1. INTRODUCTION:

1.1. Purpose

- 1.1.1. World OCR, the Fédération Internationale de Sports d'Obstacles (FISO), is the sole governing body, responsible for Competition Rules for its related disciplines and events.
- 1.1.2. The Ninja OCR is a timed obstacle course race where the athletes run and overcome obstacles. Events are head-to-head in lanes or time trial and the fastest athlete wins.
- 1.1.3. These Rules must be read in conjunction with the MSD and regulations for the host country, if applicable.

1.2. Intention

- 1.2.1. The Rules are intended to:
 - 1.2.1.1. Create an atmosphere of sportsmanship, equality, and fair play;
 - 1.2.1.2. Provide safety and protection;
 - 1.2.1.3. Emphasize ingenuity and skill without unduly limiting the athlete's freedom of action;
 - 1.2.1.4. Disqualify or penalize athletes who gain an unfair advantage;
- 1.2.2. Definitions of all terms used in the Rules are provided in the MSD. Any difficulty in the interpretation or application of Rules should be referred to the Technical Committee (TC).

1.3. Rule Updates

The Rules may be changed from time to time by the TC at its discretion, with the approval of the FISO Executive Board. Any such rule change(s) shall be advised in writing to affiliated NFs at least 30 days before taking effect. Updated FISO Competition Rules will be posted on the FISO website (worldocr.org).

2. CONDUCT OF ATHLETES

2.1. General Conduct

Race tactics are part of the interaction between athletes however athletes are required to:

- Practice good sportsmanship at all times;
- Adhere to the intent of a rule when the exact wording of the rule may be interpreted in various ways;
- Be responsible for their own safety and the safety of others;
- Know, understand and follow the Rules, available on www.worldocr.org;
- Obey instructions from race officials.
- Treat other athletes, officials, volunteers, media, sponsors and spectators with respect and courtesy.
- Not use abusive, derogatory or inflammatory language.
- Inform a Technical Official immediately after withdrawing from the race. In case the athletes fail to do this before the end of the event, it may result a suspension.

- Compete without receiving assistance other than from event personnel and officials.
- Refrain from ambush marketing
- Not dispose litter or equipment around the course except at clearly identified places. All items must be kept with the athlete and disposed of appropriately at the end of the race.
- Not attempt to gain unfair advantage in any way.

3. PENALTIES AND RULES

3.1. The Course

3.1.1. The NINJA OCR m course is a linear running track consisting of a start line, twelve (12) obstacles and a finish line.

3.1.2. The course shall be two (2) lanes, each lane being no less than 1.5 m wide as defined in the OCR Course Specification Manual ("CSM").

3.1.3. The twelve (12) obstacles are defined in the CSM.

3.2. General Rules

3.2.1. Completion of all obstacles is mandatory.

3.2.2. An athlete failing an obstacle may not attempt the obstacle a second time.

3.2.3. An athlete who fails to complete an obstacle may continue to the next obstacle but may not complete the finish obstacle (curve wall).

3.2.4. An athlete who fails an obstacle is awarded a time but is designated Did Not Complete ("DNC") in the results.

3.2.5. Athletes with DNC are ranked below all athletes who completed the course and are not eligible for awards.

3.2.6. Athletes finishing with the same time (measured to 1/100th [0.01] of a second) shall be awarded a tie unless the finish video can determine a winner.

3.2.7. Failure to comply with the Rules may result in an athlete being verbally warned, subject to disqualification, suspension, or expulsion.

3.2.8. The nature of the rule violation will determine the subsequent penalty.

3.2.9. A suspension or an expulsion will occur for very serious violations of either the Rules or FISO Anti-Doping Rules.

3.2.10. An athlete may be issued a verbal warning or disqualified for failing to abide by the Rules.

3.2.11. The Technical Officials are allowed to assess penalties, even if the infringement is not listed, if the Technical Official deems an unfair advantage has been gained, or if a dangerous situation has been created.

