

Dr. Stuart Weiss

Chairman, Medical Commission

Dr. Weiss is an international expert in medical planning for endurance sporting events and special events. He is the medical director for NYC Marathon, NYC Triathlon, Ironman National Championships, Tough Mudder events, World Police Fire Games of NY, David Blaine Electrify spectacular, NYC Half Marathon, Brooklyn Half Marathon, New York Road Runners, and others. Dr. Weiss is the CEO of MedPrep Group and Vice President of the International Institute of Race Medicine, director of Continuity of Operations for New York Road Runners and the NYC Marathon.

Dr. Weiss frequently presents at conferences on endurance events, disaster medicine and business continuity. He is also an event medical specialist on the ASTM International Strands working group for land based obstacle.

Specialties: Board Certified in Emergency Medicine and Pediatrics
Certified Business Continuity Professional (CBCP)