

January 11th is National Day of Human Trafficking Awareness

Join with PATH as we honor

Every year since 2010, the President has dedicated the month to raising awareness about the different forms of human trafficking, also known as modern slavery, and educating people about this crime and how to spot it.

January 11 is #WearBlueDay

Did you know blue is the international color of Human Trafficking awareness? PATH and the Department of Homeland Security invite you to do the following on January 11:

- Wear Blue
- Take a selfie wearing your Blue
- Post it to your social media (Facebook, Instagram and Twitter) with the #WearBlueDay
- Tag pathcoalitionofky on Facebook
- Follow @DHSBlueCampaign on Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram for more information about #WearBlueDay.

Check out the Department of Homeland Security's Blue Campaign site for more events during January.

The Frankfort Police Department will be hosting a community resource event on Human Trafficking Awareness Day with the intent on increasing public awareness about the risks and signs of human trafficking an important piece of any anti-trafficking strategy. We know that effective public awareness and outreach efforts can lead to the detection of human trafficking cases, build public support for governments and communities to act, and ultimately help prevent human trafficking.
