

Your Love Kept Calling My Name

Shaun LaBelle

featuring Maysa & Stokley

also featuring

Jeff Lorber | Patrick Lamb | Maurizio Metalli

Back in 2015, Maysa released her hit single 'Keep it Movin' featuring Stokley which left their romance up in the air! Fast forward to 2024, it's now the perfect time to rekindle their passion with a follow-up hit, Shaun LaBelle's new single - 'Your Love Kept Calling My Name'.

This sexy soulful jazz ballad also features music giants - Shaun's close friends, Jeff Lorber, Patrick Lamb and Maurizio Metalli. Once again, this ballad is anchored by Shaun LaBelle's soulful yet funky synthesizer bass and bass guitar chops that make the melodic hook lines and groove undeniable, which will leave you wanting more!

This captivating single has been the catalyst for a remarkable collaboration between Shaun LaBelle and Maysa. They are now embarking on a series of exclusive concerts such as a very special concert on Jan 10th and 11th 2025 titled 'Jazz at the Oxford: Shaun LaBelle feat. Maysa & Stokley, Jazz at the Oxford Hotel, Bend Oregon. This series is especially curated by Patrick Lamb where only five acts are selected, each year; Shaun LaBelle's act is one of them! The fusion of their talents promises an unforgettable evening.

Besides that, on May 25, 2024, Shaun LaBelle is going to be featured as part of Patrick Lamb's Super Band at the Spaghetтини restaurant, Seal Beach California.

Watch out for more concert dates to be added, soon!
