Entering Into Worship

Prelude: "You Raise Me Up" arr. by Larry Shackley

*Unison Invitation to Worship:

'Tis not with eyes of flesh we see that Christ is God's anointed one. With eyes of faith we know that he is God's beloved only son. Eternal king enthroned above, revealer of God's grace and love.

O Christ you have the words of life, unto no other can we go. None but yourself can calm our strife, and none but you, our hope can know. Since you have walked this way before, you are to us the only door.

Believing thus, O son of God, we walk with you along life's way. We follow where your feet have trod, unto the realms of glorious day. O fill our hearts with joyous song. Sustain our faith and make us strong.

As Bartimaeus we too have been born blind and need like him the Savior to find. To cry 'Son of David, have mercy on me. Open my eyes, Lord, I want to see.'

It is at the cross that all can see the extent of God's love for you and me.

Call out to Jesus, 'Savior hear my cry, while you heal others, do not pass me by. (Source- Royston Allen 5/06/2012)
