hereby constitutes and appoints Supreme Customs Brokerage, Inc. its officers, employees, and/or specifically authorized agents (collectively "Grantee") to act for and on its behalf as a true and lawful agent and attorney of the Grantor for and in the name, place, and stead of Grantor from this date in ALL Customs Ports of the United States, either in writing, electronically, or by other authorized means, to: Make, endorse, sign, declare, or swear to any entry, withdrawal, declaration, certificate, bill of lading, carnet or any other document required by law or regulation in connection with the importation, exportation, transportation of any merchandise in or through the customs territory, shipped or consigned by or to Grantor; Perform any act or condition which may be required by law or regulation in connection with such merchandise, including to receive any merchandise deliverable to Grantor; Make endorsements on bills of lading conferring authority to transfer title, make entry or collect drawback; and to make, sign, declare, or swear to any statement, supplemental statement, schedule, supplemental schedule, certificate of manufacturer, certificate of delivery, abstract of manufacturing records, declarations of proprietor on drawback entry, declaration of exporter on drawback entry, or any other affidavit or document which may be required by law or regulation for drawback purposes, regardless of whether such bill of lading, sworn statement, schedule, certificate, abstract, declaration, or other affidavit or document is intended for filing with Customs.

Sign, seal, and deliver for and as the act of Grantor any bond required by law or regulation in connection with the entry or withdrawal of imported merchandise or merchandise exported with or without benefit of drawback, or in connection with the entry, clearance, lading, unloading or navigation of any vessel or other means of conveyance owned and operated by Grantor, and any and all bonds which may be voluntarily given and accepted under applicable laws and regulations, consignee's and owner's declarations provided for in Section 485 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, or affidavits in connection with entry of merchandise; Sign and swear to any document and to perform any act that may be necessary or required by law or regulation in connection with the entering, clearing, lading, unloading, or operation of any vessel or other means of conveyance owned or operated by Grantor; Authorize other Customs Brokers to act as Grantor's agent; to receive, endorse and collect checks issued for Customs duty refunds in Grantor's name drawn on the Treasurer of the United States; if the Grantor is a non-resident of the United States, to accept service of process on behalf of Grantor; And generally to transact Customs business, including making, signing, and filing of claims or protests under Section 514 of the Tariff Act of 1930, or pursuant to other laws of the territories, in which Grantor is or may be concerned or interested and which may properly be transacted or performed by an agent and attorney, giving to said agent and attorney full power and authority to do anything whatever requisite and necessary to be done in the premises as fully as Grantor could do if present and acting, hereby ratifying and confirming all that the said agent and attorney shall lawfully do by virtue of these present; The foregoing power of attorney is to remain in full force and effect until revocation in writing is duly given to and received by the Grantee (if the Grantor of this power of attorney is a partnership, the said power shall in no case have any force or effect after the expiration of 2 years from the date of its execution);

Per 19 CFR 111.29(b), if you are the importer of record, payment to the broker will not relieve you of liability for Customs charges (duties, taxes, or other debts owed to Customs) in the event the charges are not paid by the broker. Therefore, if you pay by check, Customs charges may be paid with a separate check payable to the "U.S. Customs and Border Protection" which shall be delivered to Customs by the broker. Importers who wish to utilize this procedure must contact our office in advance to arrange timely receipt of duty checks. Grantor acknowledges receipt and agrees to Supreme Customs Brokerage, Inc. "Terms and Conditions of Service" governing all transactions between the Parties. If this power of attorney is obtained through a forwarder, Grantor hereby waives receipt of the customs entry and invoices from Grantee and directs that copies of the bills for services and customs entries be transmitted to Grantor's forwarder. Signatory certifies he/she has full authority to execute this Power of Attorney on behalf of Grantor.
