhilarating!

In essence, all this comes about because we generally do not believe we live in two worlds: the old world, which is passing away, and the new world which Jesus is bringing into existence. Peter said, "we are pilgrims/exiles" in this land (1Pet 1:1). Paul said we have been transferred to the kingdom of the Son He loves (Col 1:13), that our true citizenship is in heaven (Phil 3:20), and that we are ambassadors for the Kingdom of God (2Cor 5:20). In other words, once born again we are no longer from here, and therein lies the rub. We keep living like we are from here, so we keep rejecting what God so richly provides.

Is it possible to maintain a friendship with the world and love for God (James 4:4)? Can light have fellowship with darkness (2Cor. 6:14)? John says, "no," (1John 1:6). So, for Lenten season, what we are going to look at together in the New Testament are several things that hold believers back from fully embracing their new position in Christ, things incongruent with our heavenly citizenship, things that need to be jettisoned so we can fully walk in a manner worthy of the calling we have received in Christ. Soli Deo Gloria

- Jared Hermany and Carla Newton raised concern in regard to insufficient funding for the positions of a Praise & Worship pianist as well as Praise and Worship leader. Jared Hermany also questioned the absent of funding for a new sound system in the budget. Dave explained that due to absence of a demonstration by both companies under consideration, a proposal for this expense will need to be determined at a later time and approved by a special congregational meeting.

- Several questions were posed in regard to the new position of Children's Minister currently held by Kaley Fusselman. Kayla explained the current program offered to children grades K-5th grade twice a month for three hours. In addition, she will continue to be VBS director. Oversight of this position is under the direction of the Christian Board of Education. Children's Church will continued to be directed by Jane Wessner.

5. Projected Expenses- Mission Expenses

Two new missions were added for 2025: Hands in Service and Bright Hope Pregnancy Center of Allentown. Questions were raised in regard to the criteria used in the selection process of the ministries current and new. Mike Bailey responded to the questions; Diane Wertman also directed the people to read the Mission Committee Report which states the criteria used and also to be aware that every month we will have a mission moment highlighting each ministry and opportunities for congregational involvement. Several concerns were voiced that the amount of money designated for missions were inadequate. To take into consideration, several ministries were moved to another part of the budget and also the monies collected for love offerings is not reflected under the mission budget line items. The mission committee will continue to move toward increased giving in the future.

◆ Jacob's Church Board Meeting Minutes ◆

December 2, 2024

Present: Pastor Stan Newton, Elders: Dave Zoghby, Mike Follweiler, Youth Minister: Will Dellicker
Deacons: Mike Bailey, Tom Foulk, Kayla Fusselman, Kaitey Sacks, Ed Sawyer, Diane Wertman
Treasurer: Kelly Mease
Visitors: Jill Sabo, Kevin Dellicker, Jen Mease, Ron Belknap

Visitor: Jill Sabo. Jill announced that she will be stepping down from the leadership of Little Lamb's Preschool and the plans to close will be May 2026 unless another person is willing to lead this ministry. The preschool opened in 2006. All new teachers and helpers will also be stepping down. Presently, the plan is not to enroll any new children into the 3year old class for fall of 2025.

Enrollment consists of approximately 12 students in each class. (a 3-year-old class and a 4-year-old class). There is one teacher and one helper for each class.

The Board thanked Jill for starting and running the preschool and that we want to work with her to find a new leader and teacher to keep the program going. Jill will develop a job description and will meet with the elders for their assistance in advertising and selecting the person to lead this ministry.

Visitor: Kevin Dellicker. Kevin presented a teaching on Stewardship, Leadership and Church Doctrine.

Stewardship: Matthew 25:29 Encourages the church to move forward boldly in stewarding resources.

Leadership: Titus 3, 1 Peter 5. Encourages us to evaluate the appearance of having paid employees serving on church board with voting privileges.

Doctrine: Ephesians 4:11-16. Equipping the saints. Theme of family and treating each other like family and growing in every way more like Christ. Looking closely at the meaning of Baptism and Holy Communion and conveying this to congregants as disciples of Christ.

Opening Prayer and Devotion

Pastor Stan's selected devotion was from 1 Samuel 2:11-17. The story of Eli's sons, Hophni and Phinehas, serves as a stark reminder of the devastating consequences when those in positions of spiritual leadership disregard God's commands and prioritize personal gain, teaching us today that even in our own lives, we must diligently guard against complacency and actively nurture our spiritual walk to avoid similar pitfalls.

