

Best Case Scenario

Best case gonna blow your mind when your focus gets flipped from dirt to blue sky

Give me that best case scenario
I wanna hear it full blast in stereo
I wanna see my glass start to overflow
With that best case scenario
& I just won't quit, I just won't quit oh no

Give me that best case scenario
Where the rights out do the wrongs Where love has come to conquer all
with that best case scenario
Cause I need that lift, I need that lift oh yah

Show me, teach me. I got the power to create Through my mind I'll find a way Remind me, Teach me, I got the power here to choose See my future in the groove
I am blessed, I am here, no time to fear - no time for fear

I got the best case scenario flowing through my mind yah the clock says I'm late but I can travel through time Cause I'm here define, here to remind, that ever little thought is here to design.
Your destiny who you choose to be a king in the sky or a bum on the street It's not up to me yah it's only you win or lose when you choose create your own truth good vibing - aligning a shift that lets the bright light in what you say you create so think twice before you let your mind stray

Best case thinking gonna make change positive thoughts come to rearrange how I'm feeling what I'm doing this BCS has come to start proven me wrong with all my doubts mind over matter and how to get out from under these negative thoughts old beliefs that walk the walk I am blessed I am here no time for fear Best case gonna blow your mind when your focus gets flipped from dirt to blue sky
