Duration: 8 hours

Includes

- Transport with a/c vehicle
- City Tour of Berat
- Driver/ Guide
- Hotel pick-up and drop off
- Entrance fees to the Museum of Iconography 'Onufri', the Ethnographic Museum, and Castle of Berat.

Overview

Depart for Adriatik Hotel at 8:30 am and arrive in Berat after 2 hours. This is one of the oldest cities and the pride of Albanian architecture. The three major neighborhoods of the old city are Mangalemi, Gorica, and Kala where the castle itself is located. We will start the tour from the castle. Visiting the 'Kala' involves a steep walk up a cobbled path, but those who make it to the top will be rewarded with a fine view of the surrounding area. You will visit the Museum of Iconography 'Onufri' which bears the name of the renowned fresco and icon-painter Onufri, who has left a rich inheritance. This museum is located within the cathedral of St. Mary's Assumption. You will also visit the Red Mosque, recognized by its lonely minaret and St. Trinity Church. After the fortress you will visit the Mangalemi quarter and the National Ethnographic Museum. This museum is located in one of the most characteristic and interesting houses of the town, a rich assemblage of traditional objects (more than 1000) and is one of the greatest examples of Berat's long history and culture. Across the Osumi River lies the Gorica neighborhood, whose houses face those of Mangalemi. The arched bridge of Gorica, built in 1780, is a beautiful architectural monument constructed to link Gorica with Mangellemi. Enjoy some free time to stroll on the bridge. After the tour, there will be optional lunch in a restaurant with traditional cuisine. Going for 40 minutes at family tradition winery testing some different wines and brandy. Return to Hotel Adriatik Durres.

Durres

€74/p

Departure: 09:00 AM
Duration: 8 hours

Includes

- Transport with a/c vehicle
- City Tour of Durres
- Driver/ Guide
- Hotel pick-up and drop off

Overview

Leave the hotel and head north. In only 5 minutes we will reach the city center. Durrës Bay forms a natural harbour in which ships have anchored since the 7th century BC. In antiquity it was known as Epidamnos, and the city that was built around it was called Dyrrhachion. In the 5th century BC, a popular uprising in Dyrrhachion became one of the causes of the Peloponnesian War that engulfed the whole of Greece from 431BC to 404BC. Under Roman rule, Dyrrachium (as it was by then known) became a vital staging post, lead by Queen Teuta, and was one of the two starting points of the Egnatian Way (Via Egnatia), the great road that linked the Adriatic coast with Byzantium. The city thrived during the Roman and Byzantine periods, and the amphitheatre that the Romans built there was the largest in the Balkan peninsula. In the Middle Ages Dyrrachium was coveted by Normans, Angevins and Venetians. This rich past is reflected in the town's Archaeological Museum, with its collection of Illyrian, Greek and Roman artifacts. You will visit the Archaeological Museum, the city center ruins , the Venetian Tower, The Oldest city Mosque. In the city, a lively promenade runs along the seafront, parallel with Taulantia Boulevard, and ends in a small area of beach. You will visit Currila and be amazed by the wonderful scenery. The best spot to have a coffee and admire the view of the city from the top would be Fly Bar .

Departure: 08:00 AM

Overview

Pick up at the hotel in 08:00. Driving for two hours to the city of Shkodra the third largest town in Albania, located 112 Km North of Durres. Known for the culture, tradition and natural beauty. This city offers a touristic diversity that is rarely found in any other city in Albania: with rivers, lakes, lagoons and mountains. Shkodra has been occupied several times throughout history: First by the Romans 168 B.C. then the Serbians 1040, the Venetians 1396, and finally by the Ottomans 1479. First we arrive at the Castle of Rozafes, where we can walk for 1.5 hours through ancient grounds of the citadel, going back in time to the IV-V century BC. According to the legend, Rozafa, the wife of the youngest of three brothers, accepted to be buried alive in the walls of the castle. The brothers had been building the castle in the day only to find that the walls had collapsed during the night. Visit the Mes Bridge built in the late 1700's and is one of the longest Ottoman bridges remaining in the region. Crosses the Kir River about 6 kilometers North of Shkodër in the village of Mes. Visit the renewed Marubi National Museum of Photography famous for its big and rare collection of photos over Albanian history. Taking walking tour or drinking a beer for 40 minutes at Pedonalja that is the old center of Shkodra, very mediterranean taste passing through mosques and churches. Lunch Break for 1.5 hour at Shkodra Lake (Shiroke - Zogaj) those two neighborhoods are well known for fishing and 'carp fish' is the traditional dish which is served in ceramic plate in restaurants across the area. Return back to Hotel Adriatik.