Treasure's Report

The November Treasurer Report was reviewed and a motion to accept the report was given by Ed Sawyer and 2nd by Mike Bailey. The motion carried.

Total Income for November = $106,295.61

Total Expenses for November = $28,682.04

Net Profit (Loss) for November = $77,613.57

Less: Restricted Income for November = $69,531.68

Add: Restricted Expenses For November = 0.00

*Net Unrestricted Profit/(Loss)for the 11-mo. period 1/1/2024 - 11/30/2024 = $ 51,633.90

**Note: Net unrestricted Profit (Loss) represents the profit (loss) of the General Fund excluding any Unrealized Gains (Losses)*

Church board recognizes that a discussion of Jacob's Church Cash Balances needs to be part of the Budget Meeting as well as the Annual Congregational meeting for next year. This should also include JMS

Investments: Hermany Memorial Fund, Lintz Memorial Fund, and Wormkessel Endowment Fund.

Also, to take a closer look at total ministry percent disbursements to include all outreach ministries( not only missions or charitable contributions) but also including VBS, Children's Church, Stephen's Ministers, Love Offerings etc. to help evaluate our churches financial stewardship of all incomes and investments.

◆ Choir Corner by Melinda Kelly ◆

During Lent, the choir will be presenting an anthem entitled, “Behold the Love, The Grace of God. The text was written by Barton Warren Stone (December 24, 1772 – November 9, 1844). He was an American evangelist during the early 19th-century in the United States. In this setting, his words are paired with an American folk and gospel hymn tune, “The Wayfaring Stranger” written about 1858.

The text expresses God’s love and grace:

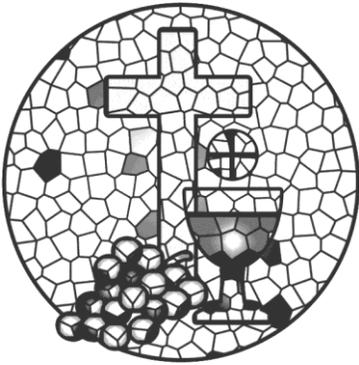

Behold the love, the grace of God, displayed in Jesus’ precious blood. My soul’s on fire, it yearns to prove the fullness of redeeming love. Our God is love, O leap my soul! Let alleluias freely roll! Love gave a Son to save our race, and Jesus died through Sovereign grace.

If you are considering singing with the choir, you might want to try singing with us during the Lenten and Easter seasons in March and April. During rehearsals, we work on how to sing correctly with vocal, physical and breathing exercises. Please let me know and I will prepare a folder of music for you. We would be happy to welcome you into the choir family!

May God bless you and keep you in His Grace!

◆ Jacob's Church Little Lambs Preschool ◆

We have begun our winter fun lessons this month! We love all the beautiful glitter snowy crafts allow us to use this time of year!!! We will spend these cold winter months cozy in our classroom reading books, playing games, singing songs and growing closer to Christ through our Bible lessons. It may be cold outside but our hearts are so full and warm.

Thursday, February 13th
Valentine's Party

Dear Jacob's Church Family,

After much prayer and reflection, we have decided it is time for the current core teaching staff of Little Lambs Preschool (Jill Sabo, Mandy Conti, Dorenda Bogert and Karin Bowman) to announce our retirement in May of 2026.

We have been blessed beyond measure being part of the Little Lambs Preschool Ministry. So many of you were here with us from Day One ~ almost twenty years ago when the idea of starting the preschool was proposed!

Since that day the Jacob's Church Family, members, board, elders, Pastor Shay and Pastor Stan have been the biggest and best support system we ever could have dreamed of. We know our ministry has been in your prayers all these years and we are so very grateful for that.

We have done our best to serve the Lord every day ~ "feeding His Lambs," ~ building a strong Christian foundation for our students as they began their life of walking with Jesus. Our first group of students will be graduating from college this year! Which is just incredible!

Each and every student from that first day to today will forever be cherished in our hearts. We are eternally grateful for the opportunity that was given to us as we were called to this ministry and we will be forever blessed.

