

Elevate Rapid City gives $200K to Ellsworth Development Authority

Journal staff Dec 14, 2018

The economic development group Elevate Rapid City donated $200,000 on Thursday to the Ellsworth Development Authority.

The organization said in a press release that the donation matches the state's annual funding of the authority. Also, Elevate Rapid City said the organizations share the common goal of ensuring new missions at Ellsworth and retaining existing ones.

Elevate Rapid City was formed in 2017; the Ellsworth Development Authority formed in 2009.