FAQ

HOW DO YOU MANAGE TO KEEP THE COST LOW WITHOUT SACRIFICING QUALITY?

Alev Cosmetics recognizes and understands that inflation and price hikes on consumer products have impacted all of you. By managing a lean operation, Alev Cosmetics will continue to closely monitor costs, while still using high quality, certified organic ingredients. You can shop our site with confidence without spending more.

ARE YOUR PERSONAL CARE PRODUCTS SAFE TO USE?

Since we use so many personal care products routinely, we want them to be good for our bodies. This is especially true for autoimmune patients. Many of us have chemical sensitivities or suffer flares triggered by chemicals that others might tolerate. If you are not investigating the ingredients in the products you use regularly, they may be harming your body slowly but surely.

At Alev Cosmetics, we select only high quality organic ingredients and formulate them carefully to help keep you healthy and looking beautiful. We never add any chemicals, dyes, or synthetic fragrances that can be harmful to you. We, ourselves, use the products we sell.

MEET THE EDITOR

Always seeking to live more organically and more in tune with our environment, I was honored when Alev asked me to serve as the editor of the Alev Cosmetics newsletter Organic-Life. The message of Alev Cosmetics is so timely considering the challenges currently facing our world.

I would like to extend a heartfelt thanks to Alev for using her special skills to create such a wonderful product line. As Alev shared on the Alev Cosmetics website, she developed these personal care products in response to her own very dry skin. I am thankful that, by producing creams and cosmetics that help her, she has, in turn, helped all of us seeking to care for their skin and hair with organic, plant-based products.

In future issues of the Organic-Life newsletter, Alev Cosmetics will continue to focus on products, topics and tips that help you, our readers, share the spirit of Alev Cosmetics. Thank you for walking with us on this journey to become more ecologically aware.

Please feel free to contact Alev Cosmetics at any time to share your stories, ask your questions, or offer your suggestions for living organically.

Peace. Love. Light. Joy.

Merry
