

School Supports

COPAA (Council of Parent Attorneys and Advocates)

Documents, training, networking and groups, and a directory of advocates and attorneys.

www.copaa.org

Facilitated IEP (FIEP)

An option for conflict prevention and resolution, to ensure everyone involved has a voice.

Provided by the Indiana Department of Education at no cost to parents or schools.

www.in.gov/doe/students/office-of-student-support-and-accessibility/#Facilitated_IEP

IEP-Hope, Inc.

No-cost training programs for parents, seminars, resources, and advocacy services for families of public school students with IEPs or 504s.

www.iep-hope.org

IN*SOURCE: The Indiana Resource Center for Families with Special Needs

Helps parents of children with disabilities navigate the complicated special education process in the state of Indiana. Webinars, training documents and resources.

insource.org

Joseph Maley Foundation

IEP support program in which an attorney can sit in on an IEP meeting for free to support the family and individual to develop an appropriate IEP.

www.josephmaley.org/service-programs/family-support

WrightsLaw

Information about special education law and advocacy for children with disabilities.

www.wrightslaw.com