
We wanna help you party
like it's 1969 !!!

Psychedelic Summer

Psychedelic Summer

The cosmic tribal gathering

We recreate the vibe and music that epitomized the late 1960s - mid 1970s music scene, from Janis Joplin, Jefferson Airplane, Sly and the Family Stone and Buffalo Springfield to Beatles, Doors, CSNY, Creedence and Steppenwolf we leave NO stone unturned - we even DO STONES, TOO!

Fully professional attitude, delivery, appearance and instrumentation at each and every performance. Sparkling vocals, tasteful musicianship, always danceable grooves - and never-ending family-friendly fun!

Experience all that is PSYCHEDELIC SUMMER at YOUR next special event, corporate engagement or casino.

CURRENT SONGLIST (ALWAYS EVOLVING)

All Right Now
Love Her Madly
Born on the Bayou/Suzy Q/Fortunate Son
Venus
Story in Your Eyes
Ride My Seesaw
Somebody to Love
Magic Carpet Ride
Thank U For Lettin Me Be Mice Elf Agin
Woodstock
Piece of My Heart
Born to Be Wild
Radar Love
Pushing Too Hard/Got A Line On You
For What Its Worth
She's Not There / Day Tripper
Mama Told Me Not To Come
In A Gadda Da Vida

Break On Through
I Just Wanna Celebrate
Bobby McGee
Aquarius - Let the Sunshine In Good Lovin
These Boots are Made for Walkin
Everybody Get Together
Sunshine of Your Love/Hello I Love You
White Rabbit
I Just Wanna Make Love to You
Hold On Im Coming
Gimme Shelter
Love Me Two Times
I Wanna Take You Higher
I'm A Man
California Dreamin'
Eight Miles High

PSYCHEDELIC SUMMER

Colette Lovejoy (lead vocals) delivers a song breathing in her own feel, using her pure power-house vocals to wow the crowd. Her list of credits include gigging as a backup singer with many legendary singers, and she has performed at House of Blues locations across the US over a dozen times. She's shared the stage with Jay Leno, Hootie and The Blowfish, the Go-Gos, David Paich (Toto), Gary Richrath (REO Speedwagon) and many others.

Jerry Breiner (guitar and vocals) is a Midwest native, though he has called California home since 1980 and has been a mainstay of the local Ventura, Los Angeles and Santa Barbara club and concert scenes since. Performing professionally since the age of 9, Jerry is a multi-instrumentalist and he has shared the stage with luminaries such as Al Stewart, Karla Bonoff, David Paich (Toto), Emmylou Harris, Chris Hillman, Jonathan Clark (Dwight Yoakam) and many more.

PSYCHEDELIC SUMMER

Paul Sinacore | vocals/drums

Paul has been banging on things for most of his life, eventually discovering that people would actually pay him to do it. Somewhere along the way came record deals, recording studios, questionable fashion choices, and enough rock ’n’ roll stories to make a decent documentary.

A veteran of the rock, blues, and country scenes, Paul has played just about everything with a backbeat and a pulse. His philosophy is simple: find the pocket, keep the groove, and remember that almost everything sounds better with a little more cowbell.

PSYCHEDELIC SUMMER

Chris Longo (bass, vocals) In 1976 he received a call to audition as the bass player for Bo Donaldson & The Heywoods, renowned for their 1974 #1 hit record “Billy Don’t Be A Hero” and their follow-up hit “Who Do You Think You Are.” He was selected from among 100 other bass players competing for the position. Chris toured the U.S. performing in concerts and TV shows such as Dick Clark’s New Year’s Rockin Eve with Bachman Turner Overdrive before deciding to return to L.A.

Jere Mendelsohn was born and raised in New Jersey and New York and is a graduate of Musicians Institute. He's a veteran guitarist of countless gigs and sessions in New York, Chicago, LA, and overseas. An acknowledged guitar slinger and first-call player among LA's rock, country, and roots-rock players, Jere has toured with his own band, performing original music from his own three albums, and shared the stage with a diverse group of well-known acts, including The Monkees, blues great Luther Allison, bluegrass icon Vassar Clements and all three of his Hellecaster heroes: John Jorgensen, Jerry Donahue, and Will Ray.

