

INTRODUCTION

To talk about Spiritual Warfare is a complicated topic for people. God selected an experienced angel to reveal to the reader the secrets of Spiritual Warfare and the intervention of THE CONSORTIUM. This violent conflict, where spiritual beings enslaving people, has an Achilles heel. The human beings, who seize the three secrets that make Hell tremble, defeat the CONSORTIUM.

“I am an angel at the service of the one and only true God”.

The pleasant-looking angel placed his two hands on the hilt of his sword and said:

“Before the Kingdom of Light was divided, I was part of the Celestial Choir”.

One day, one of the most prestigious leaders of the Kingdom of Light began to sow ideas against God. This daring leader, named Lucero, hinted that obedience to God limits the level of happiness angels can obtain. His evil idea suggests disobedience to God as the only means to guarantee unlimited happiness. His infectious ideas adulterated the teachings of God and encouraged disobedience.

“I met Lucero through my good friend Tolerance”

As explained by the angel, Tolerance invited him to attend a conference that this charismatic leader was dictating. His way of thinking and analyzing was capturing the attention of many in the Kingdom of Light.

“Moved by curiosity, more than by interest, I accompanied my friend to one of these meetings”.

The angel put both of his hands together and placed them in front of his chin.

“I was impressed with this arrogant and selfish and rebellious leader”.

There was a brief moment of silence, and then he added in a tone that reveals concern...

“He was a model of perfection”.

There is no doubt, Lucero's elegant presence and mental agility is impressive. We must not lose sight of the fact that Lucero's credentials are extraordinary. From the day he was created by God, his conduct has been above reproach. How can you doubt of someone like Lucero? (Ezekiel 28:15). As the cosmic clock advanced, Lucero's admirers increased in number. As his fame grew, his lectures reached levels that displeased God.

Without shame and without dissimulation, he argued that disobedience to God benefits the angels. What he never revealed is that the happiness produced by disobedience does not last long.

Because of his proud heart and his radical teachings, Lucero was expelled from heaven. His banishment caused a division of opinion among us angels. Most opinions leaned in favor of God, but a minority favored Lucero. Among those who supported this infame entity was my friend Tolerance. He, along with a third of the angels, turned their backs on God to follow Lucero.

After Tolerance left the Kingdom of Light, the angel at the service of the one and only true God was promoted to Messenger in the Service of God. Now, in his new position, he has the responsibility of bringing messages from God to human beings.

In his new position...he must constantly battle...with THE CONSORTIUM... who try to prevent... human beings from receiving the messages sent by God.

Very soon everything will have to change. The end is coming!