We will be finishing our teaching career next school year. We are currently opening enrollment for the three-year-old class and conducting interviews to fill the new three-year-old teacher position!! If you know of anyone who would be interested in interviewing as a three-year-old teacher or aide (starting in September 2025) or PreK teacher or aide (for September 2026, shadowing in 2025) please have them reach out to us and we would love to talk to them!

They would not be sorry ~ this amazing ministry is so very special to be part of! Contact: Jill Sabo ~ jsabo615@gmail.com or David Zoghby (610.597.4369)
With Sincerest Gratitude ~ In Him, Jill, Mandy, Dorenda, Karin

2024 Panama final report

As the hours wind down on 2024, I wanted to look back and give thanks to our gracious God who allows me to be a part of His ministry here in Panama.

I know many people are trying to push 2024 out the door for a fresh new start in 2025, but that is not my plan. This year was a very good one, again. God continues to bless the ministry in many ways, as well as curing a health issue that could have turned out badly if not addressed on time. Thankfully, I am very healthy for a man my age.

We did not add any new churches in 2024, but that is a good thing as keeping up with 6 congregations is a chore in itself.

We did start off 2024 with a 12-hour all-night church service that included some people giving their life to Christ. Amen. We heard a touching testimony of a man in a wheelchair that now has become a 'soldier of Christ'. Between church services, food deliveries, movie nights, kids activities and Hikes for Christ, we kept the ball rolling in bringing the gospel to the people in many different ways.

January 2024 is when 11-year-old Eysbel had her operation to repair her esophagus so she could eat by mouth for the first time in 7 years. The operation was a success and she is doing excellent. We went out to eat last week and she continues to put the food away, making up for the 7 years of liquids only. I am so proud of that little girl.

A legally blind pastor came to me for help, and help he got. He can now read his bible without eyeglasses. Praise God. Unfortunately, for him, his wife just passed away after battling with cancer.

I officiated another wedding, this time another blind pastor that I know finally tied the knot. It's a big deal here because the Indians almost never marry.

Support wise, it has been a very good year. God continues to raise up good people to support His mission to reach all the world with the Gospel. More churches want to get involved after seeing the progress here.

We were able to help kids with their education, some with health issues, some with solar panel installations, some with water systems, some with wheelchairs, food and clothing. We gave out a ton of bibles again.

