New Business

- 5 slots are still available to be a delegate for the INDEMS State Convention.
 - Kathie & Brad Skeel & Judy indicated interest.
- If you are a delegate and would like to order lunch, look in your email for additional information to order ahead of time.
- We need to find a volunteer to lead our Johnson County fair parade on the 13th since the majority of us will be at the convention. We do have a float for people to on, but need someone to be there the day of the coordinate.
- Election Workers needed for primary day May 7th at Princess Lakes, Nineveh, and Edinburgh. This pays $145. Let Cindy Rapp know if you are interested.

Data Development Update - Ron Newlin

- Hosting house parties regularly, 1-2 times a month. Let Ron know if you are interested.
- Start hanging marketing on doors. Come help!! We will have numerous times you can come and walk with a group, or you can pick up some door hangers and walk on your own.

Events

- Looking to utilize our new headquarters by using the space to raise funds and increase engagement. Ideas include wine & canvas, cannoli class, drag story time, but looking for other thoughts on what we could do to best utilize the space.
- Canvassing event this Saturday the 13th @ 10 and volunteer training at 11, and Donuts with Democrats at 10am on the 20th. Sunday the 28th meet with the Chair and have brownies at 2pm.
- Voter Forum April 23rd
- Please see our website or Facebook for all the information for our events.

Election Update - Kevin Service

- Poll Worker training has begun
- Still missing some poll workers.
- Everything going along smoothly so far for primary voting.
- Charrie asked if she could get the list of the absentee voters from the election board. Kevin will check into it and get back to us.
- Bring training options about Spanish and vision options on the voting booth to the attention to the voting workers.