3.3. Timing

3.3.1. Time for each race is "gun time."

3.3.2. Electronic (chip) timing shall be used for heats.

3.3.3. Hand timing shall be used as a backup for the electronic timing system.

3.3.4. Video shall be used for the finish button to determine results in the finals.

3.3.5. There shall be heats and finals.

3.3.6. Each athlete shall be allowed one run in the heats.

3.4. Specific Rules – Mixed Relay

- 3.4.1. A Mixed Relay team shall be four (4) people consisting of two (2) men and two (2) women.
- 3.4.2. The start order of the team may be by either gender, i.e. either a man or a woman may be the first runner for the team.
- 3.4.3. The team may run in any order by gender.
- 3.4.4. The course is divided into four (4) segments of three (3) obstacles. Each runner completes one segment of the course, in sequential order, one (1) through four (4.)
- 3.4.5. The first athlete on the team starts at the sound of the gun.
- 3.4.6. Athletes start their run when the prior runner has completed their segment and “tags” (touches) them.
- 3.4.7. Runners may not physically assist other runners on the course (obstacles #1 – #11)
- 3.4.8. The team may help each other on the finish obstacle (#12), the finish obstacle.
- 3.4.9. The team finishes when all four team members have completed the finish obstacle (obstacle 12) and hit the finish button.
- 3.4.10. Time for a race is “gun time”

3.5. Verbal Warning

6. COMPETITION IN QUALIFYING ROUND FORMAT

6.1. General

A competition in Qualifying Round Format (tournament) consists of several rounds with a number of heats and finals to determine the winners. The rounds may include quarter finals, semi-finals, repechages or other rounds before the finals. Athletes qualify for the finals based on time.

6.2. Rounds

- 6.2.1. Rounds will be called heats, quarter finals, semi-finals, finals and grand final as appropriate.
- 6.2.2. There may be any number of heats.
- 6.2.3. Two (2) or more runs may be allowed by each athlete in the heats. This allows athletes an opportunity to have a time for a clean run if they fail an obstacle.
- 6.2.4. Quarter finals, if used, are the fastest sixteen (16) athletes from the heats.
- 6.2.5. Semi-finals, if used, are the fastest eight (8) athletes from the quarter finals.
- 6.2.6. Finals are the fastest four (4) athletes from the semi-finals.
- 6.2.7. The Final is the third and fourth fastest athletes from the semi-finals (Bronze medal race.)
- 6.2.8. The Grand Final is the fastest two (2) athletes from the semi-finals (Gold medal race.)

6.2.9. A repechage, if used, is a round or series of rounds that allows athletes who have been eliminated in the heats to qualify for the semi-finals.

6.2.10. If there are no quarter finals, semi-finals, finals, grand finals or repechages, the placings are based on finish times from the heats.

6.3. Results if Not Rounds

6.3.1. The first and second fastest athletes qualify for the Gold Medal Final (Gold and Silver.)

6.3.2. The third and fourth fastest athletes qualify for the Bronze Medal Final (Bronze Medal).

6.3.3. If one athlete in a final fails an obstacle, they are ranked DNC and cannot win a medal.

6.3.4. If both athletes in a Final are DNC, there race shall be re-run to determine the winners.

6.3.5. If an athlete(s) in the Gold medal final is/are ranked DNC, the athletes in the Bronze medal final move up in the results.

6.3.6. If there is a tie in a final, both athletes are awarded the same medal. Examples:

- Tie in the Gold Medal Final: Two (2) Gold Medals and one (1) Bronze Medal are awarded.
- Tie in the Bronze Medal Final: One (1) Gold Medal, one (1) Silver Medal and two (2) Bronze Medals.
- Tie in the Gold Medal Final and Tie in the Bronze Medal Final: Two (2) Gold Medals and two (2) Bronze Medals.
- There cannot be a tie for second place (Silver medal)