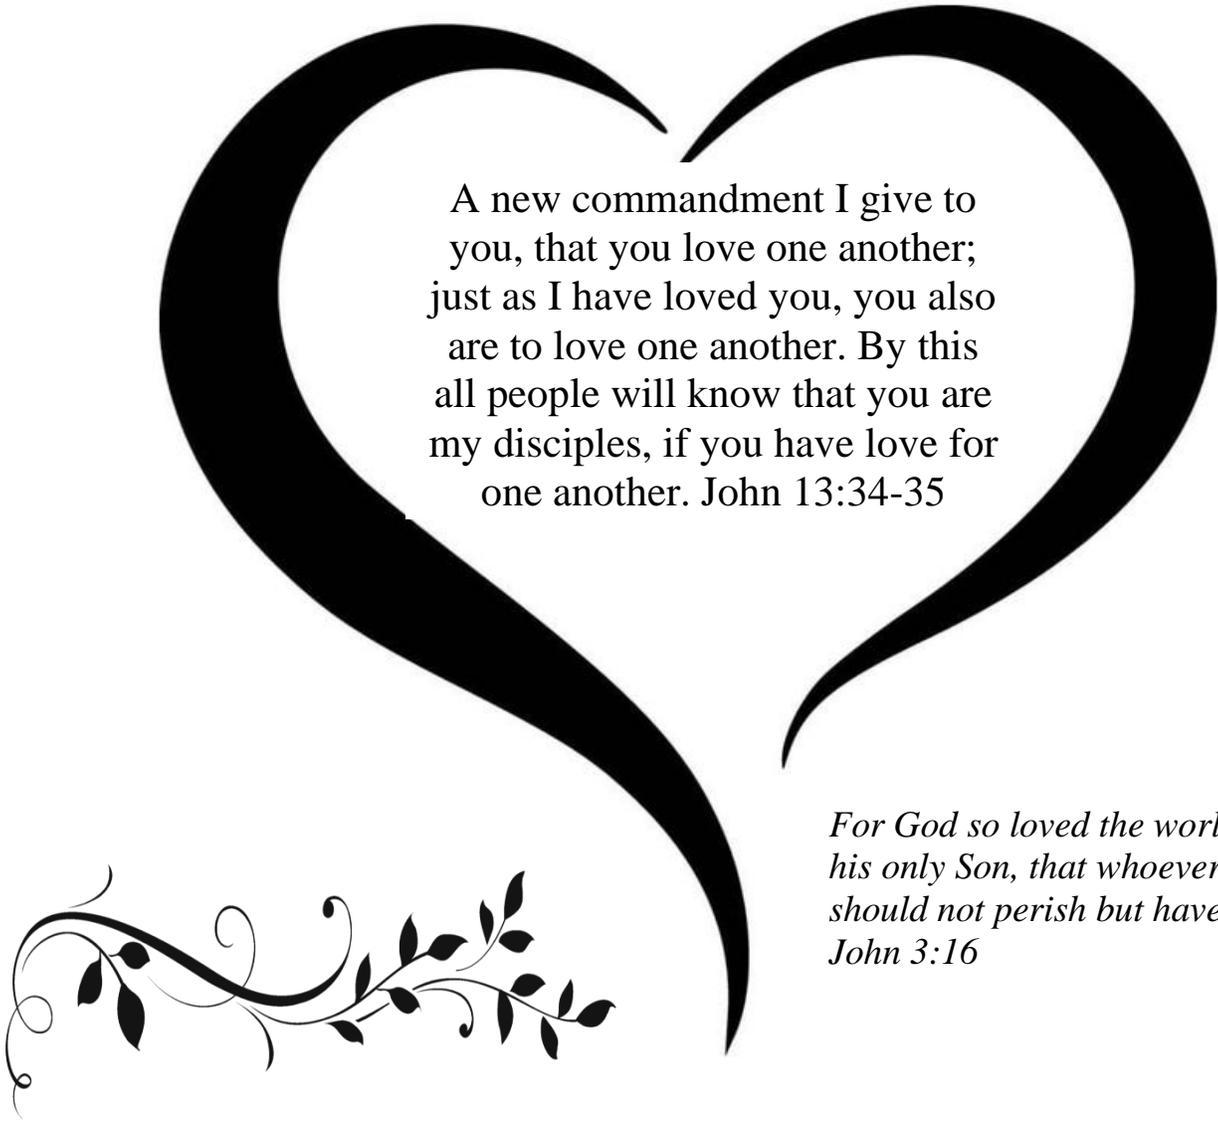

Right now I am helping a widow of 8 children, from my church, with their basic needs, including food, beds and mattresses. They are all sleeping on the floor. Mom is about to have her 8th child. Her husband died about a month ago.

2025 will bring the return of visitors from the USA. Two friends will come down in January to help teach English classes as well as helping with the ministry. We haven't had any mission teams since before Covid.

I have much to be thankful for and so many friends to be thankful for, but I can't possibly mention them all here. You know who you are. God has put you in my path for a reason. Keep up the good and Godly work.

For 2025, pray for my 'Timothy'. It has been difficult to find someone willing to take my place when I am not here. God has a plan, He just hasn't told me yet.

Have a very Happy New Year and continue to pray and read your bible. Remember that ...'with God, all things are possible'.
Joyfully Serving Him, Bobby Mo

A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another; just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another. By this all people will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another. John 13:34-35

*For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life.
John 3:16*

BARNABAS BENEFIT

CONNECTING CARING HEARTS WITH NEEDS WORLDWIDE

January 1, 2025    New Years 2025 blessings to you our friends!

I am so thankful for all your prayers and gifts to Barnabas Benefit in 2024. I look forward to doing an even better job bringing hope to the poor and hopeless in increasing numbers of villages in 2025. I appreciate many of you who have been with me since my first visit in 2008 and all who have newly partnered in 2024.

I just had the privilege of connecting with 22 individual refugee orphans one by one as they braved the cold around an outside fire in the ravaged state Manipur, India. As the mobile phone was passed from child to child, they each gave their names and ages and thanks for the clean water, solar panel for lights to study, and especially the warm blankets you provided. I wish you could have looked into each of their eyes and heard their voices. I have to admit I needed to wipe my eyes during the conversation. I spent two weeks in an area like that in January a few years ago and know there is no heat there in the houses and shelters that pass for houses.(or even the few cars). Their joy warmed my heart and I am sorry that you couldn't experience it with me since your gifts and prayers made it possible.

