

Practical Disciplines for Developing Depth in Christ

Paul writes in Ephesians 4:15-19 “rather, speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ, from whom the whole body, joined and held together by every joint with which it is equipped, when each part is working properly, makes the body grow so that it builds itself up in love.”

The focus of this study is to examine different practical/applied spiritual disciplines derived from the truth of God’s Word for the purpose of “growing up in every way into Christ.”

Topics:

- We are His Sheep (Psalm 100:3): Practicing the art of being a sheep – listening and following
- He is the Potter we are the clay (Isaiah 64:8): Practicing the art of living as the clay – allowing shaping
- Let your yes be yes and your no be no (Matthew 5:37): Practicing answering without explanation - authenticity
- Letting your light shine before men (Matthew 5:16): Practicing the art of shining a truth light – appropriate expression
- Forgive one another (Ephesians 4:32): Practicing the art of forgiveness – appropriating freedom
- Come to me and I will give you rest (Matthew 11:28-30): Practicing the art of rest and balance – self-care
- Choose this day who you will serve (Joshua 24:14-15): Practicing the art of commitment – living surrendered
- You need to persevere (Hebrews 10:36): Practicing the art of perseverance – cultivating stamina
- Praying without ceasing (1 Thessalonians 5:16-18): Practicing living in an attitude of prayer – cultivating dialogue
