SUMMARY

Extensive experience developing, directing, and providing professional development, research, quality improvement, and psychological services for child and family services, juvenile justice, special education, substance abuse, and mental health programs.

Author (and co-author) of ten books and 36 articles, chapters, curricula, and recorded media programs on research and practice in trauma therapy, family therapy, child welfare, adoption, professional development, program evaluation, and human services management. Publications have earned significant acclaim as resources for practitioners and graduate students. Two books were translated into Chinese.

Keynote speaker, seminar instructor, and workshop leader for state, national, and international conferences sponsored by trauma therapy, family violence, adoption, social work, psychology, child advocacy, and family service associations in the United States, Canada, Belgium, and Korea.

Learning collaborative leader for county, state, federal and agency grants.

Seminar instructor, field supervisor, and research advisor for M.S.W. and Ph.D. students.

Principal Investigator for two SAMHSA-funded NCTSN Community Practice grants.

Director of Research, Consultation, Quality Improvement, Psychological Services, and Professional Development Programs, Parsons Child and Family Center, Albany, New York.

EDUCATION

Ph.D., University of Texas at Austin (APA-accredited, Counseling Psychology)

Internship, Children's Medical Center, Tulsa, Oklahoma (APA-accredited, Child Clinical Psychology)

B.A. in Psychology "with distinction," University of Michigan at Ann Arbor (Class Honors)

Advanced training in trauma-focused cognitive behavioral therapy, evidence-based trauma therapies, family systems therapy, and human services management including grantsmanship, program evaluation, quality improvement, media relations, marketing, supervision and professional development.

LEADERSHIP

Founded and Co-chaired the Resource Parent Workgroup of the National Child Traumatic Stress Network (NCTSN) from 2004-2011 coordinating development and dissemination of the NCTSN Resource Parent Curriculum, served on the NCTSN Steering Committee (2010-2013), the NCTSN Affiliate Advisory Board (2013-present) and on the NCTSN Child Welfare Steering Committee (2004-2011), led and co-led presentations at national conferences for NCTSN, presented a Complex Trauma speaker series webinar, co-authored the White Paper on Complex Trauma and related articles, and collaborated on workgroups and product development for the Child Welfare Committee and the Core Concepts, Skills, and Components Curriculum Task Force.

Developed and managed professional development programs for Parsons Child and Family Center and Russell Sage College including the Parsons/Sage Fall Institute and Winter-Spring series of workshops and seminars with funding through contracts, fees, and grants. The Fall Institute doubled in size from 1976-1994, becoming a major regional conference attracting over 800 participants a year, and the Winter/Spring series grew to 13-15 workshops and seminars each year enhancing the reputation of Parsons as a leader in child welfare services.

Developed and supervised the professional development curriculum and annual programs for 350 staff at Parsons over an 18 year period including development of a Certificate Program in Family Systems Therapy and comprehensive training for social work, child care, and special education staff. Professional development programs linked disparate programs, attracted M.S.W. staff to work at the agency, and fostered innovative services to help children and families overcome neglect, traumas, prejudice, and violence.

Developed and managed program planning, evaluation, and quality improvement programs enabling Parsons to meet accreditation standards of the Joint Commission and the Council on Accreditation for 14 years.

Directed, evaluated, and supervised psychological services meeting changing needs of children and families referred by social service departments, schools, family courts, and mental health clinics.

RESEARCH AND GRANTSMANSHIP

Served as Principal Investigator for two, three-year ($1,200,000) NCTSN research programs to develop, manage, and evaluate resilience and trauma therapy interventions and learning collaborative programs in child and family services, funded by the Substance Abuse Mental Health Services Administration.

Designed, conducted, and published evaluations of the efficacy of interventions in child and family services including research on older child adoptions, family preservation programs, and traumatic stress interventions.

Developed successful RFP for post adoption services and training leading to over 12 years ($1,000,000+) of funding.

Designed programs and conducted research required for successful RFP's in innovative family preservation and foster care programs, leading to start-up grants and on-going funding of therapeutic foster family care and court-related youth programs at Parsons Child and Family Center.

Developed and managed Parsons Institutional Review Board to screen and monitor research.

WORKSHOPS, SEMINARS, AND PRESENTATIONS

Presented conference keynotes, workshops and papers for the Academy of Korean Family Social Service, the American Association of Marriage and Family Therapy, the American Orthopsychiatric Association, the American Professional Society on Abuse of Children, the American Psychological Association, ATTACH, Casey Family Services, the Child Welfare League of America, the European Scientific Association for Residential and Foster Care, the Family Therapy Network Symposium, the Family Violence and Sexual Assault Institute, the International Society for Traumatic Stress Studies, the International Society for the Study of Trauma & Dissociation, the National CASA Association, the National Child Traumatic Stress Network and the San Diego International Conference on Child & Family Maltreatment; for regional conferences of the Child Welfare League of America, Child Abuse and Neglect Associations, the Council of Family and Child Care Agencies, and for Smith College and Dalhousie University in Canada.

Led seminars for students in the clinical practice series of Smith College School for Social Work and the Department of Educational Psychology of the University of Texas at Austin.

Served as dissertation adviser for the School of Social Welfare, State University of New York at Albany (SUNYA).

Provided field supervision for doctoral candidate in the Smith College School for Social Work

Supervised interns in psychology and research students for M.S.W. and Ph.D. psychology programs at SUNYA.

Led workshops and learning collaboratives for practitioners in agencies and behavioral health programs in the United States and Canada.

CONSULTATION

Conducted individual and family assessments and provided consultation for the Albany, Schoharie, and Schenectady County Departments of Social Services (New York State).

Served as Consulting Psychologist for Parsons Prevention, Home and Community Based Waiver, Foster Care/Adoption, International Adoption, Crisis Residence, Residential Treatment Facility, and Child and Family Guidance Clinic.

Conducted assessments, family therapy, and group therapy for adolescents with substance abuse problems at the Hope House adolescent residential treatment program.

Conducted assessments and provided training and therapy for the Independent Living, Prevention, and Youth Shelter Programs of Equinox, Inc. and for Schenectady Catholic Family and Community Services.