We have provided vast amounts of varying of qualities and quantities of blankets throughout India and Nepal through numerus disasters this winter. This ranged from a brother and sister passing out 60 affordable blankets to homeless children in the slum areas to 50 high quality blankets to the widows and elderly with little body fat and poor circulation. They live high in the Himalayan Mountains of Nepal and other areas.

Countless wells have been drilled in 2024 and we are continuing at an increasing pace and that has reduced our cost dramatically. (I am sure we are one of our long-time drilling partners best customers and we no longer have to negotiate for prices not normally available). Most wells are now funded by at least 25% locally. We experimented and funded a request for equipment such as pipes and pumps to facilitate a group of young men to go from village to village in the tea garden areas of Assam drilling as they went. (with the help and partial funding of villagers) They drilled an amazing number of wells and connected with so many elders and villagers that we are doing it again in a different district.

Christmas is a very special occasion in India and we joined in providing a celebration and gift boxes of food, warm socks, etc. for the impoverished people of all faiths and backgrounds. For many, it is the first gift of love they have personally received and it has a huge impact. We also provided small amounts so leader's children could have a crayon box or even a new dress.

Many of our leaders have experienced more personal setbacks this year than in the past. We have stood by, encouraged, and provided for their varied unexpected needs, (M\medical, jail, robbery, etc.) We do not pay any of them; we just support their projects and occasional personal needs. They are deeply committed and sacrifice much. (Several have Masters degrees and even Doctorates and could be well off if they so choose) We are working with them to achieve self-support and teach others to do so as well. The possibility exists that changes in government policies could stop our support from reaching them to fund their causes. Most of them have mentored disciples and their effects are multiplying exponentially.

Our microloans for small businesses are doing well and are in high demand especially with single mothers trying to support their children. As I mentioned, our first male sewing/embroidery school graduate now has his own machine and doing well with patterns for male clothing. We hope to do more teaching on Biblical financial principles for these folks.

We are working to equip and, in many cases, re-equip & try to repair projectors for our Jesus Film outreaches for villages where the elders welcome them. We recently purchased 3000 Telugu language Book of John booklets for those interested in knowing more about Jesus without violating increasing “anti- conversion” laws and sentiment.

We will continue to seek expert guidance and purchase proper bikes when appropriate since many of the new generations of leaders walk long distances.

We are committed to encouraging our leaders to get to know, pray, and share together in 2025. We are working on the logistics to make sure this is technically possible. We have been blessed to team up with folks who are experienced in doing this as well as team building expertise as well. They have been supporting Natalie and me administratively and in many other ways during our personal challenges. We look forward to working as a team with them. We also appreciate many of you who offer valuable professional and personal expertise, insights, and encouragement.

Thank you again for “being you” and sharing with us so we can share with others who deal with hands-on day-to-day needs and opportunities. Together, with prayer, wisdom, and compassionate funding we can bring more hope than ever before in 2025. Many exciting developments soon.

Your friends, John, Natalie, and team

*We love because he first loved us.
1 John 4:19*

◆ Thank You! ◆

*Praise the Lord! Oh, give thanks to the Lord, for He is good!
For His mercy endures forever. Psalm 106:1*

Dear Jacob's Church,
Thank you for the thoughtful Christmas gifts.
We appreciated them and your kindness very much.
It's so nice to belong to a caring church family.
Wishing you all many blessings in this new year and the wonders of His love every day.
Dave and Dee Stepan

Dear Jacob's Church,
Thank you so much for your gift of 750.00.
Your generous donation helps us feed, shelter and provide programs to help end homelessness.
We are so grateful for your support.
With sincere gratitude, Lori Novak, Development Manager

*Dear Jacob's Church Family,
Dave and I are so grateful for your special year-end gift. We are so grateful for your partnership and prayers in ministry. We love the work God has called us to in the city and we rely on folks like you to lift us up. We look forward to coming to visit in February!
With gratitude, Katie and Dave Brindley*

*See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are. The reason why the world does not know us is that it did not know him
I John 3:1*

*A special shout out to Joel and Betty (Fields) Matthias to include us in their Christmas greeting each year. It is always a delight to hear from our friends in Covington, LA.
FYI... Joel was confirmed by Rev. Rahn on 3 Oct. 1965. Joel and Betty were married at Jacob's Church on 19 Aug. 1981 union officiated by Rev. Potteiger*
