

Double PLAN

Tolerance, who was once a member of the heavenly choir and praised God with his voice, now dishonors him with his actions. The light that flooded his heart made him radiate life, but as he moved away from God... darkness wrapped his heart and distorted his face. The beautiful angel suffered a horrific change and was transformed into a horrible reptile with the face of "Dragon of Komodo". His specialty of killing dreams, stealing hopes, and destroying lives, has earned him fame in the world of darkness. The «The vilest of all of them» among all the members of the High Council, is the only one who is aware of the danger posed by God pouring out his Spirit. He asked:

“How can we prevent this outpouring from happening?”

"My strategy is not to prevent the outpouring" Tolerance replied.

“And what is your strategy?”

“Infect the minds of humans.”

The hand of God cannot be stopped to bless man, but demons can use smoke balls to confuse humans causing them to reject the blessing. His diabolical plan, due to its simplicity, falls under the category of brilliant. If man rejects the blessing, Almighty God can do nothing to about it. He cannot intervene with man's free will!

“There are four questions... that I need answered... in order to put my strategy into action.”

“What are those four questions?”

“The success of the strategy requires that the four questions be answered correctly. They are:”

One: When does God plan to pour out his Spirit?

Two: Where will He pour it?

Three: How will He pour it?

Four: On whom will he pour it?

The questions are not very complicated, the most difficult thing is to find the correct answer. The «The vilest of all of them» consulted with his colleagues and Advisors, but no one was clear about where to find the answers. Tolerance suggested creating five groups and sending them to the world in search of the four answers.

“I have... the places... to visit!” replied the ugly creature.

No one in the meeting suspects the true intentions, of the ugly creature. He has a double plan! Simulating his true intentions, Tolerance talked about the five groups in the world, that may have the answers they are looking for.

"Who are these groups?" asked the «The vilest of all of them».

Faking enthusiasm, the huge reptile said:

“The first group has to do with the atheists.”

Tolerance pointed to the «The vilest of all of them» and said:

“The second group is made up of religious people who believe in gods with lowercase "g".

"Who is the third group?" the professor asked.

Tolerance turned his gaze to the Advisors' table and said:

“The third group is related to the "monotheists", the religious people who believe in the God of Abraham.”

"Is that group dangerous?" the philosopher asked.

“They are not dangerous... but they are complicated.”

What Tolerance is referring to is that the monotheists, who belong to the people of Israel, possess God's promises. Those who obey God and trust Him activate these promises.

"The dangerous ones are the Christians," Tolerance replied.

After evaluating Tolerance's recommendation, the High Council approved it.

The six ADVISORS were commissioned to visit the world in search of answers to the four questions. One of the six advisers must be commissioned as coordinator of the five groups. If we go by the duration in the position of Advisor, the prestigious position of coordinator belongs to the philosopher. Everyone was surprised when Tolerance recommended Attorney Odeim for the position. His selection inflated him with vanity, thinking that he was selected for his many merits. The truth is different, Odeim is part of the double plan, and he doesn't know it.

His first command as coordinator of the five groups was to establish a workshop. This private meeting is intended to train the five Advisors so that they can differentiate the different levels of negative production. The meeting convened by Attorney Odeim took place in the "conference room" that is part of Mr. Z's office. In the center of the living room, there is a tremendous and huge table, built with the trunk of a single tree. The six Advisors settled around the table. The royal piece of furniture comfortably accommodates 24 chairs around it.

The "conference room" is also known by the title: the "Room of the Champions of Evil". Today, most of the "gods" represented in this room continue to operate in the world, but they use other names. The same dog with a different collar! Next to where the attorney is sitting, there is a portable piece of furniture, which holds a huge graphic. The attorney got up from his chair and pointed it out...

“Humans are beneficial, because they produce negative energy.”

Odeim holds a thin and long rod in his hand, and with it he pointed out to the title of the graphic. In a tone that reveals domination and control, he said:

“Levels... of production... of negative energy.”

The graphic shows six vertical bars that represent the groups that produce negative energy [Note:1]. Using the rod as a pointer, he pointed to the tallest and darkest bar.

“Atheists are the ones that produce the most negative energy.”

There are different levels of atheists and all of them benefit THE CONSORTIUM. The attorney pointing to the second bar, said:

“Polytheists are the second to produce the most negative energy.”

Odeim did not explain the term polytheistic, because all demons know that it means believing in many gods. The attorney moved the pointer to the third bar and commented that the monotheists, produce negative energy, much less than polytheists. They produce much more than Christians. The attorney explained:

“Monotheists believe in only one God.”

Among the different races scattered throughout the earth, believing in many gods with lower case “g” is normal. The only people who break this tradition are the Jews. They proclaim themselves as the people of God and only believe in the God of Abraham. The other group of monotheists are Muslims, they believe in one God. They, like the Jews, produce negative energy in abundance.

The Advisors were uncomfortable when they heard Attorney Odeim describe the Christians. They are the least who produce negative energy. If there is a group despised by the management of THE CONSORTIUM, is the followers of Jesus Christ. It bothers and shames the management of the powerful empire, that Christians possess the gift of salvation. This dangerous group, which constantly threatens the plans of the Empire of Darkness, is divided into three levels; believers, disciples who need to see to believe and disciples who "DO NOT" need to see to believe.

"Believers... are at the least dangerous "level," Odeim emphasized.

The largest group, of Christians, is made up of believers. They are people who are happy to believe in Jesus Christ but are not willing to grow in the knowledge of God. Many of them consider themselves disciples, because of the number of years they have as Christians, but in reality, they are believers. They are the group that produces the most negative energy. Odeim added:

“Disciples who need to see to believe... produce very little... negative energy.”

Attorney Odeim paused briefly... took a deep breath... and added:

“Disciples who "DO NOT" need to see to believe... do not produce... negative energy.

As the Christian grows in the knowledge of God... they become disciples, who do not need to see to believe. They believe with faith, trust without doubt, and obey without questioning. Attorney Odeim with a worried face and a broken voice said:

“This last group causes terror and great anguish, in THE CONSORTIUM.”
