PATH IN THE FUTURE

Metro United Way

THANK YOU

As we hope you know, PATH is a completely volunteer run organization which provides education and awareness around human trafficking at NO CHARGE to requesting organizations. We rely on donations and grants to help fund our work.

PATH participated in the 10th Annual KY Gives Day, sponsored by the Kentucky Non-profit Network, on May 10th. We are so grateful to those who donated to PATH on this day of giving. We raised over $500 to support our education efforts.

Thanks also goes to Metro United Way of Louisville. PATH is the recipient of a $5000 grant to help us develop a Train the Trainers Human Trafficking Academy for Non-Clinical Employees among frontline workers encountering high-risk populations of Latinx and people of color in Metro Louisville. Metro United Way had this to say in part: "As Metro United Way continues to improve lives in our community, we are proud of our strong partnerships with organizations that help everyone to achieve their fullest potential. Our ongoing commitment to closing the education and wealth gaps in our community is unwavering and stronger than ever. We remain grateful for your partnership in joining us in this mission.

We are pleased to award your organization $5,000 through MUW's recent Supports for Human Trafficking Survivors Request for Proposals (RFP) in support of the work you are doing..."

National Association of Social Workers West Virginia Chapter

Social work performs several roles that may be especially suited in addressing issues of human trafficking. On May 5th, PATH virtually presented Human Trafficking: Signs, Strategies and Strengths to the West Virginia chapter of the National Association of Social Workers. The presentation was designed to assist social workers in identifying signs of human trafficking, strategies for response, and ways in which social workers can build greater community and professional awareness.

PATH IN THE BOARDROOM

Our board will elect a new slate of officers at the June meeting and then will begin preparing for its annual strategic planning session in July.

PATH is always looking for community contributors. So if you have time and would like to assist our collaboration, development, education or leadership committees, send us a note: <https://pathcoalitionofky.org/get-involved>

PATH AND YOU

Many thanks again to all who support PATH with their time, talent, and treasure. And thanks to those organizations who have taken the initiative to have PATH come educate their members about human trafficking.
