Opener/Emcee.....

Nicholas Cuvar is a stand-up comedian based out of St. Louis MO. He earned 2nd place in the 'STL Funniest Person' contest, can be heard on SiriusXM, and can be seen on the television series "Comic Invasion!" or performing in comedy clubs across the country.

Headliner.....

JC Sibala's comedic style has been described as straight-forward, no filter, with a dash of sincerity. He shares his experiences growing up ethnically ambiguous in Midwest suburbia, being a bachelor in the world of parenthood, and transitioning to life as a husband to an attorney. Coming from a diverse background, at an early age he developed the ability to fit in by standing out. His funny, onstage charisma allows him to connect with a variety of audiences.

- Performed in clubs and festivals across the country
- 4x World Series of Comedy Main Event qualifier
- Sirius XM

Headliner.....

Kevin Patterson hailing from St. Louis, Kevin Patterson is a rising star in the comedy world. Deciding that it would be easier to get on stage and make people laugh than get a real job, he has been honing his craft all across the Midwest since starting comedy. With a guy next-door quality, Kevin is the friend everyone wants to have and he exudes that in his comedy. He is able to share his life with you with a bit of self-deprecation and realism that we all can relate to. You can be sure to have an entertaining time listening as he shares his views on life and everything around it.
