Southern Showmanship Classic:

Southern Showmanship Classic is a 3 week program ending with a Showmanship show held at Cottonwood Farm located in Vanceboro for ages 8-18. Participants will be partnered and sharing a horse while learning showmanship. There will also be lessons along with a record book that each participant is responsible for completing and turning in on the last practice before the show. Practices will be held twice a week on Tuesday and Saturday evenings from 6pm-7:30pm and the Showmanship show will be held August 31st.

For more information or questions please contact Katie Carter Area Livestock Agent at (252) 876-5606 or Craven County Cooperative Extension office at (252) 633-1477.
