

Advocacy Organizations

Arc of Indiana

Assists with a range of issues including applying for government programs, learning about guardianship and alternatives to guardianship, navigating healthcare coverage, transitioning to a home in the community, and becoming a self advocate. www.arcind.org

Chromosome Disorder Outreach

Education, advocacy, information & support for those born with rare chromosome and gene mutation disorders. chromodisorder.org

Indiana Association of Area Agencies on Aging

Services for older adults and people with disabilities of any age and their caregivers. These agencies provide resources, assess needs, make referrals, link to services, monitor satisfaction and adjust services to meet changing needs. www.iaaaa.org

Indiana Disability Rights

Works to uphold, promote and advance the rights of individuals with disabilities. Visit the website for downloadable materials, videos, rights handbooks, reports, information on public meetings, voting support, and more. www.in.gov/idr

National Association of Councils on Developmental Disabilities

Provides leadership, education, and attention on national issues and policy affecting all people with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities. nacdd.org

Self Advocates of Indiana

Empowers people with intellectual and developmental disabilities to advocate and educate for equal rights, respect, and inclusion for all in the community. Visit the website for event information, training and resources. www.saind.org

Unique

Provides support, information and networking to families affected by rare chromosome and gene disorders. rarechromo.org