

Mr. Bob Babbitt

Chairman, Para-Athlete Commission

Bob Babbitt has been on the cutting edge of endurance and multi-sport since competing in his first triathlon in the late 1970's. He did his first Ironman in 1980 and co-founded Competitor Magazine and the Challenged Athletes Foundation. Bob continued to innovate when he created the Muddy Buddy Obstacle Racing series in 1999.

Bob is a member of both the Ironman Hall of Fame and the USA Triathlon Hall of Fame and continues to support and guide athletes competing in para-triathlon and related sports through his work at CAF and Babbittville Radio.
