

Nissan is also known as Aviv in Hebrew. Aviv means "spring" in Hebrew, and Nissan is the month that marks the arrival of spring in the land of Israel. The name Aviv therefore reflects the natural cycle of the seasons as well as the agricultural significance of this time of year. In ancient times, the arrival of spring and the beginning of the agricultural season were celebrated with religious festivals, such as Passover, which is celebrated in the first month of Nissan. The name Aviv is therefore a reminder of the importance of the natural world and the cycles of life that have shaped Jewish tradition and culture for thousands of years. Aviv in Kabbalah represents the potential for spiritual transformation and renewal that is available to individuals during this auspicious time of year.

Aviv = av (father) + iv (12)

Exodus 12:2 This month [Nisan] will be counted by you as the first of the months.

Nisan is that it is the new year of the festivals Pesach(Passover), Shavu'ot, and Sukot.

Deuteronomy 16:1 Keep the month of Aviv/Ripe-Grain....You are to observe Passover to YHWH your God, for in the month of Aviv YHWH your God took you out of Egypt, at night.

Exodus 34:18 Seven days thou shalt eat unleavened bread, as I commanded thee, in the time of the month Aviv:

> Tishrei month of Creation (Physical). Nissan Month of Redemption (Spiritual).

Every day of the first 13 days of Nisan is a seed for the future corresponding month. We should put extra efforts to be at our best so we can 'plant' better seeds for the future month.

In Kabbalah, the 13 days of the month of Nissan are seen as an auspicious time for spiritual growth and transformation. Each day is associated with a specific aspect of the Divine, and by meditating and focusing on these aspects, one can deepen their connection to God and bring positive energy into their life.

Why 13 ???

1.Thirteen is the numerical value of the Hebrew word "echad," which means "one" and signifies the unity of God. This reflects the central Kabbalistic belief in the oneness of all things and the underlying unity of the universe.

2.Thirteen is also associated with the 13 attributes of God, as described in the Torah (Exodus 34:6-7), which include compassion, kindness, and forgiveness. These attributes are considered fundamental to Kabbalistic spirituality and are often meditated upon by Kabbalists.

3.In Kabbalistic numerology, 13 is the numerical value of the word "ahava," which means "love." Love is seen as the highest spiritual quality in Kabbalah, and the pursuit of love is a central theme of Kabbalistic teachings.
