

Mr. Corsin Derungs

Chairman, Governance Commission

Corsin Derungs is a team head in the legal department of Bank Julius Baer. He holds a Master degree in law from the university in Freiburg i.Ue., Switzerland, and passed the bar exam in the Canton of Zurich. Before joining Bank Julius Baer, Corsin worked for Deloitte in the Regulatory, Compliance and Legal department focusing on regulatory developments, primarily related to asset management topics.

He also worked for Credit Suisse in the legal department, supporting particularly the trading floor and the custody network management. Furthermore, Corsin worked on the trading floor at the structured products desk. As preparation for the bar exam, Corsin worked in a law firm in Zurich. He is specialized in investment funds, private equity and hedge funds, investment management, advisory services, wealth planning, marketing and research. Corsin is author of numerous books and articles focusing on investment funds and anti-money laundering.

In his entire life, Corsin has always been addicted to sports in different areas. In the last years, he became passionate about obstacle sports and participated in numerous races in Switzerland and abroad. Corsin is the vice-president of the Swiss Spartans association as well as the vice-president of the Swiss Obstacle Sports Federation. He is a Swiss citizen and lives in Switzerland.